Every reader of this paper will find something in the following lists that will fill a need. The quotations are from our socks of Crockery, Glassware and Housefurnishings.

The departments occupy one entire floor of our immense store.

The variety of ggots embraced in these lines is too great to permit of adequate description. We have simply attempted to enumerate some of the most wanted and seasonable articles, and to show by the appended figures what they may be had for . The prices are less than you'd pay elsewhere, and we prepay the freight to any point in Michigan on purchases of 55 and more.
