A BIT OF PATHOS.

But the Heart of the Beautiful Girl Was Not Involved. Her shoulders heaved convulsively and her face turned pale...

"Well, gruffly, 'you made up your mind'?" "Oh!" cried she, gazing at him through her anguished eyes...

Something which sounded suspiciously like a curse escaped the man's lips, and he again took up his pack and went on. He suddenly stopped beside her and spoke again...

"No other way," repeated he, "and his accents cut like a whip-lash." "No other way?" "Yes, when..."

Close-Fitted Old Gentleman Had Met His Match. A close-fitted old gentleman lost his dog and he is looking for it...

He "knew it," he "knew it," cried she in a gust of weeping, and with a shudder of almost more than mortal agony. "But, oh, is there no other way?"

"No other way," repeated he, "and his accents cut like a whip-lash." "No other way?" "Yes, when..."

The dog's name was Betsy and Betsy was not only a fine specimen of the breed but a very good one...

Why His Stay Was Brief. A S. S. Shubert and that some of the testimony in the recent Satter trial reminded him of a case of an old negro who had been a witness...

"Yes!"—"No!" "No!"—"Yes!"—"No!" "No!"—"Yes!"—"No!" "No!"—"Yes!"—"No!"

A 40,000-Acre Farm. The agriculturist who usually cultivated 40 or 50 or 80 acres and calls it a farm is likely to look upon a "quarter section"...

SEAMY SIDE OF LIFE.

Pathetic Incident Noted in New York Barroom. The lines of despatch were ill concealed by rouge and powder, and she was singing a ribald song in the back room of a Houston street saloon...

The lines of despatch were ill concealed by rouge and powder, and she was singing a ribald song in the back room of a Houston street saloon when a younger girl entered with a man of more than twice her age...

The wayward girl's voice left her, and she gazed in horror at the fair youngster holding a glass of whisky in her hand. She got up, went quietly over to the table, and said to the man...

"Now go home, dearie," begged the other girl, with a strange tremor in her voice, "and be a good girl. You don't want to be like me. It's women's hell to be had. Come, I'll see you to the door."

And the two went out. The youngster's her sister," said the bartender. "What an Almanac Did."

Mathews, Ark., Aug. 25th.—Mrs. Lee S. Sanders of this place tells how she was saved by an Almanac for 1912 and in it read some stories of how Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured many very bad cases of Kidney Trouble.

"My husband bought a box and I began to use them and in a short time we were surprised and delighted at how wonderful improvement in my case."

"I am now as well as anybody and I can not say too much for Dodd's Kidney Pills. It was a lucky chance for me when I picked up that almanac."

"I believe Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure anyone who suffers with Kidney Trouble."
