Mrs Yates Arrested. The finding of the body of Jasper N. Wright in the woods near St. Louis on the 9th was followed on the next day by the arrest of Mrs. Mary Yates. The theory of the prosecution is that Wright was snatched by a carpet bagger who took him to the woods to prove that death was caused by heart disease.

At the inquest held at St. Louis on the 11th the jury found that Mrs. Yates was the mother of the child. Mrs. Yates testified that she had heard the body of her son in the woods on the 9th and that she had seen him there on the 10th. She testified that she had seen him with a man who she described as a "carpet bagger".

James Watson, who is the man who is supposed to have been the "carpet bagger", was arrested on the 11th and is now in the St. Louis jail.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Yates found that she was guilty of the crime of murder in the second degree. The jury also found that the man who was supposed to have been the "carpet bagger" was guilty of the crime of murder in the second degree.

At the trial of Mrs. Yates on the 12th the jury found her guilty of the crime of murder in the second degree. The jury also found that the man who was supposed to have been the "carpet bagger" was guilty of the crime of murder in the second degree.

Should Have the Warning. The state commissioner of health reports a peculiar case of smallpox. The child sick with the disease was taken to a school where he was on which one of his relatives, a member of a family which smalles existed from an illness about two years ago. There was a case of smallpox from which the disease could have been contracted by the child. The father had died recently sent to the family in Michigan by the authorities. Thus the state board should be warning to persons having dangerous smallpox diseases in their families, to make sure that all articles used are thoroughly disinfectant before being used again.

Agot Fever Disappointed. As H. Townsend, aged about 40, got sick with agot fever, he was attended by a doctor who gave him a bottle of Spatha a few weeks ago and stopped at the Sawyer residence. He expressed a strong desire to buy a new pair of shoes. Soon the doctor investigated and laid the matter before Deputy Sheriff Smith, who advised Townsend to leave town. He accepted the advice.

Suicidal Woman Terrorized Hubbs. Chief Norton, of St. Joseph, on the 4th ran down the writer of the anonymous letters which have been terrorizing St. Joseph hubbs. The writer is a prominent society woman who writes the letters to rival society leaders, exposing the alleged immorality of their husbands. She confessed in full, and on promise to permit correspondence the officers agreed to keep her name a secret. The letters almost ruined the happiness of a number of the best homes in the city.

Harbored by Gov. Bliss. Edward Maher and George Carroll, sent to state prison from the southern part of the state last October for a term of two years for breaking open a safe in a house. The facts as ascertained by the state pardon board are that the two men pushed open a door and entered a vacant house for the purpose of securing some water from a cask in the house. They committed no other offense.

Gov. Bliss has designated John H. Bishop, Bishop of Detroit, laid and blessed the cornerstone of the new Burgess hospital at Kalamazoo on the afternoon of the 10th. The president of the city signed the commission of Lincoln Avery, as collector at Port Huron, in succession to his brother, the late Alex. Avery.

The Rev. Henry T. Miller, of the Trumbull Avenue Presbyterian church, Detroit, who, on his recent visit to Palestine, secured some water from the River Jordan where Christ was baptized by John, used this water on the 9th to baptize 20 babies. They should be good children.
