

BISHOP HANDY

SAYS

"I Cheerfully Recommend Peruna to All Who Want a Good Tonic and a Safe Cure for Catarrh."

Prominent members of the clergy are giving Peruna their unqualified endorsement. They think that Peruna especially adapted to preserve them from catarrh of the vocal organs which has always been the bane of public speakers and general catarrhal debility incident to the sedentary life of the clergyman. Among the recent utterances of noted clergymen on the curative virtues of Peruna is the following one from Bishop James A. Handy, D. D. of Baltimore:

"I take great pleasure in acknowledging the curative effects of Peruna. At the solicitation of a friend I used your remedy and cheerfully recommend your Peruna to all who want a good Tonic and a safe cure for catarrh."—James A. Handy.

TRUTH ABOUT ALASKA.

Secretary Seward said the Acquisition Was Most Important. To the vast majority of people Alaska is a frigid, barren, valueless section of country. It has never seemed to be clearly enough connected with the United States to arouse any patriotism or interest in the hearts and minds of the masses. Doubtless there are thousands who cherish the same sentiments towards the cold corner of the continent, but the opponents of the Alaska purchase thirty years ago Congressmen Perce and others, who were moved that the best authorities of the day should be called upon to give their views on the subject. "Now Don't Get the Blues."

When a cheerful, brave and light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the blues, it is a sad picture.

It is usually this way. She has been feeling out of sorts for some time, experiencing severe headache and backache; sleeps very poorly and is exceedingly nervous.

Sometimes she is nearly overcome by faintness, dizziness, and palpitation of the heart; then that bearing-down feeling is dreadfully wearing.

Her husband says, "Now, don't get the blues! You will be all right after you have taken the doctor's medicine."

Her doctor has made a mistake. She loses faith; hope vanishes; then comes the morbid, melancholy, everling blues. She should have been told just what the trouble was, but probably she withheld some information from the doctor, who, therefore, is unable to accurately locate her particular illness.

Mrs. Pinkham has relieved thousands of women from just this kind of trouble, and now retains their grateful letters in her library as proof of the great assistance she has rendered them. This same assistance awaits every sick woman in the land.

Mrs. Winifred Allender's Letter.

"Dear Mrs. PINKHAM: I feel it my duty to write and tell you of the benefit I have received from your Compound. Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I was miserably tormented with nervousness, weary hours, migraines would appear sometimes in two weeks, then again not for three or four months. I was so tired and weak, could not sleep nights, sleep would last through my heart that would almost cease to fall. Vegetable Compound, I had no faith in it, but please her I did so. The first bottle helped me so much that I continued its use. I am now well and well as ever, and I thank you for your Compound. WINIFRED ALLENDER, Farmington, N.H."
