Have We a Marshall?

Last summer we called attention to the disgraceful actions of a certain class of people at the marriage of one of Birmingham's most respected young ladies.

But what the Young Man who Died at West Branch Last May, Was Robert Black.

The following letter from a prominent physician at West Branch, Mich., has been received by Alfred Black of the place.

Dear Sir: I have just received from you a copy of the issue of the 22nd of March, 1901, of the Birmingham Post-Dispatch, containing an account of the death of my son, Robert Black.

My son, Robert Black, was born at West Branch, Mich., on the 15th of August, 1881, and died at that place on the 15th of March, 1901.

My son, Robert Black, was a very bright and promising young man, and was a member of the West Branch High School.
