THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC
ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBS.

BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, DEC. 6.

To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers either in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading, costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC.

HOME NOTES.

Very slight flurry.

Last month of 1899.

Christmas trade is on.

Handkerchief sale this week.

A few cases of mumps in town.

H. C. Wilson met with his skate last Saturday evening.

The Blue Cross is to be given for the annual appropriation.

Gardner Shirley of Detroit was delayed with the Mobile.

John E. Nixon of Port Huron was in town on Thursday last.

Will Bell of Detroit was a visitor last week.

Orrin Hall has moved into the Mrs. Mary Hall house.

Miss Mina Mapes of Detroit is the guest of Miss Ethel Hall.

Ray Wilson of Detroit was a visitor last week.

Wanted—Two more pupils for Dancing Class. W. Nichols.

Miss Ethel Mapes of Detroit is the guest of Miss Mabel Hall.

Stephen Mapes of Detroit was a visitor last week.

Lost—

Found—

Found—A pocketbook containing money. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

Orrin Hall has purchased the Mrs. Mary Hall house and will move his family into it.

Miss Ethel Mapes of Detroit is the guest of Miss Mabel Hall.

Dr. Eugene Hall and family of Detroit were guests of Orrin Hall and family last Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. W. H. Marshall on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ethel McHenry of Detroit spent Tuesday last with her friend, Miss Beatrice Gates.

Mrs. Ella Gates of Detroit is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Nichols, and other relatives in this village.

White Cross Dandelion Coffee is coming very popular. Try it. Whitehead & Mitchell.

The latest up-to-date calendars costs $1.00 and every family should have one. If they want it.

Buy your handkerchiefs and Christmas presents at the Christmas sale, December 12th. Library parlors.

The W. H. M. S. of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Bert Peabody next Thursday afternoon.

Miss Winnie Germain is making an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. Hattie Horn of Hicksville, Ohio.

Mrs. Nettie Campbell was the recipient last week of a fine deer which was shot by her nephew, Harry Coney.

The date of Mrs. E. A. Parks' bazaar and exhibition is December 13 and 14th. Place, steam laundry office.

Ernest G. Spencer and two little daughters left Monday for Hammond, La., where they will spend the winter.

Sunday visitors at L. H. Wilson's were his son, Andrey L. Wilson, and Messrs. Bears, Benedict and Thomas, all of Detroit.

It is predicted that many trees in honor of McKinley will be planted next Arbor day. Why not plant a few this winter?

Some people think that the greatest surprise possible in Birmingham would be to surprise our street lamps with a bath.

What are you going to do the 14th? Nothing? Come to the Presbyterian ladies' Christmas social at the library parlors.

Arnold is noted for his fine cigars. Get one and be convinced. Pool room.

The special services that were announced to be held this week in the Presbyterian church have been postponed until after Christmas.

Miss Eva Arms of Detroit was a welcome guest of Mrs. Marion Wooster last week and had a jolly good time, as you can imagine.

Rev. A. C. Wilson of Milford says that national prosperity is a question accompanied by national righteousness, and he is rightly right.

James Gaines has returned from Harper hospital, where he was taken recently. He did an item of exercise at Kirk's Oak.

Now is the time to take stock of your real estate and support it. Let us have what we need—better roads, better schools, better churches.

Lost—Between the post office and Lewis' Drug store a wallet containing a sum of money and valuable papers. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

H. Mapes has purchased the Mrs. Mary Hall house and will move his family into it. Mrs. Hall will move to Detroit to live with her daughter, Mrs. Orrin Hall.

Mrs. Ella Gates of Detroit is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Nichols, and other relatives in this village.

Dr. Eugene Hall and family of Detroit were guests of Orrin Hall and family last Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. W. H. Marshall on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ethel McHenry of Detroit spent Tuesday last with her friend, Miss Beatrice Gates.

Mrs. Ella Gates of Detroit is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Nichols, and other relatives in this village.

White Cross Dandelion Coffee is coming very popular. Try it. Whitehead & Mitchell.

The latest up-to-date calendars costs $1.00 and every family should have one. If they want it.

Buy your handkerchiefs and Christmas presents at the Christmas sale, December 12th. Library parlors.

The W. H. M. S. of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Bert Peabody next Thursday afternoon.

Miss Winnie Germain is making an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. Hattie Horn of Hicksville, Ohio.

Mrs. Nettie Campbell was the recipient last week of a fine deer which was shot by her nephew, Harry Coney.

The date of Mrs. E. A. Parks' bazaar and exhibition is December 13 and 14th. Place, steam laundry office.

Ernest G. Spencer and two little daughters left Monday for Hammond, La., where they will spend the winter.

Sunday visitors at L. H. Wilson's were his son, Andrey L. Wilson, and Messrs. Bears, Benedict and Thomas, all of Detroit.

It is predicted that many trees in honor of McKinley will be planted next Arbor day. Why not plant a few this winter?

Some people think that the greatest surprise possible in Birmingham would be to surprise our street lamps with a bath.

What are you going to do the 14th? Nothing? Come to the Presbyterian ladies' Christmas social at the library parlors.

Arnold is noted for his fine cigars. Get one and be convinced. Pool room.

The ladies of St. James' church will hold a fair in the parlors of their church this week Saturday afternoon and evening, and serve supper of regular farmer's chicken pie from 5 to 7. Come and get your money's worth and have a grand good time.

A Macomb county editor said that silver buckles on garters were becoming fashionable and he hoped to see more of them. His wife sued for divorce and the only woman in town who had silver buckles on her garters cowhided the editor until he was as raw as a potato.

Wouldn't this rot your mother's reserves? The Oakland Baccalaureate has always planned to be a cash in advance paper, but now comes up that between $2.00 and $3.00 that editorial blessings to the editors in town carried around by people who have been reading the paper without money and without price.

We all missed our old friend, Ca. Hemwood, who has just returned from a month's visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Ross of Calumet. He visited many of the famous copper mines in the upper peninsula and saw all the noted celebrities of that lively city. Had a real good time and came home feeling right smart.

Mrs. Harriet Mitchell is on the sick list, getting away from the attentions of Dr. J. M. Rayner, who is attending professional and social calls in this village. Dr. Rayner is a good doctor. He will, Chas. Hutchings and wife from Farmington were entertained by the gentlemen of the household.

Last Wednesday evening Dr. Rayner came, as usual, all aglow with the news that a baby girl had arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lee. Mrs. Lee was formerly Miss Lena Hutchings, and is a niece of Mrs. Mitchell. Mr. Lee is a prosperous young farmer of Farmington township.

Mrs. Mitchell is also the proud grandmother of a baby girl, which