In their meetings the "Boxers" wear gowns and masks. Their organization came about as a result of the publication of William Rice's "Boxer Book." This book first saw the light in Chicago and was freely distributed among people of advanced thought. It dis- advises the whites to forego the mere Biblical injunction to increase and multiply that the natives of races in population, over the dusky races may ward off the peril.

Not all of the assembled Boxers were present at the meeting, many of them being unable to get away from their work, but all who were present were masked. Indeed, the masks were a necessity, for the Boxers are all members of the Chinese army, and if their identity were known they would be executed as traitors. The Boxers are said to number 100,000 men, and their object is to drive all foreigners out of China. Indeed, the Boxers are said to have already succeeded in driving out all of the missionaries except those in the seaport towns, where the foreigners are protected by the warships in the harbors. The Boxers are said to be well armed and drilled, and their principles are similar to those of the Anarchists. Another Boxer society has been formed in Chicago, and it is said that there are now 1,000 members in the United States.

TURKEY PAID UP.

The state department has received the amount of the American indemnity claim against Turkey, $95,000, through the American legation at Constantinople.

The money was paid by the Turkish government to Mr. Terrell, who by him placed in the ottoman imperial bank and drafts remitted for the amount. The money was just received, early this month, and a few days later the claims of the other nations considerably in excess of the indemnity actually paid, but our government has never put itself on record with the payment. It assumes full responsibility for the distribution, the British government paying down a lump sum of $65,000 and leaving all to be settled by the parties in interest, among the claimants of record. It is stated that as this was a "gift" to the United States, no part of the fund will come to the department of state.
