Cheaper Than Ever Before.

The after inventory clean up of stock begins in our Clothing Departments Thursday morning. It will make a quick sale of all odds and ends and surplus lots. We've marked them regardless of former prices, cost or worth. Prices are so low that thoughtful people will buy not only for present use, but to supply future needs, as well. The sale is limited to the supply of stock, so if you wait too long you will miss the greatest Clothing values ever offered in Detroit.
