Those who Come and Go—Farmers Discouraged by Heavy Rains—A Brace of Weddings Big Yield of Strawberries—Painful Accident to Mrs. Houghton.

Mrs. Rev. Manley is seriously ill.

Stephen Cooper's house has been newly painted by Lamb Bros.

Mrs. G. C. Gibbs spent a few days in Detroit last week.

Ladies' Aid meeting at Mrs Herman King's last week Wednesday.

The Lady Foresters met at Troy last Saturday afternoon and served ice cream and cake in the evening.

Master Glenn Donaldson of Flint is spending his vacation with his aunt, Mrs. C. Sullivan.

The K. O. T. M. will give a Fourth of July dance.

Mrs. E. J. Locke has been entertaining a lady friend from Elgin, Ill.

Mrs. Dr. Morris of Belding has returned home after an extended visit with Big Beaver friends and relatives.

Mrs. Albert Lamb is slightly better after a serious illness.

Miss Jennie Blumberg of Birmingham has been engaged to succeed Miss Grace McCarter as teacher of the Big Beaver school.

Mrs. A. J. Swain and daughter from Boise City, Idaho, are making an extended visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Terry. Mr. Swain will join them soon and together they will take a trip "way down East."

Cassius Sturgis moved to Rochester last week. We are sorry to lose any of our good citizens, but wish them well when they think best to leave us.

Little Miss Cora Peabody of Birmingham is spending a fortnight with her aunt, Mrs. Converse, at the home of Mrs. Fred Parks.

An old-fashioned quilting party was held the other day at the home of Mrs. G. C. Gibbs. The needles flew, likewise the quilters' tongues, and a pleasant visit was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Florence Long and children of Otsego county have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Samuel James.

The wheat is taking on a golden tint, and it looks as though haying and harvesting would about meet.

Mrs. Henry George was the guest last Friday of Mrs. Levanseler of Clawson, who has just moved into a newly completed home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gibbs of Howard City and Willis Gibbs of Deckerville were recent guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gibbs, also the latter's sister, Mrs. Cooper of Detroit. The guests greatly enjoyed feasting on strawberries. Mrs. H. M. Gibbs remained until last Saturday.

Mrs. E. B. Converse and Mrs. C. Sullivan attended a piano recital given by the pupils of Miss Ada Brown at Schwankovsky's hall in Detroit last Friday night.

Miss Mamie Shanahan was united in marriage to Mr. Hunter of Detroit at the home of the bride's parents last week Tuesday evening. Rev. Mr. Manly officiated. The happy couple will make their home in Detroit, where we understand Mr. Hunter is engaged in the automobile works.

The annual reports show that the W. H. M. S. of the Big Beaver M. E. church is still the banner society of Saginaw district. With only fifteen members the society raised $68.95 the past year.

The continued wet weather is proving very discouraging to the farmers. The sugar beet growers are working at a great disadvantage. Mr. Pallister, who has the largest acreage of sugar beets in this locality, keeps a large force of 25 or 30 helpers and one week they were only able to get in one day's work.

Isaac Pearsall is harvesting a phenomenal crop of strawberries this year. He takes his berries to the city, where his choice varieties command a high price. He took off as high as 125 bushels in one day last week. He has a late variety that are just about in their prime at this writing.

The many friends of Miss Grace Robbins of Clawson were pleased to see her on duty at the postoffice recently, while our postmistress, Miss Bingham, was in attendance at the Addison township Sunday school convention, which was held at Leonard.

Mrs. Pearsall of Amy spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. L. L. Houghton.

Miss Grace McCarter left the first of the week for Toronto to attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss Frances Quick, and Mr. Wiley Peirce of Detroit, which takes place on Thursday. She was accompanied by Miss Mae Wattles. The bride and groom are well known in this locality and all will wish them well as they go to their new home in Detroit, where Mr. Peirce is secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. L. L. Houghton is beginning to get up a very little after being confined to her bed about seven weeks. Mrs. Houghton received a heavy fall in the cellar, wrenching her hip so badly that the ligaments were torn loose, causing a more serious injury than a broken bone would have been. She has suffered very severely and we hope that she will now get along nicely, and soon be able to walk again.

The Same Old Story

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of other. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.

Humility—Humility is the true cure for many a needless heartache.—A. Montague.

He whose own worth doth speak need not speak his own worth.—Thomas Fuller.

We know nothing of to-morrow; our business is to be good and happy today.—Sydney Smith.

It is not true that love makes all things easy, it makes us choose the most difficult.—George Eliot.

All true work is sacred; in all true work, were it but true hard labor, there is something of divineness.—Carlyle.

If a man look sharply and attentively, he shall see Fortune; for though she is blind, she is not invisible.—Bacon.

Time is infinitely long, and every day is a vessel into which much may be poured if we fill it up to the brim.—Goethe.

Choose always the way that seems the best, however rough it may be. Custom will render it easy and agreeable.—Pythagoras.

Love is like a flame—light as many fresh flames at it as you will, it grows instead of diminishing by the dispersion.—Charles Kingsley.

True glory takes root, and even spreads. All false pretences, like flowers, fall to the ground; nor can any counterfeit last long.—Cicero.

One is our faith and one our longing

To make the world, within our reach
Somewhat the better for our living.

And gladder for our human speech.
—Whittier.

It is no proof of a man's understanding to be able to confirm whatever he pleases; but to be able to discern what is true is true, and that what is false is false; this is the mark and character of intelligence.—Emerson.

VARICOCELE NERVOUS DEBILITY CURED.

No Names Used Without Written Consent.

If you have transgressed against the laws of nature, you must suffer. Self abuse, later excesses and private diseases have ruined thousands of promising lives. Treat with scientific physicians and be cured. Avoid quacks. E. A. Sidney, of Toledo, says: At the age of 16, I learned a bad habit and at 19 contracted a serious disease. I treated with a dozen doctors, who all promised to cure me. They got my money and I still had the disease. I had given up hope when a friend advised me to consult Drs. K. & K., who had cured him. Without any confidence I called on them, and Dr. Kennedy agreed to cure me or no pay. After taking the New Method Treatment for six weeks I felt like a new man. The foul ulcers ceased, wormy veins disappeared, nerves grew stronger, hair stopped falling out, urine became clear and my sexual organs vitalized, so entirely cured by Dr. Kennedy and recommend him from the bottom of my heart.
