Seventeen years ago, while traveling on the Rock Island road near Rock Island, Washburn was injured in a wreck. Later he came to Allegheny married and engaged in business. A year ago he was taken to the hospital. When he awoke after four days of unconsciousness returned he thought he was back in the hospital where he was taken from the wreck and asserted that the past seventeen years were a blank to him.

THINK OF THIS

Superiority in Quality, Styles and Values has Given Shafer's the Clothing Leadership in Michigan.

Our qualities, styles and prices command customers. On these three trails policy we have built our business success. Our ability to give the best values for the least money and the choice of the most desirable styles is based on a foundation that commands the recognition of everybody in the world over—SPOUT CASH.

Our special concessions from manufacturers for ready cash and for buying in unusually large quantities, satisfy our enable us to pass the merchandise on to the consumer at the regular wholesale cost. We make our profits at the buying end of the business. They don't come out of our customers.

Our Stocks of Spring and Summer Clothing for Men, Boys and Children are the largest we have ever shown.

And the form, pocketbook and taste that cannot be suited from the assortment will have a hard time of it. We invite the fastidious man of fashion to inspect these stocks with the same degree of confidence that we invite the busy laborer. We want the trade of both. We can supply the want of both.

Our best is anybody's best. The cheapest of our clothing is good and dependable.

We limit you in no way. We submit the best makes, all styles, all novelties, all good grades—and the choosing is entirely to you, as it should be.

The capitalist who requires close on interest problems, the clerk who is more often troubled by the intricacies of his salary, and the wage worker who must economize, are invited to investigate our price advantages. They will commend themselves to all who compute the full value of money.

When buying a new Overcoat or Suit for yourself, or clothing of any description for the boy, just make it a point to test the full purchasing power of your "spout cash." This is the only place where you can do so. SHAFER'S IS A CASH STORE.
