NEW DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBS.
BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, OCT. 17.

To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word from you at the time of trading costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

HOME NOTES.

Burt Kerr was a Detroit visitor Saturday.
Dr. Crawford spent Sunday with Detroit friends.
Miss Edith Koontz of Ovid spent Saturday and Sunday at home.
Cheap excursion to Grand Rapids, Lansing and Battle Creek next Sunday.
Clayd Kock of Waterford, Ont., was the guest of Miss Lou MacDougall last Sunday.
Anyone wanting a supply of Hubbard squash can get some fine ones of E. A. Starr at 1-1/2 cents per pound.
The W. C. T. U. entertained the oratorical contestants at Mrs. Miller's after the regular meeting on Tuesday.

Regular meeting of the O. E. S. chapter, No. 225, next Wednesday evening, October 22—Elva Blakeslee, secretary.
W. C. Aldrich of Howell spent Saturday and Sunday at home and G. C. Aldrich of Battle Creek also spent Sunday at home.
Our own John M. Rainey of Swift & Co., Chicago, is home for a few days enjoying a brief vacation among his many friends in our town.
Mrs. E. Montgomery is visiting friends and relatives in the state of New York, accompanying home her mother, who has been spending some time here.

Mrs. A. P. Jacobs and son, Master Albert C., are visiting relatives, the family of Mr. Lishmon, of Columbus, Ohio, and are enjoying themselves hugely.

We are in receipt of a fine box of roses sent by our fellow townsman, F. G. Pearsall, that are beautiful and reached us in fine condition all the way from Georgia.
Regular meeting of the K. O. T. M. next Monday evening. There will be a progressive polo party at the close of the business session. Members are cordially invited.
A total eclipse of the moon, visible throughout the United States, occurred Thursday night of this week. The phenomenon began at 9:42 and lasted nearly five hours.
Frank Hooper and Charlie Bilkowsky will give one of their popular dances in the Southfield town hall Friday evening, Oct. 24. The Walled Lake orchestra will furnish music. Bill 30e.

Lloyd Chappel, who was reported in the school notes as having the typhoid fever, has recovered. His father informs us that the boy had not typhoid fever, but a malarial or intermittent fever.
Mrs. S. Fuller has returned from a short absence, during which she visited friends in Farmington and Millard, where she went as a delegate to the county convention of the W. C. T. U.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Niles of Detroit attended the G. A. R. encampment at Washington. On their return they brought a bouquet of beautiful Washington roses for each of their children's graves in Greenwood cemetery.
The old Peabody store, now owned by F. Hagerman, is being changed in front some. New single-pane windows make a great improvement in the outside appearance, while the light effect inside is something to be proud of.
David Hunt of Royal Oak declared suit against Gustavus Donador, a saloonkeeper to that place. He asks damages of the amount of five thousand dollars from Donador whom he claims sold liquor to his son, William, who is only eighteen years old.

The open season for deer hunting is November 8 to 30, inclusive, in each year, except in the island of Bois Blanc, and the counties of Lapeer, Huron, Monroe, Sanilac, Tuscola, Macomb, Allegan, Ottawa and St. Clair, where deer cannot be hunted until 1906.
A. C. Hoff of Greenhwaite was a guest at the home of John Heth, of tatic on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 21 and 22. The convention always draws a large attendance from the county. Each of the township associations are entitled to two delegates besides their officers and each Sunday school in the county is invited to send at least its superintendent and one other delegate. Rev. Mr. Maxwell of this place is on the program.

At the annual meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter No. 220, held September 17, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Polly Masters, W. M.; Wm. Cobb, W. P.; Zina Mills, Asso. M.; Elva Blakeslee, Sec.; Ida Corey, Treas.; Birdie Dawson, Cond.; Malinda Burtraw, Asso. Cond.; Lemella Bartram, Ad. Kattie Chatfield, Ruth; Julia Randall; Esther; Martha Ash, Maria; Minnie McClellan, Electa; Bertsey Shaw, Warden; Ira Chatfield, Sentinel; Mt. Clarke Lee, Chaplain; Bessie Munro, Marshal; Bertha Bandler, Organist.
Mrs. Samuel Hollingshead of Pollock, Idaho, sister of Mrs. Clark Reed, is home for a visit among her relatives and friends. She is well pleased with her western home and she certainly is "way out west," far to come home she enjoyed a stage ride of eighty miles. Her son-in-law, Elijah Akeley, who is well and favorably known, lives at Pollock with her and is in business and doing well although his health is not what could be wished. Mrs. Hollingshead will be here for several weeks and with relatives in other parts of the United States before returning.
The home of Martin Spencer, on the Keyser farm, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, Oct. 8, the contracting parties being Miss Mary Spencer and Mr. Alfred Phelps. The ceremony was performed at noon by Rev. Montrose Maxwell in the presence of about fifty guests, including an elaborate dinner was served. The young couple were the recipients of many fine gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Phelps soon left for a short wedding trip. They will make their home in North Farmington, where Mr. Phelps is engaged in business.

At about seventy-five librarians and trustees of libraries attended the state meeting in Detroit last week. Mr. Scripps of the Evening News kindly opened his house to the visitors who most thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful pictures and the rare collection of books. Miss Post and Miss Tullinius represented the Birmingham library.

Ernest Veale and family of the town are snugly settled in Thomas Koontz' house on Fremont street in this village. Mr. Veale is an old-time groceryman but is now traveling through the state in the interest of the Friedman Co., manufacturers of high grade butterine, and Mr. Veale has sold a fine lot of it to Schlaack Bros. where it can be found.
Another wail of distress is raised by the report that one more American institution is threatened, one that will strike with consternation the man who has a tooth for the luscious pumpkin pie such as Mother used to make "down on the farm."
Farmers report that the pumpkin crop is short along with the other disasters of this eventful season.
An administrator's sale will be held on the premises of the late Benjamin Parker, two miles south of Royal Oak, on Wednesday, Oct. 29, at 10 a. m. A large amount of farm property will be offered for sale, including horses, cows, hogs, pigs, farming implements, etc. A free lunch at noon.—Wm. Truesdell, Jr., administrator; Martin Blunt, auctioneer.
A congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian church society will be held at the church on Saturday, Oct. 18, at 2 p. m., to further consider the subject of repairs on the church building and to transact any other business that may come before the meeting. The members of the church and congregation are earnestly desired to be present. By order of Trustees.
One of the most beautiful things in this village is the great elm tree which is known to our older residents as the Old invidious. Several years ago some of our radicals wanted it cut down. Mr. Partridge and some of our most respectable citizens said no, and it was left unmolested, and was protected by a fine, broad platform. No one can see the tree and the platform without feeling proud of the village whose officers so respected the grand old landmark.
The fifteenth annual convention of the Oakland County Sunday School Association will be held in the Congregational church in Pon-

HOW MEN SHOULD DRESS.

THE CORRECT FORMS FOR BUSINESS, DAY AND EVENING.

How to Be Well Clothed at Small Cost—Valuable Advice to Our Readers of the Striker Sex.

We Appreciate Good Personal Appearance.

A recent regard for the requirements of fashion, without going to the foolish extremes of foppishness, is becoming upon all men, and upon all young men especially. Can you not see that the fortune of apparel for the various occasions of daily life, and one should wish to have a good wardrobe to accede to these rules. Here are the principal forms up to date:

The business suit for general wear during business hours, mornings, sporting events, and assemblies of men, comprising a covert or large model overcoat, a sack or cutaway skirt; a waistcoat of some material as the coat or of a contrasting color to the cutaway; and trousers to match the sack coat, or to match or of fancy materials, with the cutaway a Derby suit or Derby hat is worn. A Derby with the cutaway coat.

What is called a dress for formal events during the day and for church and on Sunday, may be an overcoat of some material as the coat, to match or of a dark fancy small pattern, with trousers of worsted or casimere of a gray shade. The hat should be a high silk top hat.

To dress for a day wedding, a well-tailored suit, one should wear a black overcoat of double-breasted fabric, with the cutaway or single-breasted waistcoat to match. The trousers of the suit should be of a dark fancy small pattern, with trousers of worsted or casimere of a gray shade. The hat should be a high silk top hat.

The full dress for formal events during the day, wedding reception, formal dinner, etc., is a single-breasted waistcoat of a dark fancy small pattern, with trousers of worsted or casimere of a gray shade. The hat should be a high silk top hat.

Not every one of our readers among the men always follow the above rules. In the land of democracy every man of them may be called to some time to obey them. It will be observed that not many suits are required, and with foresight of your own it is as easy to be obliged to dress properly.

We extracted the above information as to men's dress from a booklet issued by the English Woollen Mills Company, whose Michigan headquarters are at 221 and 222 Woodward avenue, Detroit. It is a most interesting and exhaustive treatise on the fashions of the day and is a well-earned recognition of the value of the English Woollen Mills Company's products in the United States and Canada, with a business among their goods and a most interesting and practical treatise on "How to Buy." From a booklet to be had free of charge in return for a small photograph of the reader's face. The booklet is written in plain, simple, and interesting English. It will give you all the information you need to know about the English Woollen Mills Company's products in the United States and Canada. It will give you all the information you need to know about the English Woollen Mills Company's products in the United States and Canada. It will give you all the information you need to know about the English Woollen Mills Company's products in the United States and Canada.

School Notes

Miss Jessie Bowers of the senior class has returned from a pleasant trip to Washington, D. C.
Miss Helen Erwin of Harbor Springs, a guest at the Miller, visited our school last Wednesday.
Rev. M. Maxwell of the United Presbyterian church, conducted the devotional exercises of the high school Monday morning.
The twelfth grade literature class has commenced The Merchant of Venice while the English classes are having interesting work in describing pictures, which hang on the high school walls.
