

It is possible that nobody is going to dramatize Mary MacLane.

Pierpont Morgan might make a hit now by assuming control of those volcanoes.

The farmers need not starve so long as the beef trust compels them to keep their cattle.

It is considered no feat at all for a Chicago footpad to walk off with a 500-pound church bell.

A good many people think that Gordon Ford was primarily responsible for the murder of his son.

The porthouse attack is now the piece of resistance to all who kick against the beef trust prices.

There are so many schools, but none of them teaches people how to know when they are becoming bored.

Potatoes command such an exorbitant price this year that they can be used as curia for gasoline cans.

If those volcano manifestations in Central America continue, Texas stands a show of losing the rest of its oil.

It is suggested as a probability that the French do their voting on Sundays to make their calling and election sure.

The travel in airships will be temporarily depressed by the unfortunate accident to Senor Severo, the Brazilian aeronaut.

Venezuelan rebels are about to become the government and that to become the rebels to be the rebels for a change.

With a cannon that will throw two tons of metal ninety miles at every effort, Germany ought to be able to keep the peace.

If a man's greatest joy is in anticipation William Waldorf Astor is certainly being deprived of the full benefits of that peevage.

Even if Minister Wu Ting-Fang confesses publicly that he doesn't like being, but considers it a "chick game," there are others.

There is enough mischief cooked up in the world to fill the interior of the peaking thing getting in with volcanic eruptions to add to the sum total.

Life in New Jersey is indeed strenuous. The farmers are not yet skilled enough to dodge automobiles and the tax monsignor season comes on apace.

Bob Fitzsimmons will attend the coronation festivities in London, and expects incidentally to land a few coronation punches where they will do the most good.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians has started a crusade against Irish mediocrity. Not a patriot, but an heir of playboys, we take pleasure in belittling.

At last accounts the Ancient Order of United Haysseids had not formally protested against the further caricaturing of Reuben on the stage and in the pictorial sheets.

University of Chicago girls have ceased knocking one another senseless in playing basketball. Why not avoid the danger by letting them have the use of the gridiron?

The delegates to the federation meeting in Los Angeles will return to their respective homes with improved plans for the future and about fifty new varieties of flower seed.

Steel Magnate Schwab gave to his associates at Pittsburgh a dinner which cost $100 a plate. It isn't likely, however, that the chief expense was in the stuff they got on their plates.

Somebody shot at the Emperor of China the other day, the bullet going high above his head. The emperor might learn something by his advisor by searching the emperor down.

Andrew Carnegie has landed safely on his way to his castle in Scotland. The only wonder is that during his voyage he did not evolve some schemes for floating libraries to circulate in poorer ports.

The last surviving pensioner of the war of 1812 celebrated his one hundred and second birthday at his home in Ava, N. Y., a day or two ago. Evidently he has felt all along that he had something worth living for.

Many medical authorities insist that the undue consumption of meat is the cause of much disease, and that the beef trust may be regarded by vegetarians in the light of a benefactor of humanity instead of a scourge.

A New York paper calls attention to the fact that it is felony to stamp a piece of lead a nickel or a quarter, while it is not a crime to stamp white metal as silver. This is perhaps because the crime in each case consists in being found out.

The Kentucky preacher who coughed up a rusty nail while he was preaching would have had the largest congregation in the state if he had announced that the nail happens to be one of those people who do not go to church from religious motives exclusively.

Hayward Brown, the eccentric American millionaire, is said to be governed by the moon in distributing his wealth to beggars. The fact that the moon's position in the sky would indicate that fair Luna exercises more or less of an influence on him.

Mine Reduces Working Force.
The Isle Royal mine near Houghton has reduced its force 110 men. All new work will be stopped and every effort will be made to produce copper at a profit from the present opening of the mine, now making about three hundred tons of mineral per month, which is equal to 225,000 pounds of refined copper. The Osceola mine will probably reduce its force also, partly suspending operations at the Osceola mine proper. It is unlikely that the Osceola will pay any dividend this year, as last year's operations left the company considerably in debt.

At Rhuabarb Leaves.
Joseph St. Aubin's family of Sumpston township had a close call. Some one had told them that rhuabarb leaves make fine greens to eat, so they thought they would try them. Tea it made them deathly sick and had not been for the timely arrival of a physician all would have died.

Chirwitsalk for Policemen.
There is talk at Grand Rapids of allowing the policemen to wear shirts waist this summer and protests are heard against clothing the representatives of the majesty of the law with such frivolous looking frocks.

Life in New Jersey is indeed strenuous. The farmers are not yet skilled enough to dodge automobiles and the tax monsignor season comes on apace.

Bob Fitzsimmons will attend the coronation festivities in London, and expects incidentally to land a few coronation punches where they will do the most good.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians has started a crusade against Irish mediocrity. Not a patriot, but an heir of playboys, we take pleasure in belittling.

At last accounts the Ancient Order of United Haysseids had not formally protested against the further caricaturing of Reuben on the stage and in the pictorial sheets.

University of Chicago girls have ceased knocking one another senseless in playing basketball. Why not avoid the danger by letting them have the use of the gridiron?

The delegates to the federation meeting in Los Angeles will return to their respective homes with improved plans for the future and about fifty new varieties of flower seed.

Steel Magnate Schwab gave to his associates at Pittsburgh a dinner which cost $100 a plate. It isn't likely, however, that the chief expense was in the stuff they got on their plates.

Somebody shot at the Emperor of China the other day, the bullet going high above his head. The emperor might learn something by his advisor by searching the emperor down.

Andrew Carnegie has landed safely on his way to his castle in Scotland. The only wonder is that during his voyage he did not evolve some schemes for floating libraries to circulate in poorer ports.

The last surviving pensioner of the war of 1812 celebrated his one hundred and second birthday at his home in Ava, N. Y., a day or two ago. Evidently he has felt all along that he had something worth living for.

Many medical authorities insist that the undue consumption of meat is the cause of much disease, and that the beef trust may be regarded by vegetarians in the light of a benefactor of humanity instead of a scourge.

A New York paper calls attention to the fact that it is felony to stamp a piece of lead a nickel or a quarter, while it is not a crime to stamp white metal as silver. This is perhaps because the crime in each case consists in being found out.

JERRY PALMER'S AGONY ENDS.
Death Drags Relief to Man Whose Legs Were Amputated.
After several weeks of agony, death has relieved the sufferings of Jerry Palmer of Alpena, who, with both legs amputated, had been lying in St. Joseph's hospital in Alpena. In a rainstorm at Alpena on the last day of February, Palmer took refuge in a box car standing in the railroad yard. The car was partially loaded with hay, and the man fell asleep. During his nap the car was sealed and started on a long journey to Detroit. Herbert E. Connor, a farmer living about six miles from Harbor Beach, has an animal curiosity in the shape of a chicken, with four perfectly formed legs. The chicken is about two months old and has two fully developed sets of limbs, both pairs being normal in size. One pair is placed vertically, while the other pair is horizontally.

May Sign Notes Unaware.
Lighting has been playing havoc with barns and other farm buildings in Branch county and the farmers are dreading seriously of going back to the plan of having all buildings equipped with lightning rods, to see if that won't stop the losses, in part at least.

Chinese for Housework.
So many little Creek girls are going to work in the numerous health food factories there, that it is becoming impossible to secure household help, and it is proposed to bring in a cartload of Chinamen from the Pacific coast to do the cooking and dishwashing in the kitchens of the city.

On an American Vessel.
It is pretty well settled that the results of the late Lord Palmerston visit to the United States will be a new vessel, and other the Olympic, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, will be ordered to be built at the Brooklyn, Adams Shipyard, and the ship at San Francisco, which is just returning from Cuba, will be selected for the new vessel.

Refused Recognition.
Much curiosity was excited in naval circles over reports from Berlin that Lieut. Commander Pitts, recently sent to Germany as naval attaché at the German consulate in London, had been refused recognition by Emperor William.

The Frenchman's Statue.
A number of the anti-French demonstrations of a great concourse of people, the superbly big statue of Gen. Comte de Solf, which will be erected in the city of Paris, is the subject of the hour of greatest pride in the American press.

Revolver Was Loaded.
There was one of those didn't know it was loaded accidents at Quincy the other day in which the owner of a five horse mill by the name of John J. Dwyer, instead of the person at whom the weapon was pointed as is usually the case, the man who was fooling with the revolver pointed it at his friend and pulled the trigger.

Granges Take on New Life.
Throughout the southern portion of the state there is a great revival of interest in the farmers' grange, and the local granges are enrolling members at a rapid rate. Numerous new granges are also being organized and the prospects are that by the close of the present year the aggregate membership in the state will have increased at least 20 per cent.

Graves Taken on New Life.
The Superior Trust company was organized with a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $30,000. C. O. Fright is president and prominent brokers are members of the board of directors. This is the first trust company in the copper territory.

Water Pumping Exhibition.
Lewes county witnessed its first exhibition of steam plowing on the farm of Abner, Hoxie, Palmyra. Four staked tractors were plowed at a time and it was witnessed by farmers from miles around.

Miller Turned the Joke.
A company of Albanians who were on road work the other day throwing stones into the mill race and thought the matter a huge joke. But the mill owner learned the names of the boys and ordered them to leave the mill. They considered the matter no joke but instead rather a "cash job," for the mill owner had threatened to have them arrested.

Better Roads Demonstration.
Three-quarters of a mile of good road will be constructed near Northville to show the people that section what a good road is and how to make it. More thoroughbreds are waxing enthusiastic over the proposition of better highways.

Steam Plowing Exhibition.
Lewes county witnessed its first exhibition of steam plowing on the farm of Abner, Hoxie, Palmyra. Four staked tractors were plowed at a time and it was witnessed by farmers from miles around.

Black & White.
The Union City roller mills have changed hands. D. P. White purchased J. M. Moore's interest. The euphonious title of the new firm is Black & White.

Baltimore News.
A Baltimore news firm is a hat for a promenade and wondered why the first admiring glances on the street were changed to stares when they saw the hat. The hat was dropped off and a search for it provided.

Miss Susan M. Hallowell, professor of botany for the last twenty-seven years at Wellesley college, has tendered her resignation. Her retirement will be on May 31. The faculty member who served in the opening year in 1875.

Herbert E. Connor, a farmer living about six miles from Harbor Beach, has an animal curiosity in the shape of a chicken, with four perfectly formed legs. The chicken is about two months old and has two fully developed sets of limbs, both pairs being normal in size. One pair is placed vertically, while the other pair is horizontally.

Lighting has been playing havoc with barns and other farm buildings in Branch county and the farmers are dreading seriously of going back to the plan of having all buildings equipped with lightning rods, to see if that won't stop the losses, in part at least.

So many little Creek girls are going to work in the numerous health food factories there, that it is becoming impossible to secure household help, and it is proposed to bring in a cartload of Chinamen from the Pacific coast to do the cooking and dishwashing in the kitchens of the city.

It is pretty well settled that the results of the late Lord Palmerston visit to the United States will be a new vessel, and other the Olympic, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, will be ordered to be built at the Brooklyn, Adams Shipyard, and the ship at San Francisco, which is just returning from Cuba, will be selected for the new vessel.

Much curiosity was excited in naval circles over reports from Berlin that Lieut. Commander Pitts, recently sent to Germany as naval attaché at the German consulate in London, had been refused recognition by Emperor William.

A number of the anti-French demonstrations of a great concourse of people, the superbly big statue of Gen. Comte de Solf, which will be erected in the city of Paris, is the subject of the hour of greatest pride in the American press.

There was one of those didn't know it was loaded accidents at Quincy the other day in which the owner of a five horse mill by the name of John J. Dwyer, instead of the person at whom the weapon was pointed as is usually the case, the man who was fooling with the revolver pointed it at his friend and pulled the trigger.

Throughout the southern portion of the state there is a great revival of interest in the farmers' grange, and the local granges are enrolling members at a rapid rate. Numerous new granges are also being organized and the prospects are that by the close of the present year the aggregate membership in the state will have increased at least 20 per cent.

The Superior Trust company was organized with a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $30,000. C. O. Fright is president and prominent brokers are members of the board of directors. This is the first trust company in the copper territory.

Lewes county witnessed its first exhibition of steam plowing on the farm of Abner, Hoxie, Palmyra. Four staked tractors were plowed at a time and it was witnessed by farmers from miles around.

The Union City roller mills have changed hands. D. P. White purchased J. M. Moore's interest. The euphonious title of the new firm is Black & White.

A Baltimore news firm is a hat for a promenade and wondered why the first admiring glances on the street were changed to stares when they saw the hat. The hat was dropped off and a search for it provided.

Herbert E. Connor, a farmer living about six miles from Harbor Beach, has an animal curiosity in the shape of a chicken, with four perfectly formed legs. The chicken is about two months old and has two fully developed sets of limbs, both pairs being normal in size. One pair is placed vertically, while the other pair is horizontally.

Lighting has been playing havoc with barns and other farm buildings in Branch county and the farmers are dreading seriously of going back to the plan of having all buildings equipped with lightning rods, to see if that won't stop the losses, in part at least.

So many little Creek girls are going to work in the numerous health food factories there, that it is becoming impossible to secure household help, and it is proposed to bring in a cartload of Chinamen from the Pacific coast to do the cooking and dishwashing in the kitchens of the city.

Herbert E. Connor, a farmer living about six miles from Harbor Beach, has an animal curiosity in the shape of a chicken, with four perfectly formed legs. The chicken is about two months old and has two fully developed sets of limbs, both pairs being normal in size. One pair is placed vertically, while the other pair is horizontally.

Lighting has been playing havoc with barns and other farm buildings in Branch county and the farmers are dreading seriously of going back to the plan of having all buildings equipped with lightning rods, to see if that won't stop the losses, in part at least.

So many little Creek girls are going to work in the numerous health food factories there, that it is becoming impossible to secure household help, and it is proposed to bring in a cartload of Chinamen from the Pacific coast to do the cooking and dishwashing in the kitchens of the city.

It is pretty well settled that the results of the late Lord Palmerston visit to the United States will be a new vessel, and other the Olympic, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, will be ordered to be built at the Brooklyn, Adams Shipyard, and the ship at San Francisco, which is just returning from Cuba, will be selected for the new vessel.

Much curiosity was excited in naval circles over reports from Berlin that Lieut. Commander Pitts, recently sent to Germany as naval attaché at the German consulate in London, had been refused recognition by Emperor William.

A number of the anti-French demonstrations of a great concourse of people, the superbly big statue of Gen. Comte de Solf, which will be erected in the city of Paris, is the subject of the hour of greatest pride in the American press.

There was one of those didn't know it was loaded accidents at Quincy the other day in which the owner of a five horse mill by the name of John J. Dwyer, instead of the person at whom the weapon was pointed as is usually the case, the man who was fooling with the revolver pointed it at his friend and pulled the trigger.

Throughout the southern portion of the state there is a great revival of interest in the farmers' grange, and the local granges are enrolling members at a rapid rate. Numerous new granges are also being organized and the prospects are that by the close of the present year the aggregate membership in the state will have increased at least 20 per cent.

The Superior Trust company was organized with a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $30,000. C. O. Fright is president and prominent brokers are members of the board of directors. This is the first trust company in the copper territory.

Lewes county witnessed its first exhibition of steam plowing on the farm of Abner, Hoxie, Palmyra. Four staked tractors were plowed at a time and it was witnessed by farmers from miles around.

The Union City roller mills have changed hands. D. P. White purchased J. M. Moore's interest. The euphonious title of the new firm is Black & White.

A Baltimore news firm is a hat for a promenade and wondered why the first admiring glances on the street were changed to stares when they saw the hat. The hat was dropped off and a search for it provided.

Herbert E. Connor, a farmer living about six miles from Harbor Beach, has an animal curiosity in the shape of a chicken, with four perfectly formed legs. The chicken is about two months old and has two fully developed sets of limbs, both pairs being normal in size. One pair is placed vertically, while the other pair is horizontally.

Lighting has been playing havoc with barns and other farm buildings in Branch county and the farmers are dreading seriously of going back to the plan of having all buildings equipped with lightning rods, to see if that won't stop the losses, in part at least.

So many little Creek girls are going to work in the numerous health food factories there, that it is becoming impossible to secure household help, and it is proposed to bring in a cartload of Chinamen from the Pacific coast to do the cooking and dishwashing in the kitchens of the city.

It is pretty well settled that the results of the late Lord Palmerston visit to the United States will be a new vessel, and other the Olympic, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, will be ordered to be built at the Brooklyn, Adams Shipyard, and the ship at San Francisco, which is just returning from Cuba, will be selected for the new vessel.

Herbert E. Connor, a farmer living about six miles from Harbor Beach, has an animal curiosity in the shape of a chicken, with four perfectly formed legs. The chicken is about two months old and has two fully developed sets of limbs, both pairs being normal in size. One pair is placed vertically, while the other pair is horizontally.

Lighting has been playing havoc with barns and other farm buildings in Branch county and the farmers are dreading seriously of going back to the plan of having all buildings equipped with lightning rods, to see if that won't stop the losses, in part at least.

So many little Creek girls are going to work in the numerous health food factories there, that it is becoming impossible to secure household help, and it is proposed to bring in a cartload of Chinamen from the Pacific coast to do the cooking and dishwashing in the kitchens of the city.

It is pretty well settled that the results of the late Lord Palmerston visit to the United States will be a new vessel, and other the Olympic, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, will be ordered to be built at the Brooklyn, Adams Shipyard, and the ship at San Francisco, which is just returning from Cuba, will be selected for the new vessel.

Much curiosity was excited in naval circles over reports from Berlin that Lieut. Commander Pitts, recently sent to Germany as naval attaché at the German consulate in London, had been refused recognition by Emperor William.

A number of the anti-French demonstrations of a great concourse of people, the superbly big statue of Gen. Comte de Solf, which will be erected in the city of Paris, is the subject of the hour of greatest pride in the American press.

There was one of those didn't know it was loaded accidents at Quincy the other day in which the owner of a five horse mill by the name of John J. Dwyer, instead of the person at whom the weapon was pointed as is usually the case, the man who was fooling with the revolver pointed it at his friend and pulled the trigger.

Throughout the southern portion of the state there is a great revival of interest in the farmers' grange, and the local granges are enrolling members at a rapid rate. Numerous new granges are also being organized and the prospects are that by the close of the present year the aggregate membership in the state will have increased at least 20 per cent.

The Superior Trust company was organized with a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $30,000. C. O. Fright is president and prominent brokers are members of the board of directors. This is the first trust company in the copper territory.

Lewes county witnessed its first exhibition of steam plowing on the farm of Abner, Hoxie, Palmyra. Four staked tractors were plowed at a time and it was witnessed by farmers from miles around.

The Union City roller mills have changed hands. D. P. White purchased J. M. Moore's interest. The euphonious title of the new firm is Black & White.

A Baltimore news firm is a hat for a promenade and wondered why the first admiring glances on the street were changed to stares when they saw the hat. The hat was dropped off and a search for it provided.

Herbert E. Connor, a farmer living about six miles from Harbor Beach, has an animal curiosity in the shape of a chicken, with four perfectly formed legs. The chicken is about two months old and has two fully developed sets of limbs, both pairs being normal in size. One pair is placed vertically, while the other pair is horizontally.

Lighting has been playing havoc with barns and other farm buildings in Branch county and the farmers are dreading seriously of going back to the plan of having all buildings equipped with lightning rods, to see if that won't stop the losses, in part at least.

So many little Creek girls are going to work in the numerous health food factories there, that it is becoming impossible to secure household help, and it is proposed to bring in a cartload of Chinamen from the Pacific coast to do the cooking and dishwashing in the kitchens of the city.

It is pretty well settled that the results of the late Lord Palmerston visit to the United States will be a new vessel, and other the Olympic, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, will be ordered to be built at the Brooklyn, Adams Shipyard, and the ship at San Francisco, which is just returning from Cuba, will be selected for the new vessel.

There are conditions in which color materially affects the formation of dew, as may be shown by a simple experiment. Place three pieces of glass, one white, another green and an other black—so that they may have sun on them all day, and then leave them exposed to the air all night.

If all the conditions are normal it will be found in the morning that there is a good deal of dew on the white board, much less on the green board, and still less on the black board. There may be none at all on the latter.

The difference is due to the fact that the three boards absorb the sun's rays to different degrees, and therefore, at different temperatures at the close of the day. The black board absorbs the most heat, the white board the least. The white board is thus warmed as soon as the sun's rays leave them, the white board cooling first, the green board next and the black board last, soon as they become cool enough to condense the watery vapor of the air in contact with them, dew will begin to form on them, and the more dew will form on the one that cools first.

It may be that the black board will absorb more heat during the day than the white board, but at night, if so, dew will form on it.

Burning Hawk.
Star City, Ark., May 26th.—A very remarkable case has just occurred here.

W. H. McFalls has been suffering severely for two years with an ailment that puzzled the doctors and baffled the medicine. He had a burning sensation all the time.

Sometimes this burning pain in the head would be worse than at other times, but it never left him.

At last he tried a new remedy called Dodd's Kidney Pills and was agreeably surprised to find that the burning gradually disappeared.

An attack of a Grippe has laid him out for the last few weeks, but Dodd's Kidney Pills have banished his old trouble entirely.

His son George used a few of the Pills which his father did not need and they have done him so much good that he says he would not take ten cents a pill for the few he still has left.

Cornus vs. Log Log, E. d.
An ancient custom in connection with the letting of a piece of land at auction is known as "The Cornus Meadow," was observed recently. The land is let by auction, and at each bid a boy is started to run to a given point, and the contention is as to whether the person whose bid has not been challenged when the last boy returns. The land was let for $5 to $4. The money was paid in part by a brick and cheese and onion supper at a public house and the remainder is spent in loaves of bread delivered at every house within a certain district of the town.

"UNDER THE TURQUOISE SKY."
This most fascinating Colorado and interesting description of Colorado will be published by the State of Colorado, Great Rock Island Route, Chicago, Ill. It is a book of 100 pages, and contains information about Colorado, its history, its people, its resources, its climate, its scenery, its agriculture, its industry, its commerce, its transportation, its education, its government, its politics, its literature, its art, its science, its religion, its sports, its recreation, its health, its medicine, its law, its ethics, its philosophy, its religion, its art, its science, its religion, its sports, its recreation, its health, its medicine, its law, its ethics, its philosophy.

The more complex services but a few times, the intrinsically admirable is ever more and more admired.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

It is not until he reaches 30 that a man begins to wrap the most of his life in the outside of the roll.

Stops the Cough and Works Off the Fat.
Laxative Eucalypti Tablets. Price, 50c.

It has ever been my experience that folks who have no vices have very few virtues.—Lincoln.

SO A WEEK AND EXPENSES to men with it to introduce our Postage paid, bound, 50c. Price, 50c.

If we cannot live so as to be happy, let us live so as to be virtuous.—Lincoln.

Mr. Winslow's Sore Throat Syrup is a most effective remedy for Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all the ailments of the throat. Price, 50c.

Don't think your milkman has pedigree cows because he supplies you with blue milk.

All Sufferers From Rheumatism
should try MATT J. JOHNSON'S Ointment. Price, 50c.

Coffee is adulterated with cherry and cherry with vanilla, turpentine and macegrain.

YELLOW CLOTHS ARE UNSUITABLE.
Don't wash your white clothes in yellow soap. It will stain them. Use the best. Price, 50c.

Don't get the large size you head that with women on Juris there would be fewer dreamcatchers.

I Feel So Tired.
How often do we hear this and similar expressions from tired, overworked women and weary men, who do not know where to turn for relief. For that intense weakness, so common and so discouraging, we earnestly recommend Vogel's Catarrh Cure. It is not a stimulant but a true blood purifier, and it restores the system to its normal condition, which will gradually build up all the weak organs in such a way as to be a lasting benefit. A fair trial of a free sample bottle will convince you of its value. It is made from the formula of a London physician, who has given years of study to same. Sample bottle free from Dr. J. C. Jacobs Co., 112 N. 3rd St., Baltimore.

Mr. Slay, "The Royal Standard" Printer
has a new and improved method of printing. It is a most effective method, and it will save you money. Price, 50c.

Don't get the large size you head that with women on Juris there would be fewer dreamcatchers.

Mr. Slay, "The Royal Standard" Printer
has a new and improved method of printing. It is a most effective method, and it will save you money. Price, 50c.

Don't get the large size you head that with women on Juris there would be fewer dreamcatchers.

Mr. Slay, "The Royal Standard" Printer
has a new and improved method of printing. It is a most effective method, and it will save you money. Price, 50c.

Don't get the large size you head that with women on Juris there would be fewer dreamcatchers.