Mrs. Edith Halsey of Warren has been spending a few day with her parents.

The many friends of Miss Helen Butler will be pleased to learn of her marriage to Peter Smelzer on the 3d inst. Congratulations are in order.

Sam Terry now owns the Terry farm. Nine different deeds to the property are held by the owner.

Mr. Potts of Birmingham, the news paper agent, was in town Saturday.

Our new school teacher is Miss Blair of Birmingham.

Edna Jennings is taking music lessons of Mrs. Ida Barry of Pontiac.

Rhoda Frank of Pontiac returned home Saturday after spending ten days at Will Jennings'.

Meadames Pardy, Richardson and Parker of Pontiac were at the bedside of their aged mother, Mrs. Stone, Saturday and Sunday.

BIG BEAVER.

Mrs. David Lamb of Bay City is visiting friends here.

Frank Roggendorf and Miss Sarah Stevens were married at the home of the bride Wednesday, Jan. 7, Rev. M. L. Houghton officiating.

The second quarterly communion service will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday, preceded by the conference meeting on Saturday afternoon.

The death of Mrs. Samuel Lamb occurred Monday morning.

Gilbert Becker and family moved last week to Rochester.

John Vokes had the misfortune while cutting down hay from a stack to fall, breaking one rib and fracturing two others.

It is rumored that we are to have a meat market, which will be a substantial luxury long needed.

One of the pleasing features of the new officers of our Sunday school assuming their duties was when Stephen Hill, the newly elected superintendent, called Mr. Goodale, who had served in that office for several years, to come to the front and report the school's financial standing. He then informed him that it was a debt of love and gratitude that the school owed him, and, in a few well chosen words, presented him in behalf of the teachers and officers with a beautiful Oxford Bible.

The oldest man in the world is the one who is still able to do his own work.

Modesty seldom resides in a breast that is enriched with lobster vanity.

No man was ever dishonored with the world if he did his duty in it.—Goulburn.

The sycophant comes from entirely different motives from the lover of the mind and exercise of the body; the two are ever united.—Hinduism.

AT THE THEATERS.

WONDERLAND AND TEMPLE

The vaudeville program that has been booked to entertain the patrons of Wonderland and Temple theater, Detroit, next week is headed by Ned Wyburn's comedy sketches, the prima donna of which is Countess von Hatzfeldt, reputed to be the most beautiful woman appearing before the footlights. They will present the pretty musical conceit entitled "The Jockey Club," which has scored immensely in New York and other eastern cities. In addition to this beautiful act there will be a strong company of recognized vaudeville stars.

WHITNEY.

James H. Wallick's big production of "The Bandit King," will be the attraction at the Whitney theater all next week. This play is one of the strongest of its class that has ever been presented to the theater-goers of Detroit, and will no doubt duplicate its success of former years, when Mr. Wallick appeared in the title role. Owing to the great press of business on Mr. Wallick's hands this season, he has been obliged to forego acting for the present. In his stead he has secured John J. Farrel, the handsome, young romantic actor, who will be seen in the character of Joe Howard. Mr. Wallick will introduce his famous troupe of eight trained horses, which are said to be marvels of intelligence and which act the many roles entrusted to them with as much ability as the human actors.

LYCEUM.

Whatever one may say of the plays that come and the plays that go from year to year, there is just this about one very pretty and refreshing pastoral play called "Sis Hopkins," and that is that it begins to look as if Mr. J. R. Stirling, whose managerial hand has guideded Rose Melville to fame and fortune as the quaint Hoosier girl of Posey county, Indiana, has an attraction which he will be compelled by public demand to keep on playing year in and year out, as other managers are kept playing "The Old Homestead," "Way Down East" and "Ben Hur." Miss Melville plays the character of that odd mixture of comedy and pathos which has made hundreds laugh and thousands shed tears of sympathy, true to life and close to nature. Miss Melville has always been a favorite in Detroit and she has been booked for an engagement at the Lyceum theater, beginning on Sunday, January 18. The usual matinees will be given.

The best friend that a conceited girl can have is a big brother. He will cure her by the ministration of electric shocks.

People who make their mark in this world are not affected by the criticisms of failures.—Kate Thyson Marr.

WHAT WOMEN LIKE.

There are many things that please woman, but nothing more than

To be told that she is fascinating when she knows that she is not.

To be told that she is well dressed when she realizes that she is shabby.

To be talked to reasonably when she knows that she is fearfully unreasonable.

To be talked to sensibly when she feels that she is awfully frivolous, and to be treated like a butterfly when she is a Solomon of wisdom.

Children are unerring judges of character until they have received the benefits of education.—Life.

It is a good thing that talk is cheap. It is desirable that the necessities of life should always be within easy reach of the masses.—Life.

WORDS OF THE WISE.

It is no disgrace not to be able to do everything; but to undertake or pretend to do what you are not made for, is not only shameful, but extremely troublesome and vexatious.—Plutarch.

Much may be done in those little shreds and patches of time, which every day produces, and which most men throw away, but which nevertheless will make at the end of it no small deduction from the life of man.—Colton.

A cheerful temper, joined with innocence, will make beauty attractive, knowledge delightful and wit good-natured. It will lighten sickness, poverty and affliction; convert ignorance into an amiable simplicity, and render deformity itself agreeable.—Addison.

As steady application to work is the healthiest training for every individual, so is it the best discipline of a state. Honorable industry always travels the same road with enjoyment and duty, and progress is altogether impossible without it.—Samuel Smiles.

If thou hast but little, make it not less by murmuring. If thou hast enough, make it not too much by unthankfulness. He that is not thankfully contented with the least favor he hath received hath made himself incapable of the least favor he can receive.—Quarles.

Of all the follies incident to youth, there are none which blast their prospects or render them more contemptible than self-conceit, presumption and obstinacy. By checking progress in improvement, they fix one in long immaturity and produce irreparable mischief.—Blair.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that she has since recommended it to many others. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.

DON'T WORRY.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.

MONEY IS MADE EASIER, IN LARGER CHUNKS

Comes Steadier and for More Years, in a Good Mine

Developed and operated under honest and efficient management than in any other legitimate investment. More people in the United States are receiving steady incomes today from big and little investments in mines than from any other one business. Nature has deposited untold wealth in various forms in mother earth and it is legitimate for the sons and daughters of men to join finances large or small in an honest corporation to obtain these riches.

THE CADILLAC MINING COMPANY, whose announcement has appeared in this paper for several weeks, is such a corporation. The investor, big or little, man, woman or child, will be treated honest treatment—every share of stock drawing as large dividends as any other share. The property of the company in Yavapai County, Arizona, comprising 149 acres heavily mineralized, is no longer a "prospect" but is a "mine" proven to contain immense bodies of ore, rich in gold besides great values in silver, copper and lead. The developments in our 110 foot shaft and in nearly 300 feet of drifts and cross cuts to that depth have been through solid ore nearly all the way and there is now on the dump from 400 to 500 tons of splendid ore awaiting the crushing mill. The development work is going on day and night.

Five prominent citizens of sound judgment and unimpeachable integrity, Mr. Elbridge F. Bacon, Mr. Fred C. Pillsbury and Dr. Douglas Long of Detroit, Mr. James E. Whalen of Sault Ste. Marie, and Mr. Frank C. Sherman of Pontiac, visited the mine in October and vouch for the above statements and much more.

A small allotment of stock is now offered at 20 CENTS per share, payable in cash or installments of one-sixth down, balance in five payments. You had the chance to buy it at 15 cents. Don't let this chance go by—subscribe now. This advance in price is entirely due to increased value of the property owing to developments. The next advance may be to 25 cents.

Send for prospectus giving assays and full information.

Ask the proprietors of the ECCENTRIC their opinion of Cadillac.
