A PASTOR'S WIFE

CURED OF PELVIC CATARRH

She Suffered for Years and Felt Her Case Was Hopeless—Cured by Peruna.

Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty.

MRS. ANNA B. FLEHARTY, recent Superintendent of Work W. C. T. U. headquarters, at Galesburg, Ill., was for ten years one of the leading women there. Her husband, when living, was first President of the Nebraska Wesleyan University, at Lincoln, Neb.

In a letter written from 61 Sixty-seventh street, W., Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Fleharty says the following in regard to Peruna:

"Having lived a very active life as wife and working partner of a busy minister, my health failed me a few years ago. I took my husband about the same time, and gradually I seemed to lose health and spirit. My daughter is a confirmed invalid, and we both felt great need of an invigorator.

"One of my neighbors advised me to try Peruna. A bottle was immediately secured and a great change took place in my daughter's as well as in my own health. Our appetites improved very greatly, the digestion seemed much helped, and restful sleep soon improved us, so that we steeped like new women.

"I would not be without Peruna for ten times its cost."—Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty.

What used to be called female diseases by the medical profession is now called pelvic catarrh. It has been found by experience that catarrhal diseases of the pelvic organs are the cause of most cases of female disease.

Dr. Hartman was among the first of America's great physicians to make this discovery. For forty years he has been treating diseases peculiar to women, and long ago he reached the conclusion that a woman entirely free from catarrhal affection of these organs would not be subject to female disease. He therefore began using Peruna for these cases and found it so admirably adapted to their permanent cure that Peruna has now become the most famous remedy for female diseases ever known. Everywhere the women are using it and praising it. Peruna is not a palliative simply; it cures by removing the cause of female disease.

Dr. Hartman has probably cured more women of female ailments than any other living physician. He makes these cures simply by using and recommending Peruna.

Mrs. E. L. Brown, 829 Elliott street, Memphis, Tenn., writes:

"I suffered for several years with headaches brought on by nervous prostration. I was also afflicted with insomnia. I would get up in the morning more weary than when I retired and I used to dread the approach of night. Peruna came into my hands one day, and within three short months I was like another woman. I have now enjoyed perfect health for over a year, and those who have suffered as I did will know how happy I am."—Mrs. E. L. Brown.

Mrs. Esther M. Milner, De Graff, Ohio, writes:

"I was a terrible sufferer from female weakness and had the headache continuously. I was not able to do my house work for myself and husband. I wrote you and described my condition as near as possible. You recommended Peruna. I took four bottles and was completely cured. I think Peruna a wonderful medicine."—Mrs. Esther M. Milner.

Congressman Thad. M. Mahon, of Chambersburg, Pa., writes:

"I take pleasure in commending your Peruna as a substantial tonic and a good catarrh remedy."—T. M. Mahon.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

JACK WILSON'S ONCE GREAT GRAFT.

Way of the Piute Indian Who Started the Ghost Dance.

"Jack Wilson, the famous Piute Indian who started the ghost dance craze among the Indians all over the United States a few years ago, lives in Mason Valley, Nevada," said an official of the Indian bureau the other day.

"He does not have the influence among the Indians now that he had ten years ago, although he is more than the ordinary Indian intellectually. His success as an apostle was due to his superior intelligence, combined with low cunning and an utter lack of conscience. To secure the influence and power he wielded over his followers in the early days of his notoriety he resorted to numerous tricks and deceptions.

"On one occasion when he had been lecturing on the new religion he told his audience that on the next day he would make ice from the river and invited them to see him perform his acle. It being August he knew that to make them believe he had made ice would give him greater prestige. He selected a point below a bend in the river, and after securing a trusty accomplice, who took from a neighboring ice house a generous lump, and deposited it in the current above the bend, Wilson, with wild gestures and weird incantations, placed himself at a convenient point where he lifted the floating ice from the water when it reached him from above, and thus made the Piutes believe he had supernatural powers. By such trickery he made his associates believe that the ghost dance would drive the white man away from this country and bring back the buffalo."

EXPERIENCE MEETING ANECDOTE.

Bishop Used a Lost Child to Point a Christian moral.

It had been an experience meeting. Ten thousand people were assembled in the great auditorium by the sea. There had been the handshake, the waving of handkerchiefs, the hymn, the prayer, the word which told the spiritual history of many a soul.

The bishop stood upon the platform in the act of pronouncing the benediction. Emotion was at its height; it seemed as if a spiritual wave had crept over the multitude, wrapping it in a divine caress.

At that moment a little child was passed up to the platform and the bishop took it in his arms. "Lost child," were the whispered words. The baby put its dimpled arms around the bishop's neck and laid its head upon his shoulder, its yellow curls mingling with his gray hair.

"Lost child," said the bishop, in his deep, sympathetic voice, "does anyone in the audience know this baby or to whom it belongs? Will the father and mother come and claim it?"

There was silence and the baby nestled closer, and the women who sat near said "Oh!"

Then a man was seen making his way to the altar; it was the baby's father. Instantly the child stretched out its arms to go to him. Then, as he gave it up, the bishop said:

"There are 6,000 lost souls in Ocean Grove. The Father's arms are waiting to receive them. So, go to your Father's outstretched arms as does this little child."—Detroit Free Press.

HE COMPLIMENTED THE CZARINA.

Lord Tennyson Records a Rather Humorous Experience.

Lord Tennyson once told Captain McCabe the following story as one result of his defective eyesight: "Hallam and I went with Mr. Gladstone as Sir Donald Currie's guests on a cruise in the Pembroke Castle among the Scilly Isles and thence on to Denmark. While lying in the harbor of Copenhagen we were invited to dine at Fredensborg with the king and queen of Denmark, and the next day the whole royal party came on board to luncheon. There were the king and queen, the princess, the czar and czarina and their attendant ladies and gentlemen. After luncheon the princess asked me to read one of my poems and some one fetched the book. I sat on a sofa in the smoking room next the princess and another lady came and sat beside me on the other side. The czar stood up just in front of me. When I had finished reading this lady said something very civil and I thought she was Andrew Clark's daughter, so I patted her on the shoulder very affectionately and said, 'My dear girl, that's very kind of you, very kind.' I heard the czar chuckling mightily to himself, so I looked more nearly at her, and God bless me! it was the czarina herself. I fancy that was the first time that august lady had been patted on the back and called a 'dear girl' since she had left the nursery."

Speed of Running Water.

If we could be present at the birth of a rivulet we should find, in the vast majority of cases, that it arose out of a spring. However humble its beginning, in the course of time, by constant work, it would dig a bigger and bigger bed for itself, till at last it became a mighty river. A stream on level ground clearly does not run so fast as a stream on a slope. It has been reckoned that with a speed of three inches a second, it will tear up fine clay; with a speed of six inches a second, it will carry off fine sand; flowing at the rate of twelve inches a second, it will sweep away fine gravel, and at three times this speed it will roll along stones as large as walnuts. Thus it is easy to see how a tiny millside burn can do great damage when it is in flood, for then it bears away even bridges and villages in its fierce rush, and lays miles and miles of field and meadow under many feet of water.

ME. PATTI'S GOSPEL OF HEALTH.

Great Prima Donna Lays Down Some Reasonable Rules.

The following is printed as the famous prima donna's code:

"To be healthy is the natural state, and disease is, in nine cases out of ten, our punishment for some indiscretion or excess.

"Every time we are ill it is part of our remaining youth which we squander. Every recovery, whether from headache or pneumonia, is accomplished by the strenuous effort of vitality, and is therefore a waste of your capital of life.

"Therefore, don't let yourself be ill.

"The best plan to avoid illness is to live regularly, simply, with a frugality that stupid persons alone will seem painful or eccentric.

"Sleep eight hours in every twenty-four.

"Ventilate the rooms in which you work and sleep. Very few people, even among those who think they are well up in modern ideas, have any conception of what ventilation means. Even when my voice was the only thing I had in the world I slept with my windows wide open, summer and winter, and never caught cold in that way.

"Examine seriously into your list of social obligations, have the good sense to recognize that there is neither pleasure nor profit in most of what you regard as essential in that line, and simplify your social life—simplify it all you can.

"Make your home a pleasant place—cheerful, but well within your means.

"Drink nothing but water or milk—especially drink lots of water. You can never drink too much of it.

"On the other hand, remember that alcohol is a poison which does untold damage within you; that beer, wine, coffee and tea are poisons, too. Shun all of them as would diluted vitriol.

A Postmaster's Discovery.

Lancaster, N. Y., April 21st.—Mr. John Remers, postmaster of this village, was taken with Diabetes four years ago. For two years he doctored with local physicians as well as several specialists from Buffalo, but got no better. Indeed he was gradually growing worse.

He stopped taking the doctors' medicine and commenced a treatment of Dodd's Kidney Pills. He used in all about ten boxes and is as strong and well to-day as ever he was.

He attributes his recovery to nothing but Dodd's Kidney Pills, and says:

"If I could only talk five minutes to every one who has Diabetes I am sure I could convince them that they needn't suffer a moment longer when Dodd's Kidney Pills are on sale in every drug store.

"I will cheerfully answer any letters from sick men or women, as I think every Diabetes sufferer should be told of Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy that saved my life."

The Russian minister of the interior, M. Sipiaguine, was shot in the lobby of the ministerial offices at St. Petersburg by an assassin, who held a pistol close to the minister's person. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars, testimonials. Address
