HUMOROUS

HE DREW THE LINE. "Recently I visited a small town in the southern part of Kentucky," says a correspondent of the Denver News, "and called on the only merchant of the place. I found him opening a case of axle grease. He took out of the lid of one of the small boxes of yellow grease and left it uncovered. "A customer came in and noticed the axle grease, came in and noticed the axle grease, came in and noticed the axle grease."

Another customer came in and noticed the axle grease, came in and noticed the axle grease, came in and noticed the axle grease.

LOVE IN A KITCHEN. She: "Here we have been married nearly three months and I have not seen you for a long time." He: "For heaven's sake are you still in the kitchen?"

HE TOOK HER BY THE HAND. From the London Telegraph. The young woman, Miss Bessie Miller, was taken to the hospital by the ambulance.

Nothing for the Growing-Up

Of course, we need to have the greatest quantity of clothing and the most styles, because there are more demands on us than the other dealers enjoy, and we are called upon to satisfy all classes of trade. This condition of affairs gives us a tremendous advantage in buying, just as flour comes to you cheaper by the barrel than by the single pound. Thus no other house will equal the values we give—because they can't.

Our prices are matches, of course, but the goods are bound to be inferior to those we offer for the same money.

In size and variety of our entirely new stock of Boys' and Children's Clothing for Spring and Summer is the greatest ever shown in Michigan. If you desire a selection from ALL the latest and finest styles and novelties as well as the most substantial and stylish goods at moderate prices, you must see our lines.
