About 25 Detroit friends of W. L. Rogers came out from the city Saturday evening and gave him a very pleasant surprise. The evening was passed in a happy manner the guests and host enjoying the A. H. L. cream and cake were served. Ed Jacobs, of Detroit, is visiting with his Uncle's family during the heated term. Ed brought with him to pass the time away his new chainless coaster brake Columbia bike and among in this bicycle is fast enough to catch Master Ed.

Lady Foresters supper on Mrs. Robert Reynolds' lawn from 7 to 10 p. m., July 19th. To those who had bought tickets the supper was free. If all others appear will be seated for cents, but have in the drawing for a prize. Accordingly invited. Three thousand Seminoles Indians in Oklahoma have just been made voters. Do they know more about it they more helpful to the state than thousands of educated, cultured women, who are devoting their lives and their money to the good of their country?

Charles Eckstein visited his family, left down a one foot day which Friday evening. Last night besides being badly exposed his shoulder blade was broken. Dr. L. T. Campbell was called and he made the patient comfortable as usual.

over Peabody steps one morning recently, since when the village drives of Peabody have had a regular moonlighting feast at all hours of the day or night. After several weeks stay in town, Charles Dennis has returned to his home in Houston, Texas. Mr. Dennis has interests in the production of fields of Texas and says prospects there are very good. A specimen of one of the largest oil wells of Brannan is on exhibition at the store of Whitehead & Mitchell left there by Mr. Dennis as a souvenir.

The sexton at our cemeteries will be saved a great deal of trouble if persons will turn off the water property. Often when there is no water in the pipes the sexton is obliged to go over the whole yard before he can turn on the water and often has a great deal of trouble for trees and flowers. Please be careful to close the faucets. The real estate exchange in connection with the Exchange Bank is doing a very good business these days. Last week the exchange's check book was sold for $100,000.00 and a dozen would be purchased for themselves to secure the bargain. Mrs. Mary Bell was out of the first flight of a pair of it and she was the first to get it.
