

The Evening Prayer

Life's opening voyage. Lord, Thine did safely keep
 Or children's sheltered days,
 As now the tide of age around me creeps,
 Protect my evening days.

Thou didst defend my youth when steel my bark
 Out from the perilous sea,
 As I grapple with the shore, mine own dark
 Still guard and care for me.

Be joined to all winds and clouds I pray
 The night of my old age,
 Now tempests beat and whirl about me
 From lightning bolts of care.

When joy, bright visions and glad thoughts
 Thine gently drift away,
 My heart is left to wander
 My mind to all vain things.

When sorrow's waves are high and dark
 I think I see the light,
 A voice that calls me to the shore,
 Draw me to Thy loving hand.

Lead, O Lord, by Thy compassion's hand
 From the perilous sea,
 When I am old and weak,
 To the harbor of Thy love.

Thy grace, O Lord, Thy grace,
 Thy grace, O Lord, Thy grace,
 Thy grace, O Lord, Thy grace,
 Thy grace, O Lord, Thy grace.

A Dangerous Discovery.

It is a dangerous discovery that has been made by the chemists of the University of California, and it is one that should be of great interest to all of us. The discovery is that of a new and powerful explosive, which is called "nitro-cellulose." This explosive is much more powerful than any other that has been discovered, and it is also much more easily made and handled than any other. It is a discovery that is of great importance to the military and naval authorities of the United States, and it is one that should be of great interest to all of us.

frons by hands and feet in a instant she was gone.

The next morning at 9 o'clock I stood before the man most wronged by Ripley in the affair of the doctored books. My terrible earnestness persuaded him to investigate. Within two weeks the newspapers were filled with details of the terrible scandal and of the downfall of Lemuel Ripley, who now occupied a cell in the county jail awaiting trial on a criminal charge.

This is the end of my story. I might go on and tell of how the people who received their money made me most handsome payment for my services and how I secured a Sue position and I might even tell how I handed the job in his hands and insisted on carrying away the girl who had saved me from that horrible asylum but my wife says that is a matter which concerns only her.

English Jews' Taxen In.

Those English Jews who answered a certain advertisement not long ago of a certain way of killing bees received the instructions to give a small parcel between two pieces of wood (enclosed) and strike the wood with a hammer. Some time ago these appeared in the London papers the following advertisement: "A suit of black for half a crown. Send height, width of hips and chest. Guarantee to fit." Those who sent their half-grown beehives received by return of post a small parcel containing a box of black and a brush, with the brief note: "Suit of black beneath enclosed. Mind how you put it on, for it is sure to fit." (Chicago Journal)

Daily Exercise of Strength.

Baron Pierre de Couvertin, chairman of the international Olympic committee, without previous training, successfully spent six hours out of eight in sport. This he did by going through one hour of riding, one hour of tennis, and playing lawn tennis an hour in riding a motor cycle at four out of five miles an hour, and the boxing gloves. The Baron maintains that any man who keeps up daily exercise can, in the morning, be ready at any time to take the best of anything of his physical endurance. Paris Letter.

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

Crawfordville, Ga.

Chas. H. Moore, Editor of the Advocate Democrat of Crawfordville, Ga., writes for the Atlanta Medical Company as follows: "Georgetown, Ga. I have suffered for years of intense suffering, caused by systemic catarrh, which I contracted while editing and traveling for my paper. I have used every remedy, but all the permanent relief came from the use of Peruna. My trouble was called Indigestion, but it was catarrh all through its system, and a few bottles of Peruna made me feel like another person, during the progress of the cure. I had used Peruna in undoubtedly the best catarrh remedy ever compounded." - Clean O. Moore.
