The business places in town were all closed yesterday afternoon from two until four, the council at a special meeting held September 17 having issued a proclamation to this effect. This action was taken owing to the funeral of President McKinley being held Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Gray celebrated with about 25 friends the 20th anniversary of their wedding day on Sept. 14th. The entire party drove out to Pine Lake, had a big day's visit, a picnic, and a jolly good time all the entire day.

Last week John Ludlow and Fred E. Brooks attended the Industrial Fair at London, Ont. They had a very good time at the fair. John came home first but Mr. Brooks remained and in looking around his eye fell on a fine thought-provoking show, Home Durban, Ont. To see was to buy and how the Brooks felt west of the village is proud of its imported show Home Durban, Ont.

Farmers who intend raising sugar beets next year should now begin plowing and preparing the ground for their cultivation. The excellent profits made from sugar beet raising last season by Michigan farmers will no doubt result in a largely increased acreage devoted to this paying crop.
