As a wonder, the two-minute trotter lasted just about that long.

"An artistic avian" is impersonal, but it involves one or more artistic avianers.

It would be a weak kind of patriotism that could survive if deprived of the toy pistol.

Mrs. Melba refuses to be interviewed by reporters. Must be afraid of striking a false note.

Every man has his price, but most of us are able to remain ostensibly honest because we can't get it.

The day still may come when it is American trotting horse will be used to set the pace for automobile races.

Sometimes the man who proudly wears a campaign button in his coat lapel has to fasten his suspender with a nail.

You can never make a woman believe that the grocer who stops to admire the baby is giving her short weight.

It is reported that the recording angel having charge of the New York political books is suffering from writer's cramp.

Probably a considerable part of the expenditure of $13,300 for target practice in the navy is required for new targets.

The Senate has been compelled to hesitate in dealing some vexatious questions, but the marriage of a failure is not one of them.

It will pay you to be just an economical with coal this winter. You won't be a year ago, even though you don't have a necessity.

Chile takes this occasion to invite public attention to several excellent bargains in battlehips only slightly used and as good as new.

Rev. Anna H. Shaw declares that the daughters of the Revolution are inconsistent, but, after all, isn't that lovely woman's privilege?

It is a fine assumption of courage and sangfroid when the Canadians are now giving, considering that nobody is holding Alay Sartoris.

A couple who were married on top of the Montana lightning came down to earth soon after, just as do other couples when they are wedded.

Santo Domingo's people are determined that they will be no longer ruled by a person of the name of Wus Y Gil, and who can blame them?

If the Princess Radziwill gets that $7,000,000 from the estate of Cecil Rhodes, Charles M. Schwab might show her where she could invest it.

Most of the strike troubles are confined to Spain and the United States. Maybe this is a pretty good reason for two countries for warring with each other.

Miss Ellen M. Stone has managed to restrain any impulse she may have had to write a flattering obituary of Sarefof, the Macedonian insurgent leader.

From Sir Thomas' willingness to give up the cup races it must be inferred that being called a jolly good fellow is not quite so effective a jolly as he had been supposed.

Never mind Ann. The Memphis Commercial Appeal says: "There is a girl over in London who has twelve different personalities. What kind is she to Joe Chamberlain?"

Japan and Russia continue to deny that they are anything but the best of friends, but no soldier or sailor on either side would find it prudent to ask for a leave of absence.

Two boys, 7 and 5 years old, have just traveled from Scotland to Seattle alone. It is a great odd order to check a child on the railway than it is sometimes to check a child at home.

The report that a hen 25 years old is on exhibition at Budapest is probably true. At least we are sure that the hen is as far away as Budapest, or the landlady would have purchased it by this time.

That Canadian steamship who suggests that Uncle Sam is doing to the north pole preparatory to annexing Canada deserves fame as the first man who has discovered a practical use for the pole.

H. B. Marriott-Watson, who says the American woman is doing more for civilization, should stick to straight fiction in the form of the novel. There is no demand for fiction in the diluted form of the critical essay.

Bishop Porter severely condemns the one-child family and expresses deep pity for that "most unfortunate" child. By the way, why don't you try these propositions of the race child theory which says that what would be the happy medium?

According to one of the scientific journals more than 8,000,000 of the 13,000,000 people of Mexico do not marry. No wonder some of the Mexicans are opposed to having Yankee ideas introduced into that country.

It now appears that those two-mile-a-minute runs on the Zosens experimental railway in Germany are intended to catch the American capitalist eye. The inventor has been seen such roads built between our seaboard cities. Certainly, if they'll pay, we'll have 'em.

Signs of Good Times at Sea.

Receiver's Agent J. S. Fackenthal, started the arrival of the Commodore, a big supercargo plant will start in a few days, and a big game of men is to be sent to the woods to get out raw material.
