

THE DASTARDLY MURDER OF CARRIE JENNETT.

IS NOW IN JACKSON FOR LIFE.

The trial was brief, all the legal formalities being observed. Sentence immediate taken to the penitentiary.

It is a little more than 60 hours after Prof. Joseph M. Miller had heard Carrie JenNETT confess to the murder of her husband.

The Hay City sheriff has been heavily invested in the copper business and is supposed to be after the scalp of Senator Clark.

The New York miner who fell 600 feet down a shaft without serious injury would make good ballast for one of the alrships.

The New York publisher who fails to establish a suburban line of balloons will not be the first editor who has gone up in the air.

The mountains in sent to the White House from Colorado is a gift to President Roosevelt will be kept there because it is stuffed.

A Chicago city official has resigned because he couldn't live on the salary he got. He must have regarded public office as a public trust.

J. Pierpont Morgan says he will attend the coronation of King Edward. He likes it too much to say he is the king to do it over two or three times.

By the time Spain shall have emerged from the many perils now confronting the dynasty the Carlists will be bound to emerge again from the mountains.

The successful method of bringing the insurgent Cherokees to order by treating them with the same respect which is shown to the white men is being tried with Paderewski and Kubelik.

A Chicago hunter was arrested with his game bag full of songbirds that he had shot. Doubtless he is too mean to live, but he will have to be permitted to do so.

The news that a college football player was employed to watch the polls in the first ward of Chicago shows that higher education can be put to practical use.

A Detroit woman had a man arrested on a charge of robbing her. She married him. Perhaps she figures getting even by watching through his pockets while he slumbers.

Paris is about to impose a municipal tax of four cents a volume on novels. Such a move on the part of the United States might curtail the production of colonial romances.

The fact that the young king of Spain, who is to be crowned May 17, will be known to history as Alfonso XIII, may explain the dark predictions concerning his accession.

Scientists believe that there is a city at the north pole, and that the inhabitants are just like other people. If so, we may be sure that they are kicking on the smoke nuisance.

Foxhall Keene has been nearly killed riding to bounds again. If Foxhall didn't get nearly killed in this way every few months, he would be a highly devoid of excitement.

A Birmingham N. Y. couple were arrested for getting married by mistake. Suppose all the couples that have made a mistake in getting married were arrested. But let's don't.

After the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding Saturday, Ryan, one of the "Lake Shore gang," on his fifth term, from Leeper, for 10 years, at Jackson, Miss.

The establishment of the Michigan Chemical Co. at Hay City has made that city the most important contributor in the state to the internal revenue.

Only one man voted in Montauk against bonding the jury $5000 for the complete force around the Grand Trunk depot and freight house.

The postal authorities have arrested the World Co. of Battle Creek, a carry-over business, from the mails.

It is said that Elmer and Kalamazoo are the only Michigan towns that will not get the postoffice appropriation this season.

Snulphick has again broken out in Fox's boarding house. Grayling, near the railway station, has been quarantined.

James Hayson, aged 101 years, is said to be the oldest man in Michigan. He is a resident of Carletonville.

A special session of the board of supervisors of Ingham county will be called shortly to make arrangements for the construction of the new court house.

A new wholesale establishment has been located in Durand. The company will be known as the Durand Wholesale Co.

Joseph M. Miller, of Detroit, who murdered Carrie JenNETT with a hatchet, and was sent up for life, was at work in the prison shirt factory Tuesday.

Zack Krick, the Pittsburg farmer whose neighbors called him crazy for wanting his cows in the city, was arrested Tuesday.

Jonas McDowell, of Shebena, was sentenced in the Circuit Court to 30 days in jail for an attempt to defraud the bank of the city.

The safe in D. L. Lapham's private bank was burglarized some time Saturday night. The burglar carried away $1800 in money and $50 in jewelry.

The Michigan State Glass Co. is operating a line between Lansing and St. Johns, and is expected to be profitable.

Emily Rhee, aged 21, of Mequon, who killed her mother and her father, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her mother.

The Saginaw plate glass factory was started in operation last week, making its first cast of glass. The company was organized in December.

J. W. Martin has been granted a 35 year franchise to operate a power plant at Pontiac. The city reserves the right to purchase at any time.

At the Prison Release.

Constable Elsworth Tibbels has been appointed deputy prison warden for Calhoun county.

George J. Taylor, who was recently released from the penitentiary, thought the time was ripe to make trouble.

Acceding