

To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers either in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading, costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

Eddie McHugh Sunday night in Rochester.
Read H. B. Merritt's new play this week.
Oliver Peck's sermons of late present writing.
State Fair at Pontiac this fall. Everybody will be there.
Funeral for Spring. It can't come any time soon for us.

Gilmore, the Pontiac tailor, has an advertisement in our paper. Look him up. Pontiac still has the best dress suits in the export clothing of the east.

Miss Olive Peck is a resident of the city. She has just returned from a visit to her home in Pontiac. She is a very nice woman and is well liked by all who know her.

A broken telephone wire across a trolley trolley way made a lot of trouble on your way last week. Mr. House kept off all passengers and all other passengers.

Mrs. Mary Crawford of Frederick, Md., was a welcome guest at the home of Mrs. D. Roy and to say that both ladies are enjoying the visit will not be too true.

Samuel Howey, of Detroit, was Sunday guest of his sister, Mrs. Lenora Bunyan.

Mrs. Mary Davis and son Harold of Fort Huron, were guests of Mrs. L. H. Wilson last week.

The family of Will Baker has had a change of the girls all recovered and are nearly in normal condition. He had one all to himself (a girl), but was in town Monday feeling quite like himself.

The auction season is upon us. We wish our farmer friends to remember we are ready at all times to print any number of auction bids required and that a free notice is good one worth with each sale.

If you contemplate buying a new bicycle, come in and talk it over at Whitehead & Mitchell's. They have the agency for the justly celebrated Stearns wheel and will sell you a crimson rim, up-to-date wheel for only $25.

Zula J. Campbell has also been offered a position in the Philippines to contract to teach for three years at $200 per month and transportation. As she has studied the Spanish language at the U. of M. it would prove a great advantage to her.

Our Western friend, Clark Vaughn of Delta county, Col., has sold his large ranch interests at this point and purchased one at Broomfield, Col., near Denver. We are sure he has made a wise change and wish him the greatest luck in his new home.

There was a very pleasant social at the home of Peter Anderson on Monday evening last and one of Z. Milman's Tuesday evening. Quite a number from this place were in attendance and report a good time at both of these model country homes.

Carra & Hekey have a new ad in this issue on our 1st page. They have opened a store on Maple Ave. east and will carry a fine line of agricultural implements. They solicit a share of your patronage and will give you value received every time.

In the Curry electric road scheme from Pontiac to Leard, the promoters have been very liberal. Each village through which they pass has the promise of a big power house, while such towns as Laper and Caro will have a few ticket offices, car barns, etc., thrown in with the deal.

There was a pleasant surprise party given Mr. and Mrs. Allen Castle of Southfield, Friday night of last week. All had a very pleasant time about going to Detroit, Franklin, Southfield and Birmingham in participation of the festivities.

Mrs. Libbie Randall and family have moved into the Goodman house lately vacated by Mr. Walcott and family who have gone to Cleveland.

J. R. Logon is in Louisiana with a good job. His family will soon join him. That leaves their home empty and it is for rent at a very low price.

The oratorical contest to decide who will represent the B. A. S. at the district contest, takes place at the M. E. church, Friday evening, March 13.

Much to the joy of all good people all the railroads have agreed to run no Sunday excursions this coming season. Whatever will the boys do now, poor things.

Monday, March 4th, was a busy day at the Exchange Bank. The promoters were making out their vouchers for this quarter. Over 30 were attended to.

Have you noticed the tamarack trees going south on the electric road lately? They are to be used for a new log cabin at Turner Park for the use of the public.

The month past issued by Page, the Detroit western man, to be the best February we have had since 1892. The average temperature was about 40 degrees.

Miss Olive Peck is a resident of the city. She has just returned from a visit to her home in Pontiac. She is a very nice woman and is well liked by all who know her.

August Wegner, of Troy, is building a handsome barn on the latest approved style of architecture and it is the pride of its owner as well as the broken neighborhood.

During the month of March only Whitehead & Mitchell will sell advertised in their adv't this issue, Prussian Lace Killer, Poultry Food, Prussian Kick Food and Prussian Heave Powders all at 20 per cent less than usual price. Do you know that this means a saving to you of one-fifth of your purchase. This price only for the month of March.

If we were to announce that you could get this paper 90 days for the price of five beers, every descendant of Adam would know that meant 25 cents. But if we were to say that it would be sent three months for price of a gospel hymn book, half of them would not know whether we had raised the subscription rate or were giving the paper away.—Davison Index.

About 25 young people took possession of Mr. and Mrs. Berry's house last Friday evening, it being a surprise party on their daughter, Maude. They played all kinds of games, a substantial lunch was served and when they departed, left their homes in the wee small hours of the night with great reluctance. They had a good time, as only that expressing.

Congressman Sam W. Smith, who is one of the house committee on inland navigation, says that the country was so poor that the government had to raise prices of many commodities to keep the government from going bankrupt. He says that the government had to raise prices of many commodities to keep the government from going bankrupt.

The ladies of Birmingham are to be blessed with what they have yearned for a new, first-class millinery store. Mrs. M. H. Parr of Rochester, a lady of years of experience, has rented the Sawyer house and store and will soon occupy the same and put in a large and complete line of millinery goods and ladies' fashions. Wait for the event.

We have a law against cruelty to animals yet every few days horses stand hour after hour on the streets often without proper cover. Only the other day a case of this kind was reported to the proper authorities.

Married, in Detroit, at the home of Miss Shea, Wednesday, Feb. 27, 1901, William Cook and Miss Lillie Edwards, both of this place. Rev. S. W. Horner, of Detroit, performed the ceremony. For their wedding trip the young couple visited Caro, Mich., where they remained until after the marriage of a cousin at that place. Mr and Mrs. Cook have hosts of friends in this vicinity who wish them a long and prosperous life. The young couple are expected home today.

At Zimmerman's factory a perfect beehive of industry is apparent. Zimmerman can well be proud of his record. It takes from 12 to 15 men to do the work and fill his many orders. All winter long the force has been busy as could be turning out base ball bats just to mention other, while the orders on hand from other sources that he handles are fast more than keep the efficient manager handling. Mr. Zimmerman is the largest wage payer in our vicinity of any private enterprise. Long may he prosper.

Miss E. E. Peabody, who has passed the winter with her son George at New York, during which time she has visited Washington, D. C., and other cities, is expected to return to her home in Pontiac this week.

The musical and literary entertainment given at the M. E. church, Wednesday evening of last week was a very pleasing affair as was a entertainment given at Franklin Friday evening by the same people. Mr. Chabrate has a fine tenor voice, pleasing his hearers greatly. Miss Britton is a most delicate singer. Miss Mustard is an accomplished artist in voice. As a reader, she is equally accomplished. Her recitations were so interesting, being "repetitions" of the same, she was well liked by all present. Help... Nature
Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE FISH LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES IN LIQUID FORM.
We are glad to announce that James F. Wooster is now a nursing home at Charleston. He bought out the village hotel and with his family took present possession nearly a month ago and his prospects are most dazzling for a successful future. He cleared out everything objectionable and had the hearts of the villagers at once by his thoroughness way of regulating his hotel affairs. Business is good. Jim is good, the Phillipses are good and the results will be good for all. Mrs. Walter Wooster is a guest at the Hotel Wooster for a short time. Jim is a very successful man in this vicinity.

Twenty Millions in Gold from Alaska During the Year 1900.
Five millions of this came from the Nome district. Government officials estimate the output from the Nome district will be doubled the coming season. The Bluestone, Kougarok and Pilgrim Rivers have been found very rich. There is hardly a creek from Port Clarence to Kurton Sound in which the precious metal is not found, and hundreds of creeks unprospected. A rich strike has been made on the Yellow River, a tributary of the Kuskoquim.
