HOME NOTES.

Valentine Day, Thursday, Feb. 7, 1902. In the evening, a number of Misses...
Miss M. M. McKim, of Detroit, visited the city and met Mr. S. H. Hall...
The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church...
The club of the Presbyterian church...
The club of the Methodist church...
The club of the Episcopal church...

Worst storm of the season Sunday last. Had the snow not drifted, good sleighing would have been the result, but as it is, more snow is needed to cover up the bare places.
Daines & Bell have a new advt this week in which they tell of reasonable goods in the furniture line. They make a specialty of framing pictures to order and guarantee satisfaction.

H. Carter has a notice in this issue in which he urges a review of the book by C. W. Brown...

The club of the Methodist church...
The club of the Episcopal church...
The club of the Lutheran church...
The club of the Catholic church...

There was a surprise on Miss Zina Carter last Friday evening given by 18 boys and girls. The evening was spent in games. Supper was served and at an early hour the guests departed for their homes, having enjoyed themselves to their fullest extent.
K. O. T. M. Tent 256 and L. O. T. M. have 706 of Franklin, will give one of their popular dances in Macomber Hall, Franklin, on Washington, Birthday, Feb. 22, 1902. Good music in attendance. 7:30 to 9:30 supper, per couple, 75c. Every body invited.

The Chrysalis Theater, Philadelphia, held its regular meeting at the home of Mr. R. H. Hunt, all present having a most enjoyable time. First prize was won by E. M. Hubbard, second prize by Mrs. McDonald, and third prize by Mrs. M. J. Hubert.
Saturday last the beet had no difficulty in seeing his shadow and his big side (to be) hoped that he immediately returned to his den, but being overtaken by the severe snow storm of the Sunday following, his weak nose water may be needed for a while—and perhaps more.

Forty young ladies and gentlemen were pleasantly entertained in evening recently at the home of Miss Maudie Ford in Frown. A beautiful lunch was served and a most delightful evening was enjoyed by all present. Miss Riley, of Detroit, was among the out-of-town guests.
Owing to the severe storm Sunday evening the Fraternity Day program of the Presbyterian church was not carried out. Next Sabbath evening the same program as planned in these columns last week will be presented, taking the place of the regular evening service. A very enjoyable party.

Henry C. Stigler has written a book on the subject of "How to Find Out if You Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It." This book is a very valuable one and is being sold by the publisher, H. C. Stigler, 1001 Woodward Building, Detroit, Mich.
W. H. F. has a new advt in this issue in which he tells of reasonable goods in the furniture line. They make a specialty of framing pictures to order and guarantee satisfaction.

Owing to sickness the family, Miss Minnie Staley has been summoned home and has been obliged to give up her position in Port Huron for the present at least.

Everybody knows Lyman Hood, our Cuban soldier boy, and all will sympathize with him in his late misfortune. While visiting friends at Amy the early part of this week, he was stricken with paralysis, affecting the left side of his face and shoulder. This a sad case and we hope Lyman will soon recover.

Frank Westfall has an auction sale on the premises, 1/2 mile south of Casson, tomorrow (Saturday, Feb. 9th) at 10 o'clock a. m. He will sell, horses, cows, pigs, hogs, horses, wagons, traps, traps, etc. He also has a large number of fresh produce, such as apples, pears, etc. and a large number of household goods. For particulars see his advertisement in this issue.
