LAW OF KAFFIRS.

A Widow May Marry Her Deceased Husband's Heir.

The duties of husband and wife are distinctly defined among the Kaffirs of South Africa. The husband does not expect his wife to build the kraal, or build that is his work. He takes from the husband a thousand young trees to make the beehive kind of dwelling which is in favor and which is excellently adapted for protection. He is the wife's plan to get grass, carry it home and thatch the kraal-gets a kraal. She looks after all the work in the kraal, cooks the food, gets the firewood, and makes the beer, which is not a small task for the man drink of the kraal. He is the man who makes the kraal and makes it into a kraal. He is the man who makes the kraal and makes it into a kraal.
