A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Hudson of Ashway, R. I., "that a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Dr. J. C. H. Butters. They cured me of number and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine all-around cure they excel anything I ever saw." Dr. J. C. H. Butters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. O. Y. 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
"B. L. Evers, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get to think to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says B. L. Evers, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.

First Discovery of Diamonds.
Diamonds are said to have been first found in the state of Bahia in 1821, in the range of mountains known as Serra do Spizora, but not until 1824 when Jose Pereira do Prado, who was traveling from that region to Bahia, N.Y. and camped for the night on the bank of the Paraguari river, and there by accident found a quantity of diamonds was an impetus given to mining for the precious stones.

Each Dog Cut of Style.
The old black and white spotted Dalmatian dogs, better known as "coach dogs," that were so numerous and popular throughout the United States from 1869 to 1882, inclusive, appear to have become extinct in this country, having, like the Newfoundland, which has shared the same fate, "one out of style."

Cocus the Hardest Wood.
The hardest wood is not ebony, but cocus. It grows in the West Indies, and is used for making flutes and similar instruments.

CARPETS, RUGS, LINOLEUM

The Fall Carpets are in. We invite attention to the line, positive that the patterns will please and that the prices will prove most satisfactory.

We are agents for Oakland County for the celebrated IVINS, DIETZ & METZGAR INGRAIN CARPETS and SANFORD'S TAPESTRIES AND VELVETS—these makes are unquestionably the best goods on the market.

We also show SMITH'S AXMINSTERS, SAVONNERIE'S, etc. 100 pcs. BLABON'S LINOLEUM—6 and 12 feet wide.

Experienced and capable Carpet Makers and Layers employed.

CADILLAC MINING COMPANY

(Gold, Silver, Copper and Lead)
Capital 2,000,000 Shares, Par Value $1 Each, Full-Paid and Forever Non-Assessable

owns comprising 140 acres, one mile from Crown King P. O., Yavapai County, Arizona, which will be the terminus of the P. & E. R. R. by January, 1903. There are over three miles of large true fissure veins on true property with rich outcroppings in many places on each vein.

Development work is being pushed as rapidly as possible in a shaft that is now 100 feet deep and in a drift that will be 200 feet by October 1st. One of high values was struck in the shaft 15 feet below the surface and continued the whole way down, averaging 10 inches wide. One was struck at 25 feet from the shaft in the true drift which at 60 feet was over 12 inches wide.

Five assays from various points in this ore shows values averaging $20.00 gold, $25.00 silver per ton, besides about 4 per cent copper and 8 per cent lead.

A stamp mill on such ore would earn 25 per cent per annum on our entire capitalization.

The ore in this district always grows richer and stronger with depth.

For its pushing of development work a small block of stock is offered at 15 cents per Share, Cash, or 16 cents in Monthly Payments

DON'T DELAY - Price will soon be advanced

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Savers of Durand are visiting in this vicinity.

Edwin Martin, who is working for H. J. Bowers, had his leg broken by a log rolling on him.

Mr. Dagherly, well-known through-out Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea, was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any relief, when a neighbor learned of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. EVERY DUTY WE OBLIGE OURSELVES SOME TRUTH WE SHOULD HAVE KNOWN.—Ruskin.

Every communion with few, be familiar with one. Deal justly with all. Speak evil of none.—Philip Henry.

In this world it is not what we take up, but what we give up that makes us rich.—Henry Ward Beecher.

If you resolve to do right you will soon do wisely; but resolves only do wisely, and you will never do right.—Ruskin.

We are doing a great deal toward making ourselves look old and ugly, when we give way to worry and fretfulness.—Ruskin.

No one life can be pure in its purpose and strong in its strife, and all life is not pure and stronger thereby.—Owen Meredith.

Sometimes words would more than swords. Our happiness in this world depends on the affections we are able to inspire.—Richter.

It is with narrow-necked people as with narrow-necked bottles—the less they have in them the more noise they make in pouring out.—Pope.

Religion cannot pass away. The burning of a little straw may hide the stars of the sky, but the stars are there, and will reappear.—Caryle.

False friends are like our shadows, keeping close to us while we walk in the sunshine, but leaving us the instant we cross into the shade.—Hovee.

Do what you can, give what you have. Only stop not with feelings; carry your charity into deeds; do and give what costs you something.—J. H. Thom.

Do not dare to live without a clear intention toward which your living shall be bent. Mean to do something with all your might.—Phillips Brooks.

The most painful part of our bodily pain is that which is bodiless or immaterial, namely, our impatience, and the delusion that it will last for ever.—Richter.

When you get in a tight place, and everything goes against you, till it seems as if you could not hold on a minute longer, never give up then, for that is just the place and time that the tide will turn.—Harriet Beecher Stowe.

Actions of most men everlastingly knock the stuffing out of their good intentions.

It is said that haste make waste, yet you seldom find a huster in an almshouse.

Vindications are all right, but a man should not get into the habit of seeking them regularly.

SOME CUTTINGS.

A bad marriage is like a galvanic battery—it makes you dance, but you can't let go.

She—Don't you think it easier to coax a woman than to drive her? He—Can't say, but I think it's a great deal safer.

It is the confession of a widower who has been thrice married that the first wife crosses a man's romance; the second teaches him humility, and the third makes him a philosopher.

Johnnie to lady visitor—I wish you would come in to see me one of these days when you call. Mrs. Smith, because papa was talking about you last night and said you generally wore the breeches.

Two old Scottish worthies were having a heated argument over a certain subject, when at length one of them said: "Well, I'm no' gain'g to be too positive, but an' us is wrang, and I'm verry well shair of it no' me."

Mr. A.—What on earth do you want that will triumph? You know that the man next door has nearly driven us crazy by his performance on that awful instrument. Mr. A.—Calm yourself, my dear. That's the one I've bought.

MORE REFLECTIONS.

The tyranny of the car is nothing to the tyranny of the people over each other.

There are two "bad associations" in this country of "equally dangerous power. If a girl sends on all her hearts for one, she can satisfy glibly on losing the one.

I have recently come to the conclusion that a good intention is merely a good intention.

So-called "character" sits very gracefully upon a tall person who wears trousers so much for granted.

Too much knowledge has been known to crowd out happiness, religion, goodness—and even love.

Life positively refuses to be treated on the purely material basis; try it, and you will probably land on a dung-head.—Washington Times.
