TALMAGE'S SERMON.

PLEADS FOR A MORE DEMONSTRATIVE RELIGION.

The Duty of Christians to Speak Out Heartily on the Side of Righteousness and to Sing with Joyous Hearts God's Praise.

(Copyright, 1901, by Louis Klopsch, N. Y.)

Washington, Feb. 10. In this discourse Dr. Talmage calls for a more demonstrative religion and a hearty speaking out on the part of everything. The text: Mark 9:25, "Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him."

Here was a case of great demoniacal [illegible] Was possessed of a devil. He was among other things dumb. He had no tongue and no fun expression. When the fiend was cast out of him he could not say a word of salutation was supposed that the devil had captured the tongue of the lunatic. It was a dumb devil that had taken possession of him – a spirit of dumbness. Yet I suppose that he had a tongue and plenty of it. Now, I am not sure that this description will apply to you, but I charge that you come out of him.

Dumb and Deaf Spirit.

Accused of the dumb devil? Do not put on your guard. It is not [illegible] think that the worst of evil has [illegible] his flight on those who become [illegible] of the vocal organs have had the gift [illegible] en gates of speech locked and barred. Among those who have a tongue and [illegible] a word are the [illegible] of [illegible] Joyless, tasteless souls that [illegible] over incarnated. The chaplain of the [illegible] asylums for the dumb can tell many [illegible] chanting stories of those who have [illegible] of the [illegible] or [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] would speak the name of [illegible] Christ.

Many of those [illegible] the [illegible] windows [illegible] form [illegible] What [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Now [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
