HOME NOTES

Don't miss the B. H. S. concert. The Irvinghouse on Maple ave. is again occupied.

Miss Lillian Goodwin is very sick with peritonitis. Dr. Campbell is attending.

Remember the high school entertainment at the M. E. church next Friday evening.

Let us hope that one of the first acts of our village board will be to secure a place in which to lock up drunken people.

The Salvation Army would up their gospel campaign in Birmingham Monday night with a farewell service in the M. E. church.

April showers have brought May flowers ahead of time and a favorite diversion with the young people at present is to roam the woods in search of wild flowers.

The Oxford Globe has suspended for lack of sufficient material to get out the sheet.

Nice, clean journalism, isn't it, Waring Secretary of State Fred M. Warner of issuing "fake" crop reports?

All diseases start in the bowels. CASCARETS set like nature. Keep liver and bowels active without a sickening griping feeling.

Through the kindness of the D. M. Ferry company, the Village Improvement society are able to place on sale two packages of the seed of the pansy—the village flower—for five cents.

Mr. Nixon has recently improved his store front by removing some advertising tags from the base of some posts, and now, when Mitchell takes them off his barn, as he has promised, the west side will be clear of most of its blemishes.

From the Free Press of April 22nd we clip the following: Miss Dora Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Webster, of Birmingham, this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 33 1/2 Wills avenue east.

Sam Grove's farm house in Troy during the high wind last Tuesday night was struck by a large limb that had broken off from a tree and crashed through the roof.

On for the ball season started Howard King on Monday of this week. He plays with the Lansing club and has a good "sit" for the summer of 1902.

The dancing party and supper given under the auspices of the St. James church choir at Liberty hall last Friday evening, was a glittering success in every particular.

Sixteen sacks, containing many bushels of garden seeds, arrived at the Pontiac postoffice from Washington one day last week, all under the franking privilege of Congressman Smith, to be distributed among his constituents.

There is no doubt but that our old friend, Wm. Pallister of Troy, has the champion sugar beet farm.

The largest lemon that was ever seen in Birmingham has been on exhibition the past week in Cobb & Cobb's drug store.

Work has commenced on the beet fields in this vicinity contracted for by the Detroit Sugar Co. Last year the company leased 1,200 and put or their own men to work the land.

A devil-teaser with three young men of Party Hill went out on a lark one night this week. The devil-teaser was tethered to the north side of Mitchell's house and the posse began.

When a couple celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary it is considered a noteworthy incident, but what shall be thought when fifteen years are added to fifty? Yet such is the record of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Sherwood of Rose township.

Stated a horrible case on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill., which led doctor after all remedies for four years. Then he took the Arnesis for him.

For the second time the circuit court is wrestling over a damage suit brought by Wm. J. Perry against the Detroit United Railway.
