

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC

One Issue Per Week
WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBL.

BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, JAN. 31.

To Our Friends.

When reading with any of our advertisements in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will consider the fact that you noticed that advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of reading does you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC.

HOME NOTES.

Of all the seasons of the year
The "home" time is the oddest;
But when summer time has gone,
It then becomes the oddest.

The M. E. Sunday school is putting forth an effort to increase its library.

Give the boy and girl an interesting book to read and keep them at home nights.

Mrs. Irving Wilson is very ill with pleurisy pneumonia. Dr. Rynale is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Crawford returned Friday from a two weeks' visit at Clarkson.

Mrs. Shipley from Canada is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Stillbr.

Mrs. E. J. Scorer of Warren is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hanna.

Jay Williams has the material ready for building a barn on the lot he purchased of Chas. McKay.

Some of our best boys and girls are found improving their time at the library Saturday afternoons.

Rev. Montrose Maxwell is assisting Rev. A. W. Martin of Fairgrove in special services this week.

Felows who are doing a nice business this cold weather—neat on the pond cutting and selling the congealed water.

The Literary club will meet with Mrs. J. A. Bigelow next Monday evening and with Mrs. Crawford the following Monday evening.

Married, at the United Presbyterian a parsonage, Thursday evening, January 16, Mr. Ray Newman and Miss Flora Otto, both of Pontiac.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Tuesday, Feb. 4, at the home of Mrs. Miller at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Dr. C. M. Rynale was called early Sunday morning last to mend a broken wrist for W. D. Clizre, who slipped and fell with the above result.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Blauvelt next Friday afternoon, Feb. 7. No committee this month.—Fannie J. Shan, sec'y.

Miss Suffer of Detroit returned home Sunday after a week's visit to her brother, who bought the Chas. Moore property on Southfield after a few weeks ago.

Mr. Griffin, who lives south of Birmingham near Parker school house, is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia under the care of Dr. E. Mather.

Now is the time when the question comes up for consideration: "Is the man who does not clean his sidewalks a good citizen and a good neighbor?" We have a few such.

Mrs. Grace McKittie has sold her home on Brown street to Peter Kerr for $2,500. We are glad that Mr. Kerr has decided to live with us and become a Birminghamer.

Mr. Lefurgy, who lives near the Morris Mill site, has been visiting his old home at Dubois Ferry, N. Y., being called there on business. All his friends rejoice over his safe return.

The W. F. M. S. of the Presbyterian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. Perry on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 5th. Subject for the month is Perseia. All are cordially invited.

The B. Y. P. U. box social held last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunt was quite a decided success. Quite a number attended and enjoyed themselves, as is usual on such occasions.

The choir director of St. James' church, Miss Louise Stinchfield, will meet the choir in the Club rooms next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. It is requested that each member make a special effort to be present.

If the party who wrote to us from Bedford, recommending a good correspondent from that place for the Eccentric from that place, will give us their name we will at once put their suggestion in force. Please reply.

A wealthy Chicago ice dealer was shot and badly wounded by his brother over business matters last week. The fact that they will use no ice to preserve the corpse in case the man should die must be consulting to the heirs.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Miller are visiting their many relatives in Chicago and having a very cheerful and happy visit, even if it was only Sunday and Monday. We would like to be with James A. about the night he does Tattersall's.

The Library society has a number of magazines that it will gladly loan to any one wanting reading, no matter whether members of the society or not. Don't go without reading matter these long evenings, for the society will find you something.

For St. Valentine's Day the decorations of the table should be pink. Cut the sandwiches and have your small cakes baked heart shape, the latter with pink icing. A dish of "kisses" stimulates conversation.—February Ladies' Home Journal.

Flint is "it," and every other place must go way back and sit down. The first robin of the year has been seen in that city.—Free Press. Not so fast, Mr. Free Press. A robin was perched on our flagstaff on the well, we don't just know the date, but it was the day before the robin was seen in Flint.

We learn from our exchanges that the wealthy are fleeing to Rhode Island to escape taxation. We were going to skip, too, in order to save our nite, but before we could find our red badana to tie up our one lonely shirt, one collar and seven cuffs of different hues, the tax man came and took our all.

The stereoscopic lecture and photograph entertainment given by J. W. Bird of Ann Arbor in the basement of the M. E. church last Friday evening was awarded a fair attendance. Mr. Bird's remarks were all good and true and calculated to make people think on the serious subject which he represents.

Little Jan Montgomery went out to dine with a friend one day this week. On his return home he was questioned by his mother, "Did you act nicely and were you polite?" James stoutly replied and said "Yes, ma'am," "No, ma'am," "Please," and "Thank you," which of course made the lad good as far as possible.

The beautiful home of Mrs. E. F. Peabody on Woodward avenue was sold last week by Whitehead & Mitchell to Dr. N. T. Shaw, who will make some fine improvements on the house. A large roomy porch from east to south door, new back stairs, bath room and a new coat of paint will make a cozy home for the Doctor.

Martin H. Blunt is the best auctioneer in this part of the state and our farmers recognize this fact, that a man who knows personally every last man within twenty miles is the one who knows when to knock down a sale. His prices and terms are always satisfactory to every patron. Dates made at the ECCENTRIC office.

Harold Waldo entertained fourteen young boys in a delightful luncheon last Friday afternoon and evening, the occasion being his 12th birthday. A very pleasant time was enjoyed in games and other forms of amusements, a delicious supper was served and the boys departed leaving a number of nice gifts as mementoes of their visit.

A Green Oak farmer says it costs as much to keep a dog as it does to keep thirty hens, and the hens will lay 600 dozen eggs in a year. He doesn't say what breed of hens he would do this, but we can get hold of a breed that will produce as he says, or a feed of one dog, we want to swap our outfit for sixty of them this minute, and will give a 20-pound pig to boot.

James A. Miller has been Southfield's veterinary for many years, but as the years roll round he really desires to graduate and gracefully retire to active duties. Hereafter his works will be labors of love far more than for money and in retiring he feels called upon to say that anyone needs the services of a thoroughly good equine or bovine M. D., call Henry Spicer of Birmingham.

The next business meeting of the B. Y. P. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. Rogers on Tuesday evening, Feb. 31. Heretofore they have been holding their business meetings on the first Monday evening of each month. At the last meeting they decided to change it to Tuesday evening for this year. They will be pleased to see any of the general public attend these business meetings whenever they can make it convenient to do so.

All diseases start in the bowels. Keep them open or you will be sick. CASCARETS act like nature. Keep liver and bowels active without a sickening gripping feeling. Six million people take and recommend CASCARETS. Try a box. All druggists.

Rev. Cyrus A. Varnum of Hillsdale, representing the lecture bureau of that city, was in town last week booking dates for Clarence L. Burger, the well known impersonator and "wholesale dealer in laughter." The Epworth League made an engagement for Tuesday evening, February 11. Mr. Burgerfer has given universal satisfaction where he has appeared and a high class entertainment is promised.

"There is one editor in heaven," says an essay in an Indiana weekly, "though how he got there is a matter of speculation; but it is supposed he rode in the blind baggage or got a pass. When he was found they tried to turn him out, but he refused to go. They hunted all over heaven for a lawyer to sue ejectment papers, but one could not be found, so the editor held the fort, and is there to this day.

The next meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Hamm on Wednesday, February 12, at which time all present are to entertain into a quilting bee for Mrs. Hamm, for which the hostess will give them their dinner. The society in turn will charge each one to cents for dinner. It is what the London Times might call a "Yankee trick" but it's not a pure business proposition. A more complete announcement may be looked for in our next issue.

Tramps broke into the waiting room of the D. & M. depot last Sunday night and remained there all night. It being a very cold night they wanted a warm place to stay and they found it. G. F. Aldren, the agent, had left kindling and coal there for morning use, but when he arrived Monday morning it was all gone. The tramps got in by prying open a window. They didn't molest anything further than using the kindling and coal.

James A. Hanks, son of Thomas Hanks of our village, after being away for nearly ten years, delighted the hearts of his father and mother by a week's visit with them. His home is now in the great state of Missouri, where he is doing very nicely. Mr. Thomas Hanks is now 87 years of age and the only wife is 85. He is perfectly familiar with the early days of Detroit and was one of the men who set out the large trees in Grand Circus park and when he is in the humor can tell many an interesting story of Detroit's early life.

[Farmington Enterprise.] Compare Livingston county with its 16 townships and twelve millions valuation, and its new, beautiful and commodious court house that cost $35,000, with its 37 wards and townships of 400,000 valuation, and its population of thirty million dollars and the little old squat two-story court house, built half a century and more ago, with its vaults filled to overflow, and then decide the question honestly with yourself at the spring election, and see if you should not say by your vote, "Yes, Oakland county can afford another new court house."

Wonderland has a fine pair of teams for their theater performances this week. Jessie Bartlett Davis is head liner of one and Angela Stone, a Detroit lady, leads the other in the singing lures. But there are other and varied attractions. "The whirlwind" trio of bicycle riders ride a picket fence in a small circle, the pickets at an angle of 90 degrees, we can't describe it. You must see it to believe it. It's a thriller and no mistake. Temple theater has the big crowds all the time and is headquarters for all fun loving people. It's great—see it, great.

"I am from Michigan," said Representative Samuel W. Smith, "and in my state produces a great deal of beet sugar. I am decidedly opposed to making any tariff concessions to Cuba on sugar. Cuba is a foreign state, and will remain so for time to come if I have my way. We have done a great deal for Cuba, and I do not see that we are called upon to do anything further, especially in the way of tariff concessions. I do not for any reason, at least for some years, desire to see the Cubans work out their own salvation. They are better off today than they ever have been before, and should be permitted to manage their own affairs without the assistance of the United States."

The New Era Association, a fraternal life insurance company, is out in this issue telling you all about how to secure fraternal life insurance without the lodge. The company's officers are all well known and highly respected. The secretary of the association is Prof. A. M. Webster, who once taught school here very successfully and has a host of warm personal friends throughout the town. Just think, men and women are insured on equal terms and at lower terms than ever before, and the company is as good as a mutual or fraternal association. Only 12 assessments per year, and from the age of 17 to 28 man or woman can secure insurance that leaves an estate worth $1,000 for only 40 cents per month.

A Deep Mystery. It is a deep mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Pebebe (Chester of Peteron, Ill., "and a lame back pained me; I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me and although 73 years old, I am now able to do all my household work." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50 cents at Whitehead & Mitchell's drug store.

CO ILEFEDD PROVERBS. "Labor overcometh all things," even the laborer. "Only that which is honestly got is gain"—the rest is vain. "Ignorance is the mother of impudence," no father is named. "Fidelity is akin to love," but knavery is not always a sign of friendship. "Employment brings enjoyment," when it brings the means to enjoy. "Possession is nine points of the law," and frequently all the profit. "What'er is best administered" is best for the one who administers. "A man who will not see will make his foes few," but what if his foes be made of the same metal? "Every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost," is the cry of those who are well in front. "A wise man is moved from his course neither by force nor entreaty," but the wisest often applies to a mole. "It is hard to pay for bread that has been eaten," but not so hard to get bread to eat that has not been paid for. "Before you run in double harness, look well to the other horse," but see to it that the other horse doesn't have a chance to look well to you. "In matters of taste there can be no dispute," for every man is so firmly convinced that there is no standard by which his taste can be measured. "Let a child have its will, and it will not cry," but its parents will—L. E. V. Matthesman in the Era.

A MOMENT WITH THE WITS. Mrs. Gaswell—The czar of Russia now has four daughters. Mr. Gaswell—"Oh, the dear little czarines!"—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph. Tomlix—"Did you ever cover the ocean?" Holax—"Yes, once." Tomlix—"What were your feelings?" Holax—"Oh, same as usual. I wanted the earth."—Chicago News. "Bargain—Oh, Ed, I have just talked Edward into giving me the money for a new hat. Mr. Bargain—[which I shall enter in my accounts as "bank money"—Brooklyn Life. "Did you look at both sides of his argument?" "I did," answered Senator Sorghum. "As soon as he handed me a check I turned it over to see that it was properly indorsed."—Washington Star. "Oh, we have fighting blood in our veins!" exclaimed the grizzled veteran proudly. "My father fought in the war of 1812. I fought in the rebellion, and my son John belongs to a college football team."—Ohio State Journal. "Lady," said Wandering Mike, "would you give a startin' man something to eat?" "Perhaps. But you're not starvin'." "I know it, lady. But an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, ain't it?"—Albany Times-Union. "You will have to be identified before I can cash that check," said the bank cashier to the man who was unfamiliar with the precautions of banks. "Oh, well, go ahead, then," answered the man with the check, in disgust. "I don't reckon it hurts any more than bein' vaccinated, does it?"—Ohio State Journal.

SOME LITTLE THINGS. It is a habit with most folks to discuss the biggest things on earth, but the little things are quite as amusing. Here are a few little things: Ourselves, the alphabet, on a pinhead. The little church in the village of St. Lawrence, Isle of Wight, it originally had sittings for twelve people. The littlest kingdom in the world is Monaco. The littlest man on record was Philately of Cos, who had to carry weights in his clothes to prevent his being blown away. The littlest navy in proportion to population is Mexico's. Twelve million people are "protected" by a "fleet" of two dispatch boats, four four-ton muzzie-loading cannon and four small breech-loaders, and five mechanics to repair the boats. This "fleet" is manned by ninety officers and 500 men.—New York Press.

About Several Things.

William H. Elliott Co.

A CHANCE FOR YOU to buy Good Shoes awfully low in price. To stir up a business in the usual quietness of January, we purchased close to 500 pairs of "Sample Shoes" from one of the best makers of Ladies' Shoes in this country. None are under $3.00 value and up to $4.50.

Choice for $2.69 a pair.

Our regular Elliott $5.00 Shoes for Ladies is not in the lot; the very low price we ask for this Shoe precludes any cutting of prices, they are fully as good as most of the $4.00 and $4.50 sort. Just investigate.

OUR ANNUAL JANUARY SALE of Linens and Housekeeping Goods is now going on. Assortment is larger and prices lower than ever before, it's to your interest to come.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR also—January Sale of it. Our strong points are Gentility in Style, Nice Materials, Neat Work. Prices as low as asked for 'Sales Garments' elsewhere that are simply show.
