

INDIANS HAVE THE STAGE

KIOWAS AND TONKAWAS KISS & MAKE UP WHILE POTTAWATTAMIES MARCH ON CHICAGO

One of the most important events in recent Indian history was just announced as the report came to Chicago that the Kiowa, Pottawattamie and Arapaho were preparing to march on the city and reclaim the lake front from which they claim they have been unjustly driven.

It was not until the middle of the month that the Kiowa, Pottawattamie and Arapaho were reported to have been preparing to march on Chicago. The Kiowa, Pottawattamie and Arapaho were reported to have been preparing to march on Chicago. The Kiowa, Pottawattamie and Arapaho were reported to have been preparing to march on Chicago.

Two of the tribes of four hundred Indians reported to be away from camp and they were the only ones to escape being massacred. This report was spread rapidly through the city and Indians are full of superstitions. Many of them are very superstitious and are very much afraid of the white people. They are very much afraid of the white people and are very much afraid of the white people.

Their belief would have been far from complete if they had not further beautified themselves with plenty of green, yellow and red paint in rings about their eyes, noses and mouths and the faces, forehead, legs, arms and hands.

The chief of the Tonkawas, while working about in great pain, believed that the white people would kill him if he were seen. He was very much afraid of the white people and was very much afraid of the white people.

POTTAWATTAMIES ON THE MARCH

United States Supreme Court.

Eight of the justices decided that the United States has no authority to apply wherever the United States has sovereignty. Justice Brandeis dissented from this opinion, holding that Congress can govern in any territory which is incorporated into the United States or not incorporated into the constitution.

The court by a majority of six decided that the United States has no authority to apply wherever the United States has sovereignty. Justice Brandeis dissented from this opinion, holding that Congress can govern in any territory which is incorporated into the United States or not incorporated into the constitution.

Did not deny the Philippines, in which the United States has sovereignty. Justice Brandeis dissented from this opinion, holding that Congress can govern in any territory which is incorporated into the United States or not incorporated into the constitution.

The court by a majority of six decided that the United States has no authority to apply wherever the United States has sovereignty. Justice Brandeis dissented from this opinion, holding that Congress can govern in any territory which is incorporated into the United States or not incorporated into the constitution.

In dealing with the collection of duties in a case such as that of the United States v. Dorr, the court decided that the United States has no authority to apply wherever the United States has sovereignty. Justice Brandeis dissented from this opinion, holding that Congress can govern in any territory which is incorporated into the United States or not incorporated into the constitution.

The court by a majority of six decided that the United States has no authority to apply wherever the United States has sovereignty. Justice Brandeis dissented from this opinion, holding that Congress can govern in any territory which is incorporated into the United States or not incorporated into the constitution.

Succeeds Historic Hospital.

The new city hospital will be located on the site of the old structure, which was utterly destroyed by the great fire of 1902. It will be a modern building, with all the latest improvements in hospital architecture.

The new city hospital will be located on the site of the old structure, which was utterly destroyed by the great fire of 1902. It will be a modern building, with all the latest improvements in hospital architecture.

The new city hospital will be located on the site of the old structure, which was utterly destroyed by the great fire of 1902. It will be a modern building, with all the latest improvements in hospital architecture.

The new city hospital will be located on the site of the old structure, which was utterly destroyed by the great fire of 1902. It will be a modern building, with all the latest improvements in hospital architecture.

The new city hospital will be located on the site of the old structure, which was utterly destroyed by the great fire of 1902. It will be a modern building, with all the latest improvements in hospital architecture.

The new city hospital will be located on the site of the old structure, which was utterly destroyed by the great fire of 1902. It will be a modern building, with all the latest improvements in hospital architecture.

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE DISCOURAGED, THE SUBJECT.

From the Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

Copyright 1911 by Talmage, N. Y. Washington, June 2. This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to deprecate themselves and who have an idea that their best amount to little or nothing. Text, Matthew XXXI 15: "To Another One." The text is from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter XXXI, Verse 15.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

joined to ransomed souls, and the gates which were so long open are shut while he is away. When all the redeemed are gathered before the great white throne. If so, I think the hosts of heaven before the King will move in different divisions with the first of them. The King will pass the mighty ones of earth who were as good and useful as they were great. In this division will pass before the throne the King will pass the mighty ones of earth who were as good and useful as they were great. In this division will pass before the throne the King will pass the mighty ones of earth who were as good and useful as they were great.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

In our own house now, here in our memory such a saint. We want to those old people with all our might. They were patient, uncomplaining, by their meek words to their household of spirit, and in every sense made them all loving that they are of here. But there are exceptions. There is a daughter in that family whose father is a saint, and the mother is a saint, and the daughter is a saint. The passage of many years does not always improve the disposition, and there are a great many disagreeable old folks. Some of them are very old, and some of them are very young. They are all of them, and they are all of them. They are all of them, and they are all of them.

GIRL'S SOUL IN A PUPPY.
A singular illness of a California Woman Recently Alarmed.
Mrs. M. E. Halpruner of Alameda, Cal., believes that the soul of her dead daughter, Lillian May Halpruner, dwells in the body of a little spitz dog she possesses.

"I treat the dog as I would my own daughter," she says. "I give her affection, and she gives reasons for her faith. A year ago, on her daughter's birthday, she had been told a snow-white spitz pup was to be given her by a neighbor. The girl was very away from Mrs. Halpruner. In its stead started out and nestled to her a snow-white spitz pup. At once I saw my daughter's features duplicated in the dog, and believe in reincarnation that I am. I knew Lillian's soul had come back to be near me. My daughter had entered the body of my golden spitz dog, Earl of Glenview, and I treat him as I would my child. At night this dog sleeps on a silk-covered down pillow beside his owner's bed. The little white pup will sit on the floor and look at Mrs. Halpruner. Then he stretches his limbs with just the motions rolls his head back to side and with a child's happy sigh goes to sleep. Yes, I know that my darling's soul dwells in his body. St. Louis, Mo., 1911.

A Homecoming's Strange Experience.
A Homecoming's Strange Experience.
A Homecoming's Strange Experience.
A Homecoming's Strange Experience.

A Bottle-Washing Machine.
A Bottle-Washing Machine.
A Bottle-Washing Machine.
A Bottle-Washing Machine.

REPORT IN WESTERN CANADA.
REPORT IN WESTERN CANADA.
REPORT IN WESTERN CANADA.
REPORT IN WESTERN CANADA.

Medical Examinations of Converts.
Medical Examinations of Converts.
Medical Examinations of Converts.
Medical Examinations of Converts.