TRUSSES

THE RIGHT KIND TO BUY.

You can buy Trusses for almost nothing, or you can pay a very high price for them; but the price of a Truss does not prove that it is going to be the Truss which you need. Every case has to be fitted individually. That is where we have our big success with Trusses. No one goes out of our store with a Truss that does not fit perfectly. Therefore a great many people are wearing our Trusses and sending their friends to us for Trusses. If you are wearing a Truss and it does not feel right or stay in the right place come in and see us about it. We will tell you whether it is the right Truss for you to wear.

AT THE THEATERS.

LYCEUM

Mr. David Higgins and Miss Georgia Waldron will begin an engagement of one week at the Lyceum on next Sunday in their new drama entitled "His Last Dollar." The play is an American character comedy, written by Mr. Higgins and Dr. Baldwin G. Cooke, and tells the experiences of a rich Californian, who has come east to try his hand at the New York Stock Exchange. The story is told in five acts, and the play will be presented by a large and efficient cast, headed by Mr. Higgins and Miss Waldron. Mr. Higgins will appear as Joe Braxton, the Westerner, and Miss Waldron as Eleanor Downs, a young Kentucky girl, who has brought her horse east to race in the great Futurity. The incident of the horse race is used as an element to develop the story, and the romantic interest involved is said to be of sufficient originality and strength to serve as the ground-work of a strong and virile play.

AVENUE

The high class vaudeville artists at the Avenue Theater are responsible for the large crowds that throng this popular place of amusement every day in the week. Fancy shows but not fancy prices. WHITNEY. Clever Franklin Roberts, late of the Frohman and Brady forces comes to the Whitney Theater next week at the head of a big company in the spasmograph production of "A Little Outcast," whose bright particular star is that vivacious little lady, "Anne Blanche." As "Bob" the ubiquitous newsboy Miss Blanche keeps things in general lively and the audience is hailed with delight by the gallery in particular, whose popular idol she is. Mr. Roberts' role in "A Little Outcast" is the best he has ever had. It gives him great opportunities for masterly work, and he is winning new laurels. The piece is most cleverly written and the enthusiasm accorded it affords a convincing argument that it is a drama properly staged and produced, is the most popular form of theatrical amusement.

AN INTERESTING STATEMENT. Whitehead & Mitchell Say They Have at Last Discovered a Positive Cure for Dyspepsia.

"For years," said a member of the above drug firm yesterday, "we have been waiting for some one to discover a remedy that really will cure indigestion and dyspepsia. A short time ago we learned that a new remedy called 'PEPSIKOLA' had been placed on the market, and on investigation we found that at last there is a remedy that surely will cure. We laid in a big supply because we knew that as soon as the people began to realize what a remarkable remedy PEPISIKOLA is, there would be a big demand for it, and it is selling even beyond our expectations."
