Special services are being held at the Baptist church here. The meetings are conducted evenings by the pastor assisted by Rev. C. E. Vandorn of Holly, and are being well attended.

We always knew that our John B. Barton was bound to rise in the world. At the elections recently he was elected city treasurer of Holly and township treasurer of the township in which he resides. Well, we always knew that merit would win and John has only just started. Watch his progress in the future.

About two weeks ago a young son of Mr. Schoonover was thrown from a pony at the Watkins farm and one of his arms has hurt him ever since, although it was not thought that any bones were broken. Saturday last Dr. C. M. Raynal made an examination and found the bone in the left arm broken below the elbow. The doctor assisted by Dr. J. I. Campbell, reduced the fracture and placed his arm in a plaster cast and the little fellow is doing nicely.

Consanguinity of Pontiac, Michigan, by a lady member of the Salvation Army of that city, were at the Birmingham Baptist church, Sunday evening last. The young girl singing and Mr. Campbell delivered a very good address. He said that work accomplished by the Salvation Army in England, India and the United States. He also related several personal experiences from his own life which he felt were of the greatest value. There was a large audience present and the services were of the highest order.

Blood.

Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago I was struck by a horse and lost my leg. I had a very good doctor but he could not do anything for me. I was in great pain and I was told that I would never walk again. I was very discouraged and I was told that I would never walk again. I was very discouraged and I was told that I would never walk again.
