

It is in a common paper that we see references to Benjamin Han, a "water cure".
John L. Sullivan is out with a strong protest against the "water cure".
Judging from his silence, King Leopold must be busy working on a treaty or a cyclone collar.
Mr. Morgan's $45,000 Biolo will afford a vast amount of diluted texts and rich food for thought.

The price of unshat tobacco is about to be unshat. Are people beginning to feel that, too.
Venezuela revolutionaries have won a signal victory by killing one man and badly wounding several others.
Mr. Carnegie is right. Wealth does not bring happiness. But Solomon and others found it out before he did.

J. Pierpont Morgan is said to want German potash mined. If he wants them very much he will probably get them.
Carnegie has gone to Europe. Tyrants not yet large enough for liberals will be given three months in jail to grow.
Tobacco chewers will be glad of the cheering news that growers are now turning parts green on the plants to kill the worms.

A Kentucky court has just acquitted a man who was charged with the murder of Gabriel. Score another broken record for Kentucky.
Russell Sage says labor and capital were never so near together as now. Russell ought to know. He's an expert on "nearness".
Lord Salisbury will not have a stenographer or a typewriter in his employ. It is easy to see who does the dictating in that family.

A bunco steerer who once had a fortune of $700,000 died in a porchouse a few days ago. He was a man of life he must have tackled the wrong farmer.
England is not well pleased with the plan of the proposed merger. It is a peculiarity of Mr. Morgan's deals that they are rarely satisfactory to both sides.

Why shouldn't New Jersey put up with her famous mosquitoes, instead of appropriating $100,000 to drive them out? The mosquito was incorporated in New Jersey.
New York is going to expend $1,500,000 for churches during the coming year—almost as much as the average magazine is willing to lay out on its summer catalogue.

This $5,000,000 bank smash in Geneva has done a revolution for the bank officials in Switzerland, too. The weakness seems to be just about as widespread as humanity.
About 400,000 larks are sent yearly from the continent to the London markets. London seems to be getting on—down to the old Roman level in point of gormandizing.

A Milwaukee man is said to have crossed the ocean in a crane. The Ocean City has plenty of material for the building of trances, but it is unusual for them to last a week.
The Belgian rioters faced the rifles and revolvers of the militia and police, but dodged King Leopold's automobile. Some things are too good for even desperate men to fool with.

The famous opera stars have sailed for home. It is reasonably certain that they take with them enough good money to enable them to make both ends meet during the summer vacation.
A leading Philadelphia society woman says: "The women who make up Philadelphia society know nothing of wearing." This speaks well for the habits of the men of Philadelphia when they are at home.

What a warm matrimonial experience James H. Johnson must have had when he describes it as "a living, blazing, fermenting, blistering never-ending festering." Now we should like to hear from Mrs. Johnson.
The subject of Marie Corelli's new novel is stated to be that "which has hitherto been treated in fiction, but is first in all men's minds." She must have a scheme for getting a genuine something for nothing.

German bankers want to boycott South American countries. They need money to lend money to the governments of those countries which have no money. It will be the government on pay day or whether it will be some one who never heard of them.
Frank Stockton was almost seventy years old, but he wrote with as much zest and vigor as ever. His heart was warm and his sympathy wide. Literature has lost a bright ornament and the reading world a good friend.

The Spanish residents of Cuba are beginning to complain of the number of sleepless nights they are compelled to endure by reason of the demonstrations in honor of President Pinar.
If Cecil Rhodes was as Kipling says, a "devout dreamer," it will be hard to get up a satisfactory definition of a handsome man in action.

A reunion of French couples was recently held in Paris, ending with a big banquet. The French couple that the broth was not spoiled.
The Spanish residents of Cuba are beginning to complain of the number of sleepless nights they are compelled to endure by reason of the demonstrations in honor of President Pinar.
If Cecil Rhodes was as Kipling says, a "devout dreamer," it will be hard to get up a satisfactory definition of a handsome man in action.

State Senator George Nichols Charged with Subornation of Perjury.

FEMALE STUDENT SUICIDES AT KALAMAZOO
Dissipated in Love She Went Insane—Mrs. Rogers Gets $1,200 Damages—Bay City Bad Boys Let Off Easy—Was Not Murdered—Mrs. Coffee and Her Matrimonial Bureau—The Latest Happenings in our Great State Briefly Told for Busy Readers.

Bad Boys Let Off Easy.
Capt. Wyman has discovered a peculiar condition of affairs in one of the Bay City schools. A 16-year-old girl was caught in the act of distributing obscene literature. She was questioned and told where she got the stuff, which had been shown to many of the girls in the school. Three boys seen in the neighborhood in print files had surreptitiously printed the stuff and were industriously making it. They were arrested and arraigned in police court, where upon conviction, they were fined $15 each and sentenced to the reformatory for their offense. The girl was also taken into custody and given a good lecture by her parents. This and other circumstances has led the captain to give orders that all young men who come into the school for an hour, unless accompanied by parents or guardians, be taken to headquarters and detained until their parents are notified.

State Senator Arraigned.
State Senator George E. Nichols, of Ionia, was arraigned in Grand Rapids on a charge of subornation of perjury in the case of Lant K. Salsbery. Nichols was charged with having caused the arrest of Lant K. Salsbery, who was charged with having committed a crime. Nichols was arraigned on a charge of subornation of perjury in the case of Lant K. Salsbery. Nichols was charged with having caused the arrest of Lant K. Salsbery, who was charged with having committed a crime.

Representative Gardner Has Resigned.
Representative Gardner has resigned his seat in the Michigan legislature. He was elected to the Michigan legislature in 1910 and served until 1914. He was re-elected in 1916 and 1918. He resigned his seat in 1920. He was a member of the Michigan legislature for four terms. He was a member of the Michigan legislature for four terms.

Long List of Self-Destructions in Detroit.
The long list of self-destructions in Detroit was increased by three more on the 14th of May. The victims were a man, a woman, and a child. The man was 45 years old, the woman was 35 years old, and the child was 10 years old. They were all found dead in their homes. The cause of the deaths was not yet determined.

Investigation of the Cause of the Death of Pat Monahan.
The investigation of the cause of the death of Pat Monahan, who was found dead in a rooming house in Detroit, is continuing. The coroner's jury has returned a verdict of natural causes. The coroner's jury has returned a verdict of natural causes. The coroner's jury has returned a verdict of natural causes.

Went Insane.
Mary E. Rogers, who lives near Kalamazoo, is reported to have gone insane. She was found in a rooming house in Detroit. She was found in a rooming house in Detroit. She was found in a rooming house in Detroit.

Student Suicides.
Frances Goodrich Stout, a 15-year-old student at the Michigan Female College, Kalamazoo, is reported to have committed suicide. She was found in a rooming house in Detroit. She was found in a rooming house in Detroit. She was found in a rooming house in Detroit.

Scattering Snailpots.
Snailpots are reported in Mayfield and Deerfield townships, north of Lapeer. The snailpots are reported to be of the same variety as those found in the Michigan State Penitentiary. The snailpots are reported to be of the same variety as those found in the Michigan State Penitentiary.

Erwin Calmer of Joliet, Ill., has been elected president of the Yale Fighting Club.
Erwin Calmer of Joliet, Ill., has been elected president of the Yale Fighting Club. He was elected president of the Yale Fighting Club. He was elected president of the Yale Fighting Club.

South Omaha Live Stock Exchange adopted a resolution saying that trucking profits are being taken by the public to the detriment of the farmer.
The South Omaha Live Stock Exchange adopted a resolution saying that trucking profits are being taken by the public to the detriment of the farmer. They are being taken by the public to the detriment of the farmer.

Practically all the master carpenters of Paterson, N. J., signed the agreement with the journeymen, and the union went to work.
Practically all the master carpenters of Paterson, N. J., signed the agreement with the journeymen, and the union went to work. They signed the agreement with the journeymen, and the union went to work.

The lumbermen's union, numbering 375 men, struck at Denver, demanding an increase of $12 to 12 cents per cord.
The lumbermen's union, numbering 375 men, struck at Denver, demanding an increase of $12 to 12 cents per cord. They struck at Denver, demanding an increase of $12 to 12 cents per cord.

Erwin Calmer of Joliet, Ill., has been elected president of the Yale Fighting Club.
Erwin Calmer of Joliet, Ill., has been elected president of the Yale Fighting Club. He was elected president of the Yale Fighting Club. He was elected president of the Yale Fighting Club.

Erwin Calmer of Joliet, Ill., has been elected president of the Yale Fighting Club.
Erwin Calmer of Joliet, Ill., has been elected president of the Yale Fighting Club. He was elected president of the Yale Fighting Club. He was elected president of the Yale Fighting Club.

Volcanic Eruption in the Island of Martinique Kils Millions Thousands.

30,000 BURIED UNDER ASHES AT ST. PIERRE
Reports from the Stricken Cities Show Horrible Conditions—Streets Filled with Dead Bodies—Entire Northeastern Portion of the Island Laid Waste—Molten Lava is Still Pouring From Mont Pelée and Fresh Crevasses are Constantly Appearing.

On Thursday, May 8, at about 8 o'clock in the morning, a terrible volcanic eruption occurred in St. Pierre, Island of Martinique, the effects of which were felt over the island. At Fort de France, 46 miles to the north, the eruption was so violent that the houses were blown away and the sea greatly disturbed. The French cruiser, Sirete, sailed at once for St. Pierre, returning at 6 p. m., bringing 300 persons who were actually buried under the lava. The lava was still pouring from Mont Pelée and fresh crevasses are constantly appearing.

A second relief expedition from Fort France, on returning reported St. Pierre entirely destroyed. Dead bodies found were entirely nude. The work of the relief expedition was hampered by the fact that the lava flow was still pouring from Mont Pelée and fresh crevasses were constantly appearing. The lava flow was still pouring from Mont Pelée and fresh crevasses were constantly appearing.

St. Pierre, which was once a city of 30,000 people, is now a deserted island. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city. The lava flow has advanced to such an extent that it is now impossible to reach the city.

REMARKABLE NAPHTHA EXPLOSION.

Sherriden yards of the Pan-Handicraft Co. in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., were the scene of a most disastrous explosion of one of the most disastrous explosions and fires known in that section for many years. A section of the building, which was about 200 feet long and 25 feet high, was blown away, and about 200 persons were killed and many more were injured. The cause of the explosion was the explosion of a train of naphtha gas, which was being used in the building. The explosion was the most disastrous explosion and fires known in that section for many years.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Philadelphia, Pa. May 15. The American League will be organized on Wednesday, May 16. The American League will be organized on Wednesday, May 16. The American League will be organized on Wednesday, May 16.

AMUSEMENTS IN DETROIT.

DETROIT OPERA HOUSE.—The "Habit in the Night" will be given at the Detroit Opera House. The "Habit in the Night" will be given at the Detroit Opera House. The "Habit in the Night" will be given at the Detroit Opera House.