ROYAL OAK.

Newsy Items Gathered Around Town by Our Busy Reporter Sad Death of a Popular Young Man Far from Home in Quest of Health.

Mrs. Drinkoff is quite poorly.

Mr. Hutchins and family are settled in their pretty new home.

Henry Ford is convalescent after a serious illness.

Behr' new barber shop has blossomed out with a bright new awning.

Mr. and Mrs. John White of Detroit were calling on Royal Oak friends the other day.

Rev. M. H. Bartram of Birmingham made Rev. Mr. Shaw a fraternal call last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Robt. McClure visited her sister, Mrs. Cassius Carter of Birmingham, one day last week.

Mrs. John Tillotson and daughter Grace spent last week in Detroit.

The ladies of the Congregational church have raised about $50 with which to paint the church building.

It is reported that the Foresters took in about $300 at their bowery dance and other attractions on the Fourth.

Rev. Mr. Shaw has moved his family here from Kentucky and they are boarding with Mrs. Campbell.

The F. M. S. of the Methodist church will hold their annual thank offering services the second Sunday evening in August.

Walter Stiff is in St. Mary's hospital in Detroit at this writing, having met with a serious injury by being shot in the leg.

The W. C. T. U. will give a 10c. supper in the Methodist church parlors next week Friday afternoon. In the evening a free entertainment will be given. A fine program is being prepared and all are cordially invited.

Farmers are wondering how they will harvest their grain this season. The ground is so soft from the excessive rains that it will be nearly impossible to go into some fields with a binder. Crops are badly injured and in some cases ruined.

The new postoffice building is progressing nicely and is going to be a fine addition to the village. Postmaster Reb evidently thinks that nothing is too good for these prosperous Republican times. Jacob is an (R)erb of the right variety. May his dreams be as pleasant as those of his Biblical ancestor of that name, but may he never be compelled to use anything harder than geese feathers for a pillow.

The village of Royal Oak has been deeply saddened by the untimely, but not unexpected, death of Will Starr, whose remains were brought here the first of the week for interment at his old home. Will was the fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Starr, an exceptionally bright young man, a graduate of the Birmingham high school and of an exemplary Christian character. He was nearly 24 years of age and had been traveling salesman for D. M. Perry & Co. until his health failed. For a number of years it has been evident that this bright young life was being sapped by consumption, and for about four years he has lived in the west, hoping to elude the fatal malady. He spent the past winter in Phoenix, Arizona, where his father visited him in the latter part of the winter. Later he went to California, near Pasadena. His sister, Miss Minnie Starr, who teaches in the west, went to him at the close of her school, also his aunt, Miss Minnie Salisbury of Royal Oak, and were with him at his death, which occurred Tuesday evening, July 8. The funeral was held at the home of his parents last Tuesday afternoon. This is the first break in the family circle and four brothers and three sisters, besides the parents, are left to mourn his loss.

BIG BEAVER.

Dog days.

A little drier than it was.

Mrs. Albert Lamb is slowly going.

Henry Brunell is sick at the Newman home.

Mrs. E. R. Lamb has been on the sick list of late.

Avian Gibbs and family enjoyed the Fourth with Herman King's family at Colerain.

It is surprising to note the amount of business done on Saturdays at the two general stores in this little burg.

Mrs. Lyman Richards, sr., of Colerain, a former old resident of Big Beaver, is improving in health.

The Junior Epworth League meets every other Saturday afternoon.

Supervisor Sibley of Commerce called on Supervisor Gibbs one day last week.

Mr. Clemens has a new roof on his house.

Dr. and Mrs. Gass enjoyed a picnic at Belle Isle last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce of Oak Grove were recent guests of her sister, Mrs. G. C. Gibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bailey were in Detroit last Saturday.

The Lady Foresters held their installation of officers at Troy last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parks entertained the Parks relatives on Sunday last—a happy company.

Mrs. Kate Henning was overcome by the heat the past week and has been seriously ill.

Principal Wescott of the Ortonville school was a caller at Avian Gibbs' one day last week.

Mrs. Gibbs of Howard City returned home last week after an extended visit with her husband's parents and other relatives.

Mrs. L. L. Houghton improves very slowly. She sits up some, but is still unable to walk even with crutches. It keeps Mr. Houghton very busy in the store without his able assistant.

The early potatoes are rotted very badly. They seem to be fairly cooked in the ground. The spring crops on low ground are nearly ruined and farmers have quite a discouraging outlook.

Mr. Pearsall took off in the neighborhood of 1,000 bushels of strawberries from his patch this season, but the crop was cut short and damaged by the wet. He would probably have harvested from $600 to $1,000's worth more of fruit if it had been a favorable season.

Gilbert Vernier, a French Indian who has lived here since last spring, was struck by a north-bound electric car on the evening of July 2nd and died the next day. He was walking on the track south of the corners and was on his way home in an intoxicated condition. He was thrown into the standing water beside the track, where it was deep enough to have drowned him. He was taken to Rochester, where it was found necessary to amputate a leg. He was then taken to a Detroit hospital, where he died the next morning. He leaves a wife and four children in needy circumstances.

STRONGS WITHOUT WORDS.

When something clever starts, it makes
Such laughter, one can't hear the jokes;
The joke one counts to be the tallest,
Without so any, the credit
Is usually secured by what may wear
The funniest look imaginable;
Because he's best in getting there,
And crying forth, "I done it!"

"I will not that an unoutlined mind
Will fathom me, or seek a binder
Since mine own certainties can find
Where some lie less than some do.
And you, their critic, may answer nay, nay,
As other men have done it;
But one thing I commit at setting in
And belonging: I do not."

"Pooh!" said Daisy, scornfully. "The idea of your being afraid of a poor old house dog! Why, he eats out of my hand!" "I don't doubt it," replied Burroughs, dubiously, "but what I am afraid of is that he may take a notion to eat out of my leg."—Smart Set.

Treat with scientific physicians and be cured. Avoid quacks. R. A. Sidney, of Toledo, says: "At the age of 17 I learned the bad habit and at 19 contracted a serious disease. I treated with a dozen doctors, who all promised to cure me. They got my money and I still had the disease. I had given up hope when a friend advised me to consult Drs. K. & K. I did so. Without any confidence I called on them, and Dr. Kennedy agreed to cure me or no pay. After taking the New Method Treatment six weeks I felt like a new man.
