ROYAL OAK.

Alfred Reynolds' family are very sick with the measles.

Miss Grace Todd, the missionary from China, occupied the M. E. pulpit last Sunday evening.

Little Edith Campbell, who has been a very sick child, is improving. She has had the whooping cough, measles and grip in succession.

Thomas Hartriek was the successful contestant who won the silver medal at the contest recently held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. The young people all acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner.

Mrs. George Watts, who has been a great sufferer for the past three years with tumors, is improving and is quite hopeful.

Iowa Allen died last week Tuesday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Kinny, and was buried Friday afternoon. Mr. Allen was 50 years of age and unmarried. He was an extreme sufferer for many months, his trouble being cancer of the stomach. The last meal that he was able to eat was on Christmas. He literally starved to death, but bore his sufferings with remarkable patience. He was buried under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member.

The benefit entertainment given for Rev. Mr Jackson last Saturday evening was of rare merit and a great success financially. The Detroit Y. M. C. A. Glee Club was a leading attraction, The Misses Farrell and Mrs. Andrews, also of Detroit, delighted all by their fine selections. Miss Weber of Royal Oak sustained her reputation as reader in several pleasing numbers. The proceeds amounted to over $80.

Township election on Monday last was very spirited. The Republicans elected their whole ticket with the exception of Justice of the Peace. The following are the successful candidates, with their majorities: Supervisor, Henry Lavery, 138; clerk, John Baum, 134; treasurer, A. W. Wilson, 39; member of board of review, J. M. Lawson, 106; school inspector, John A. Starr, 80; highway commissioner, Silas Brasington, 61; justice of the peace, George A. Baker, 54; constables, Alex Lewless, 236; Jacob Erb, 219, Andrew Campbell, 213; Chas. Sillman, 214

The parishioners of Rev. James Jackson, pastor of the M. E. church, are plunged in sorrow over his attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. For three years Mr. Jackson has been at Royal Oak, proving himself an indefatigable worker and winning the high esteem of the people. For some time it has been discerned that he was breaking down and a few weeks ago the charge gave him a leave of absence, with pay, so as to give him a chance to recuperate. The family went to Clarkston to make an extended visit, where Mr. Jackson preached for four years before coming to Royal Oak and where he has many intimate friends. On Monday, March 31, he was visiting at the home of E. A. Urch, one of the prominent Methodists of Clarkston, and after dinner went to his room ostensibly to take some medicine. His wife following soon after found him with his throat cut across. Everything possible was done to make him comfortable but he became extremely weak from loss of blood. Sorrow fills the hearts of his many Clarkston and Royal Oak friends, who are assured that he would never have attempted his life but for an unbalanced condition of his mind caused by over work and despondency. Mr. Jackson is an Englishman by birth, having been in America about 15 years. Before leaving his native land he held pastorates in Edinburg, Glascow, Birmingham and Leeds. He was brought home from Clarkston last Saturday and is improving mentally and physically.

The Great Dismal Swamp

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of Malaria germs. So is low, wet or marsh ground every where. Those germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for Malaria, Stomach and Liver troubles," writes John Charleston of Byesville, O., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters."
