

The Spirit of Christmas

By BYRON WILLIAMS

Christmas, the birth-time of Jesus...

Christmas, the time to be merry! Christmas, when garlands are hung...

Christmas, the day of unbending! Christmas, when hunger is fed...

Christmas, bedimeded season! Christmas, then sorrow and fear!

What is the spirit that drives us? Back to our heartlessness that glow...

Let the glad planets of plenty Ring and reverberate long!

Sing it forever and ever, Throughout the Joans of Time!

Twine with the mistletoe branches Live for the fallen and slain!

Live every day on the dial Just as God willeth we might!
