BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, JAN. 10.

Dreyfus has quarreled with his lawyer. What was the foe?

It is good to be loved by one's fellow-man when there is not too many of him.

Peace on earth, as a general rule. Prominent exceptions, South Africa and the Philippines.

Petroleum has been discovered in Egypt, and light of other kinds is gradually breaking through.

Beaumont oil may have crossed the path along which so many settlers are now making a quick slide into Texas.

Encouraged by the absence of Gen. Garrison from the scene of conflict, the Illinois insurgents are again becoming active.

Now that the German crown prince is broken down with hard work the time is ripe for princes to agitate for an eight-hour day.

Being unable to settle its own war satisfactorily all concerned, Great Britain will try what it can do in the Chilean-Argentine dispute.

Every day another halo pales and vanishes, another cherished illusion goes bump. It is now discovered that these things are again becoming active.

Dr. H. H. Rogers of Fairhaven, Mass., has given to that town a library, waterworks, a school, a school, a church and a drainage system.

A crowd of theater-goers in Rome got into a fight over a new play and many were wounded. Therefore it is limited that the play is a big success.

The grand jury in Manhattan reports to the effect that the Brooklyn bridge is all right, but it needs to be rebuilt to keep it from falling down.

The manufacture of whisky from watermelons is to be tried at Baltimore, and the idea sounds about as exhilarating as extracting sunbeams from cucumbers.

Telephones are to be reconstructed so as to provide for sight as well as hearing. This will have the effect of further increasing the annoyance resulting from cross wires.

America is not conspicuous in the Nobel prizes now being awarded for achievements of the greatest benefit to humanity. This looks like a slap at the theory that our trusts aid the general public.

William Clegg, aged 87, was married on Wednesday at Orangeville, by Mrs. Fleming, his fifth wife. And the third generation has off from matrimony as if it was something intensely unpleasant.

DuBois Express: Virginia is taking steps to take an expedition to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement within the present limits of the United States.

The city of Philadelphia gets 30 per cent of the money put into ten-ton weighing machines in the public parks. Since 1885 115,920 persons have used such machines, and the profit to the city has been $231.80.

Who used to live in Philadelphia, used to say: "Look after the pennies, and the dollars will look after themselves."

Baltimore American: "The young master officer most famous a short while ago through his name, who has been refused a commission in the regular army because he fitted his trousers. Uncle Sam is too gallant to allow such things to be done. Perhaps, too, he is shrewd enough to distrust the bravery of a man who doesn't deserve the fair."

"The decision to canonize Joan of Arc will be regarded by the French as a delicious compliment to themselves. In spite of the numerous changes of political system that have taken place in their country, the few courtiers who are to be canonized cherish everything that is a relic of history picturesque. So a stern Republican publican with pride to the distinguished figures of monarchial or imperial times."

The great Revolution that the French had a tendency to destroy the records of a great past. The cult of Joan of Arc was not confined to those who regret the old monarchy. All true Frenchmen can adhere to it, no matter what their political ideas may be."

A Kansas newspaper man expresses his thanks to a girl who gave him Ben Davis apples, which leads to the discriminating Topeka Capital to ask: "What you think of a man who returns thanks for a gift of Ben Davis apples?" Perhaps the editor felt that he could afford to be polite, neighbor. He didn't have to eat the apples.

Better a good statue of a bad man than a bad statue of a good one. The good of the one is more than the bad of the one, but no bad artist can make the other's virtues lovable.

A new breed of chickens just made in New York from China has tails 12 feet long. They are kept in a cage over their heads so that they exercise an attendant pass along to hold up the feathers. The hens lay thirty eggs a year, which are hatched by other hens.

General Funston is coming home from the Philippines on sick leave. He has been there for some time, and about the only thing that our heroes can make no headway against either by force or strategy.

THE MICHIGAN CENTRAL SUIT.
The Lawyers Look for a Great Legal Battle for the Central-The Adverses Sides-How Taylor to tell Who Controls-Various Matters.

Shot His Wife's Paramour.
James Hooker, of Adrian, is dead as the result of a lively shooting affair Sunday night. The wife of a Milan lawyer named Farrington came to Adrian a week ago and was visiting at Hooker's house. Farrington became suspicious and came down to see about things himself. He found about 10 o'clock Sunday night, and going to Hooker's house, he peered through the window and saw his wife with Hooker's lap. Farrington went to the jail and asked the sheriff for help to secure evidence. Farrington, Sheriff Shepherd and Officer Krueger went to the house with Farrington and obtained admission from Hooker and Mrs. Farrington occupying the same bed. Farrington, who was behind Hooker, uttered a word and began shooting over the sheriff's shoulder. The match in the other's hand went flying and Farrington was killed in the dark. His aim was deadly, nerveless, and when he ceased it was found that Hooker had been shot three times, once in the arm, once in the breast, and once in the abdomen. Two balls were found in his arm, and one woman escaped unharmed. Farrington was overpowered and taken to jail, where he expressed no regret for his deed. He said that the man who would hesitate to protect his honor and that of his wife was a scoundrel. Farrington is highly spoken of and well-to-do, owning a farm near Milan. Hooker is a late war hero, a former city roller miller, and he, too, formerly lived at Milan and used to work for Farrington. The woman is said to have been infatuated with Hooker, and has not lived with Farrington in the past six months. Farrington's child is with her people in Milan, but that she did not stay there because her husband was infatuated with Hooker. The Central's Suit.
The result of the Michigan Central Railway Company will commence suit against the state for $5,000,000 damages for the repeal of its charter in 18 months. The repeal of the charter was a surprise, inasmuch as the law passed preliminary to the repealing statute provided that the companies whose charters might be repealed the right to sue the state provided that the suits shall be brought in the Circuit Courts of Wayne, Ingham or Kent counties. If the Michigan Central is to sue the state, the trial of the case in the United States courts it evidently intends to challenge the constitutionality of the Michigan statute if it is not to assent to it. There is said to be a very nice line between the two positions. The state will, of course, be prepared to contest the right of the company to sue the state. The Michigan Central, on the other hand, is said to intend to sue the state, and it will be contended that the repeal of the charter is a taking of property without compensation.
