

WALL PAPER

"A word to the wise is better than an unabridged dictionary to one who cannot read."

Don't Be Fooled by People Who Juggle With Prices!

Where do you buy your Wall Paper? Do you buy a legitimate dealer, a peddler or a sample-book man? We want to convince you that the legitimate dealer can underbid and undersell the peddler and sample-book man. We buy direct from the manufacturer that we may save the jobbers' profit for ourselves and sell direct to the consumer that we may save for our customers the commission that peddlers and sample-book men demand for roping you in.

LOOK AT THIS!

We will sell you enough grounded, white blank paper, ceiling, side wall and border to match to paper a room 12 ft. long by 10 ft. wide by 9 ft. high with three openings, for ROYAL OAK.

John Lacey will have an opportunity to "go courting" next month, having been drawn as juror at the April term of circuit court.

Regular preaching services have been more established at the Congregational church, a gentleman from the Detroit officiating.

This is the season for the annual sitting of those who live in rented homes. The Epworth League held a pleasant social at the home of Mrs. J. A. Campbell last Friday evening.

Iowa Allen has been on the sick list for some time.

Richard Kose and family have moved back from Detroit and are living upstairs in his aunt's house.

The epidemic of measles seems to be at its very height in this place at the present time. A good many children are sick with them and the grown people who have had the disease this season have been fewer than usual.

The Epworth League of this place received an invitation to attend a reception given by the League of the Central M. E. church of Detroit last Monday evening. Quite a number of the Leaguers attended and the entertainment proved a delightful one.

The blue bird—which everyone knows is a harbinger of spring—has been here. Everything indicates an early spring, but Michigan climate is treacherous and we may pay for our pleasant March later on.

Rev. Mr. Jackson, the M. E. pastor, has been ill for the past three weeks and unable to fill his pulpit. The church has now granted him a two-weeks' vacation, during which it is hoped that he will recover sufficiently to resume his regular work. Mr. Arkin of Detroit is serving the church during Mr. Jackson's absence.

The first death that has occurred in this vicinity from the measles is that of Adeline Dondoro, the little seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Dondoro, who was buried last week Wednesday. Other difficulties set in with the disease and caused her death.

The contract for the new school building has been let and school will close very early this season in order to rush the work during vacation.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell was a delegate to the annual convention of the Sixth District W. C. T. U. held in Ovid last week. She reports the election of officers as follows for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Dora Bliss, Oconara; recording secretary, Miss Fernia Hayes, Millard; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Anna Knapp, Oxford; treasurer, Mrs. A. Van Kleek, Howell. Mrs. Van Kleek has held the office of treasurer for about twenty consecutive years.

Speaking of an early spring reminds on that some of our elderly friends recall that thirty-two years ago plowing was well under way by the 15th of March. It would seem that Michigan climate and seasons have changed considerably since that time.

A large advertisement of an artificial leg manufactured at the United States waiting room of the Wall R. Y. is it suggestive to say the least, and judging by the complaints of the reckless way in which the cars run through Rochester it may not be inappropriate.
