The community was deeply grieved by the death of Will Miller, which occurred Friday, July 11. The funeral was held from his home Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Leal Clark and Rev. Montrose Maxwell. Will had been attending the D troit College of Law and came home about three weeks ago with typhoid fever. All that loving hands could do was done for him, but in vain, as the Master's voice had called him. His class from Detroit was in attendance at the funeral. The large concourse of sorrowing friends and the beautiful flowers testified to the love and esteem in which he was held. His daily christian life give us the assurance that we can meet him in that home above. He leaves a father, mother, two brothers and a sister.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

One of our leading agricultural implement dealers has an up-to-date, down-to-now young man who is a hustler from way back. The other day his employer saw him walking around the implements with a seat under his arm and a sad, discouraged look on his face. Upon inquiry he told his employer he couldn't find a place for the seat. As he was working on a hay tedder, which has no seat, and had a seat for a hay rake under his arm, Will let him try for an hour or two longer and then told the lad that no seat is required on a hay tedder. Dick set up the ice cream.

A young lady visited a cooking school recently and her attention was divided between a dress worn by a friend and directions for making cake. So when she undertook to write the recipe for her mother, the old lady was paralyzed to read t e following: "Take two pounds of flour, three rows of plating down the front, the whites of two eggs cut bias, a pint of milk ruffled around the neck, half pound of currants, with seven yards of bead trimming, grated lemon peal with lace fichu; stir well and add a semi-fitting pale tot; garnish with icing and passementerie." Bake in a moderately hot oven until the skirt is tucked from the waist down on either side, and finish with large satin rosettes." —Ex.

The great interest taken by some of our "head men" in the neat appearance of our village is shown by this story: Some dead limbs in a tree so placed as to attract the attention of everyone passing through the town have marred the appearance of the whole street for a long time. First the owner of the grounds was asked to remove them —nothing done. Then the village marshal was asked to do it—nothing done. Then the attention of the street commissioner was called to it —nothing done. Then, as a last resort, an appeal was made to two different members of our village board. The limbs are there yet, and more than one asks, "Oh, how long must we wait for the spirit to move?"

The Orion Review speaks of a certain clergyman who "preached excellent sermons at the Methodist church" in that place on a recent Sunday; also of a certain D. D. who "preached a fine sermon to a crowded house at the Methodist church last Sunday." In the first case we are led to wonder at such a waste of ministerial force and eloquence in preaching at an insensible building like the Orion Methodist church, but possibly the preacher considered it a more hopeful task than preaching "at" some of the Orionites that composed the congregation. In the second instance our curiosity is aroused in regard to that "crowed house at the Methodist church." Whose house was it, and how did it get to church? And why did the people want a house, anyway, when they have a comfortable and commodious church edifice to worship in?

Nine out of every ten men have been guilty of transgress-on against nature in their youth. Nature never excuses, no matter how young, thoughtless or ignorant he may be. The punishment and suffering must follow. The only escape from its ruinous results is proper scientific treatment to counteract its effects. The DRAINS, either by nightly losses, or secretly through the urine, must be stopped—the NERVES must be built up and invigorated, the blood must be purified, the SEXUAL ORGANS must be vitalized and developed, the BRAIN must be nourished. Our New Method Treatment provides all these requirements. Under its influence the brain becomes active; the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers disappear; the nerves become strong as steel, so that nervousness, bashfulness and despondency disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the natural, manly passional systems are invigorated; all drains cease—no more vital waste from the system. The vigorous organs become natural and manly. We invite all the afflicted to call and consult us confidentially and free of charge. Cures Guaranteed or no Pay. We treat and cure: Varicocele, Blood Diseases, Stricture, Gleet, Emissions, Urinary Drains, Spermatorrhoea, Unnatural Discharges, Kidney and Bladder Diseases.
