HOME NOTES

School bell rang again Monday.

The regular meeting of the O. E. S. will be held next Wednesday evening, Jan. 14.

The "Ancients" were entertained by Miss Jane Antouette Keyes last Saturday afternoon.

Holidays all over and everything settled down to regular business.

The rural mail carriers of this place collected and delivered during the month of December 24,183 pieces of mail.

Royal Oakers reforming. Revival meetings at this address conducted by Rev Herbert Shaw of the Methodist church.

Over 27,000 tons of beets were converted into sugar at Rochester during the season just closed by the Detroit Sugar Co.

Ladies, don't fail to notice Waite Bros. & Robertson's advertisement of their annual January sale of white goods. Take it in.

Rev. C. E. Tappart of Oetzi will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning and evening.

Mr. Perry, wife and daughter, of Detroit, spent a very pleasant New Year's with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. S. Bortie.

Rev. J. J. Axell, preacher, pugilist and preacher, spoke in Royal Oak last Sunday evening. A good crowd was in attendance.

There were two deaths in Bloomfield township during the month of November and only one in West Bloomfield. Royal Oak had three.

A pleasant New Year's family gathering was held at the home of Wm. Cobb of Okbark. The guest of honor was Geo. Esley of Newark, N. J.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. Preparatory service on Saturday at 2 p. m.

The regular annual meeting of the Ladies' Library society will be held in the library rooms Saturday afternoon, Jan. 10, at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Considerable changing around amongst farmers and farms this season. Good men are looking for good places and a few good places are looking for good farmers.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. T. E. Cray, Wednesday, Jan. 14. Everyone welcome, especially members, as it is election of officers.

D. H. Power, who is interested in several banks, has entirely severed his relations with the Pontiac Savings bank and will now give his personal attention to the Bank of Birmingham, making this his headquarters. See advertisement.

Automobiles for rural delivery are being tested. Horse and wagon are too slow for the age. We can see Brothgus Schoonover, Weston, Rousseau and Wood skimming along their routes at the rate of 25 meters an hour already yes.

A pedro party was given New Year's eve by the Misses Florence and Ruth Blumberg. Twenty-four guests were present. Will Van Evert won first prize. Miss Abel Kuntz first lady's prize and Judson Bradway consolation prize.

The patrons of the R. F. D.'s of Orchard Lake presented their carrier Miss Coulter on his route, with a fine new mail wagon for a Christmas present, thus showing their appreciation of the lady's attention to business.

A load of wool these days is a rare sight but our old friend, John D. Evans, passed through town going to Pontiac with an old fashioned load of sacked wool weighing 1800 pounds. The load netted the owner just $150 and was money that some people would designate as "velvet."

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we can give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, I. e., a sample free.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y.

The eminent young actor, Mr. Wm. Owen, has made a production this season of Sheridan's famous comedy "The School for Scandal" that is the most complete and magnificent that has ever been seen in this country and is making the greatest success of his career with it.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 31, 1902, at 6 o'clock, a very quiet home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Benedict, Maple Grove, when their daughter Hattie was united in marriage to G. Sherman Brodie by the Rev. J. W. Jennings of Pontiac.

Mrs. M. H. Hartman and Mrs. Huldah Miller set sail for Chicago Tuesday evening, where they were met by Miss Mattie Baldwin and Mrs. W. Adams and the quartette will start for a pilgrimage to Southern California and forget all about their cares, troubles, the coal question and cold weather.

Foster says that January will be divided into two warm and three cold spells. The weeks of which January 5, 18 and 31 will be central days will average cold and the weeks of which 10 and 24 will be central days will be moderate. January will be a cold, stormy month, coldest part of which will be first and last weeks.

Mrs. Esther M. Leonard has been seriously ill for some time, threatened with pneumonia. She is tenderly nursed by her niece, Mrs. Finn, and one morning recently while Mrs. Finn was starting the fire for breakfast her sleeve caught fire and in an instant her outing flannel was one entire blaze. With great presence of mind she stood still and successfully beat the fire with out any serious injury.

The statement made by some papers, that Eva Ross, the colored girl, who figured so conspicuously in the St. John trial for statutory rape, for which St. John was sent to Jackson, had been returned to the Coldwater school from whence she came, is incorrect. She is still in the county home, the authorities not knowing what to do with her. Her child has been taken to Coldwater.

Mrs. Sarah Nixon of Southfield has never in her life rode on a steam or electric car. She is 76 years of age and mother of our dry goods merchant, Volney Nixon. She walked to Birmingham one day last summer, a distance of three miles, and for one of her years is very bright and smart. She never weighed over 100 pounds in her life and has three sons living, successful in life and business.

See John Sharp's wood ad. in cheap column.

All diseases start in the bowels. Keep them open or you will be sick. CASCARETS are like nature. Keep liver and bowels active without a sickening, griping feeling. Six million people take and recommend CASCARETS. Try a tea box. All druggists.

Found on Mitchell's desk: "Professor Mitchell is a man of very many parts, he bates the world a sellin' drugs, in music and in arts; and when he matches up his voice along with his mashie he knocks out Mr. Dooley, he does it shik and class. Mr. Dooley, yes, Mr. Dooley, we've found a mighty greater man than you. Mr. Dooley, Mr. Dooley, good by, Mr. Dooley ooey oo."

Mr. Wm. Owen and his large and efficient company of twenty people have been booked to appear at Pontiac, January 20, in his magnificent production of Sheridan's master work "The School for Scandal." The announcement will be a welcome one to all lovers of the better class of theatricals, as this famous old comedy is recognized as the most brilliant in the English language and Mr. Owen's fame is too well known to need comment.

An examination of candidates for the appointment to fill the vacancy of a naval cadet at Annapolis will be held in Pontiac during the latter part of February or early in March. One principal and five alternates will be chosen from among the competitors, those having the highest standings carrying off the plums. The examination will be in both physical and mental attainments. The six young men will meet at some place in the state at a date to be announced later.

Little pugnant Miss Jessie Tuiles, after a long absence from town, paid a short visit to the store of Whitehead & Mitchell last Monday evening and held quite an informal reception. A friend asked her the cause of her long absence and she promptly replied, which was true, "I've had tonsillitis, appendicitis and croup."

"Oh dear!" said the anxious lady. "Jessie repeated her troubles and added as she started another time on the music box—"I'm glad I'm alive."

Small pox is reported in some of the villages of Oakland county. It is interesting to note at this time what the state board of health says in relation to this contagion: "Such names as 'Cubantix,' 'Arkansas tix' and other similar terms, are used by the common people as names for the present mild variety of small pox now epidemic throughout the U. S. They are misleading and should never be used because the disease is a mild variety of small pox, and it should be so recognized, reported and action at once taken for its restriction."

The city of Flint had a long tussle with small pox last year and according to reports it is likely to have more of the disease this year. Meager news of the sudden death of Herman H. Castle in California has come by telegraph to his relative, F. Hagerman, and his brother, Will Castle, of this place. Nothing further at this writing than that he died Sunday here and his wife entertained Frank Blakelesie and son Bert and they had a royal ritual year there.

Hugh McLean, night operator at the power house, got his hand and a generator mixed up together and after the alteration our friend found the fingers of his left hand finely shredded and two fingers nearly gone. Dr. N. T. Shedd dressed the hand and McLean still pluckily gets around and attends to his usual duties.

The funeral of F. Batzlaff was held Friday afternoon from his home in Bloomfield township and was largely attended in spite of the storm. Rev. Potberg of Pontiac conducted the service in both English and German.

The dramatization of "Janice Meredith" is the attraction at the Lyceum theater next week! The story of "M'Liss" is the attraction at Whitney's, from Bret Hart's famous pen.

Hurrah for the Wolverine & Buckeye Oil Company!

The Wolverine & Buckeye Oil Co. are having phenomenal success with their wells near Lima, Ohio. Last Sunday word was received from S. T. Gilbert that their No. 2 well in Orange county had filled two 250-barrel tanks in a short space of time and had to be shut down for lack of other tanks, also that their No. 3 well on South Lima property had 60 feet of oil on the well. The No. 2 wells have been shot as yet. The No. 2 well filled the two tanks from natural flow. On Wednesday word was received that their No. 3 well had come fully as good as No. 2, making over 500 barrels a day.

The company has offered a limited amount of treasury stock at $6 per share, but owing to the success of the well it may possibly be withdrawn. We congratulate our fellow townsmen on their business venture.

A DOG'S TALE. I am Hector, the son of old Shep, We'll be a dog, as breeds you, But my father's not your dog, For I'm not of his blood. Like most of my kind I know, I try to be faithful and true, Ever watchful and on the alert, All through the long night, Bath, or on skid light, My watch care I never desert.

I welcome the guests with my bark, Tramps and peddlers I greet with a howl, All at first, but on second thought, Of malice prepense, As you please—but don't scowl. Come to think, you may scold if you wish, I am used to critics, but not to abuse, For my duty I'll do, And I'll try to pull through, For he lives in the fall of the words.

Altho' hungry, and wretched and cold, I am sure I've got one good friend, Just the one sound of his voice, Makes my poor heart rejoice, I know he'll be kind to the end.

We have lived close neighbors with you, He has taught me tricks full and bright, I have learned all his ways, I know all that he says, It strange I love him with my might. Some day he will pass and be gone, Then in sorrow, and hunger and cold, My fate I'll bewail, And the end of my tale Will be still—the tale of my life will be told. Contributed.

Women's Cares. It isn't the great big, overwhelming disaster that crushes the life out of women. When a crisis arrives a woman as a rule, meets it nobly. She is one to comfort and sustain the husband, to breathe of hope for the future, and to smilingly look the difficulty in the face undaunted by its magnitude.

But when, day in and day out, she meets with petty disappointments, the worrying economics and irritating events, then the brave spirit succumbs, and the courage of trouble do what the powerful giant failed to accomplish, she can bite and sting, can touch the sore points and wound the heart until tears dim the brave eyes and feminine nature cries out in rebellion.

Alas, these little things, these worrying trifles. How lovely life would be if it were only rid of them! Greater than the bravery that marches into battle to the sound of inspiring music—the courage that fights alone amid the shadows with no sympathy from a natop, no shoulder-to-shoulder encouragement. That is the kind of fighting women have to do.

About Whist. Among this year's novelties in calendars, is a what calendar, handsomely decorated and containing rules, quotations, etc. Among them are the following: If strong in trumps rarely trumps a weak but tricks, but trump fearlessly if you double. There are 635,015,539,600 possible hands in whist. Watch for your partner's trump signal, to which with less than four play out your best.

Unfavorable blow up your partner at the end of each hand, it is not only a gentlemanly employment of spare time but it gains you the reputation of being a first rate whist player.

How precious the gift of humor may be, it is a question whether those who possess it make the truest friends. Terror of the laugh, and the fear that it can be justified is often a misfortune, often a restraint on confidence, and often still it gives an ironical tinge to sympathy.
