

Mrs. Austin R. Parks is recovering from her burns very slowly and skin grafting will have to be resorted to in order to heal up some of the wounds. It is too bad and the sufferer has our heartfelt sympathy.

We offer this week a map that is fully described in another column that should be promptly accepted by every one of our subscribers. Now, don't wait until after March 1, and then expect it—it can't be done.

At the recent installation of officers of the Lady Macabees refreshments were served and the retiring commander, Mrs. Calvin Ellenwood, was presented with a handsome berry spoon and pickle fork for faithful services rendered. The list of new officers has already been published.

About 12 couples were present at the meeting of the Progressive Pedro club at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Shaw last week Wednesday evening. The first prizes were won by Miss Shaw and Harry Ramsey; the consolation prizes were awarded to Frank Brooks and Mrs. Theron Smith.

At Metamora the minister relies on a graphophone for his choir singing and recently when it came time to lead off with a beautiful solo by J. W. Myers of the "Holy City," the dog-gated machine struck off, quick as a flash, a rag time coon cake waltz and had to be carried out doors to cool off.

Mrs. Sarah Poppleton while entering the bath room slipped on the threshold and broke her hip Saturday morning. Dr. Campbell was called, who reduced the fracture and called a nurse from Harper hospital to care for her. Under such attention we hope she will recover as speedily as possible.

The following from the Pontiac Post says: "Complaint has been made against John Benedict for cruelty to animals. His stock has been pastured in the field and lanes, it is claimed, all winter." Well, now, we can hardly believe it. We think John looks after the pennies too well to let such a thing as that happen.

Nelson Walter of Clarkston, the treasurer of the Monitor Fire Insurance company of Oakland county, was in Holly the other day on his annual collecting tour. The company takes in more money in Holly than in any other place in the county in one day. Last year they collected over $1,100 and two years ago over $1,600.

Judge Junius TenEyck of Pontiac died last week, aged 78. He was one of the early settlers of Oakland county, being admitted to the bar in 1852, and was known to practically everybody who in years past have done business at the county seat. He held various county offices, among them being probate judge, prosecuting attorney and circuit court commissioner.

The friends of Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Kilpatrick, formerly of this place, who were in Pontiac last week Tuesday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Griffith of Howell, where they were visiting, was a charming occasion and numerous gifts of money were received.

Postmaster John Hanna succeeds himself for another four years' run, his name having been sanctioned by the Senate and all is well with John. The Birmingham postoffice has grown to be one of the best in the rural county. With headquarters for four rural routes it is no smaller matter to act as postmaster. We congratulate Mr. Hanna and know that the coming four years will be as satisfactorily continued as the past.

W. H. S. Wood of Howell ran for Congress last fall against "Our Sammy." At Brighton the Democratic boys were for buttons little blocks of wood to show their loyalty to this candidate. The Prof. there, whose name is Burkland, felt insulted, thinking that the boys were casting "colossal" on him. He suspended, expelled and cleaned out the school from 57 to 6 pupils. A big school war has ever since been on.

Oakland county fared well when all the committee appointments were dishied out in the upper and lower houses of the state legislature. Senator I. R. Waterbury of Highland received a place on the committee for finances and appropriations. A. V. Austin of Milford, representative from the second district, was placed on two, the agricultural committee and the appropriation committee. Thaddeus D. Seelye from the first district was placed on the towns and counties committee and roads and bridges committee.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week a quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cox of Franklin when their daughter, Clara, was united in marriage to George Bingham, supervisor of Southfield township. The young couple are well known and highly esteemed by their many friends who wish them prosperity and happiness. They went immediately to house-keeping in their new home which was already prepared for them.

Count Gerabad Krikor Boyajian, an Armenian who escaped from his country eight years ago and who occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church last Sunday morning, will give an entertainment and lecture at the Baptist church this (Friday) evening. He will exhibit the costumes of ten Oriental nations, perform three Armenian wedding ceremonies, sing in four foreign languages, chant in Russian and pray in Turkish. He is at present a student in one of the Detroit colleges.

Ever since the juke jumped over the moon bovines have been getting friskier than ever, but the one that "soaked" Geo. Paridy, Sr., in the left leg the other day exceeded the limits. This ungrateful cock kicked him clear past the proverbial middle of next week, and when his brother Tom picked him up it was feared that George's leg was broken, but it was only cracked and that is why Bro. Paridy limps about so painfully. When the cock kicked, George's head struck a beam six feet away and a shower of stars followed.

Chimpanzee in London Shows Intelligence of a Human Being. Performing monkey acts of the race. There is a wonderful man-chimpanzee at the Aquarium in London. He was found on the Congo river, is 7 years old, stands 4 feet high and weighs fifty-six pounds. If he lives, which is always an open question, for chimpanzees are notoriously short-lived, he may reach the age of 40. He is unusually intelligent and his instinct for imitation is very acute. Whatever he sees he tries to do, and he starts to do himself. For example, when he travels in the train he rises and wipes the window with a handkerchief so that he may enjoy the view, and when he is taken to the seaside he gets a bucket and spade like the children and makes castles.

Howard Bruce is absent from school on account of a severe cut on the head. The junior class conducted the morning exercises last week Wednesday, each member giving an item of current interest. Frank Walker is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Our former editor-in-chief, Carrie E. Mitchell, attended the State Press Association convention at the capital city Monday and Tuesday.

On Friday afternoon Bert Blakeley will give an address to the pupils of the school on his experience and observation in the Philippines.

The physics class made a trip to the waterworks and saw the machinery of the factory Thursday morning to examine the engines at those places. Every morning someone in the civics class has a paper on the state institutions.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Clibbe the high school has presented work a large Penn Mutual calendar, 2x3x4 inches, having a separate leaf for each day. Only one other school in the state is so favored.

The school children will be sorry to learn that their former schoolmate, Harold Wald of Ovid, has been suffering from a severe illness.

The annual cataloguing of the high school library is taking place.

At the first rhetorical, given Friday afternoon, it was generally conceded that Irving Hanna gave an exceptionally fine oration. His subject was "The Progress of the Nation," and he was ably assisted by Miss Clara Starr, a former graduate.

Last Friday night Ralph Redlow gave a splendid paper to the senior class. A bountiful supper was provided. Just ask Claire Cummings if they had a good time.

DON'T WORRY. This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control, the wisest thing to do is to let it go. If it is something over which you do have control, you will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold or a sore throat, the best thing to do is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all will pass away. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.

WE SET A NEW FASHION.

No Tables at the Purple Dog, So Tenderfoot Got a Stool. "When I was at the Purple Dog, I thought the man whose anxious friends thought his lungs were gone a year ago and sent him West. "When you were in Arizona last winter, interrupted a friend, "you learned to yell like a Comanche instead of blowing away." "You said I'm mixed as a 'tribe,'" said the man who was not a "junger," and besides that yelling business I know you were a Comanche. I wanted to tell you about that I unconsciously set a 'new drinking fashion in Tucson." "And what was that?" demanded the chorus. "Why, I got a high stool from the Purple Dog in front of the bar of the Purple Dog and I sat on it while I was sitting in front of the bar," he explained. "Would you believe the men would come in, rest their elbows on the bar and look at me for five minutes at a time with those cold, keen, straight shooting eyes and then they'd say, 'That fellow has never before seen such a thing. Finally, they waxed curious, and sent a committee to ask me why I did it.' "I'm used to sitting at a table in cafes drinking my liquor comfortably," I explained. The Purple Dog affords no tables and the waiter has to stand times stronger than that they hand over to me in New York. One needs to sit.
