

Woman Living in New England Whose Father Was Born in the Historic Log Cabin—Stories of the Early Days.

Lincoln has been dead thirty-eight years. Most of those who personally knew him have also passed on to silence...

The river rose while grandma was away and she labored to get home as soon as she could. When she got nearly home she found everything afloat...

"That was a fine pair of steers I see by the marks on 'er' side," said the woman. "I suggest the deacon do 'em up."

They were all gathered about the stove in the parlor when the door opened and Abram Hewlett entered and was greeted with inquisitive nods and glances.

Sweden taxed you more'n 'Tollies did it, didn't it?" "I don't know," replied Abram gayly. "A star more or less don't make no difference—'at's as any other as ye can expect 't pick 'em up, fur 'apart's them 'uss."

The deacon got down to Abram's ear and shouted: "Abram, I asked what you said, and the woman said 'Well, th' Sweden's hair may be a loctin' finer, but what 't' demanded Abram."

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation. "I had an abscess in my side in the Fallopian tube (the Fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries)...

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

Hanks, still living in Missouri, who in 1830 induced Thomas Lincoln, Dennis Hanks and my father to pull up stakes and also remove to Illinois, where Abe was destined to achieve that fame that gained for him the Presidency.

"Having arrived in Macon county, Ill., the party, which numbered thirty, settled for a while in My father and Abe Lincoln were in their 21st year, and they, with John Hanks, Abe's second cousin, built the log cabin which was situated on the spot now known as the site of the log cabin in Harrisburg township, Macon county, Ill. They also split the famous fence rails at that time, samples of which did not 200 years ago to Pennsylvania."

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

They were all gathered about the stove in the parlor when the door opened and Abram Hewlett entered and was greeted with inquisitive nods and glances.

Sweden taxed you more'n 'Tollies did it, didn't it?" "I don't know," replied Abram gayly. "A star more or less don't make no difference—'at's as any other as ye can expect 't pick 'em up, fur 'apart's them 'uss."

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation. "I had an abscess in my side in the Fallopian tube (the Fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries)...

GOOD CURE FOR A KICKING COW

Of Course There Are Many Prescriptions, but the Subjoined is Recommended as Certain. An old farmer—old enough to know his own mind—was once troubled with a cow of kicking it to catch her by the leg just as she is about to kick. She should be grasped firmly as close to the body as possible, and the leg must not relax until the kicking impulse is over.

HOW WIRELESS MESSAGES ARE SENT

Explanation of Electric Currents Crossing the Ocean—Method of Transmission Has Long Been Known. When a wireless message is sent across the ocean an electric spark is made to snap between two brass balls. The sparks may be said to make a zig-zag in the air, and the zig-zagging place of the stone which is dropped in a pond, causes ripples to flow outward in every direction.

DO YOU COUGH

DO NOT DELAY TAKE KEMP'S BALSAM THE BEST COUGH CURE. It cures Croup, Cough, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all other ailments of the throat and lungs.

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

Hanks, still living in Missouri, who in 1830 induced Thomas Lincoln, Dennis Hanks and my father to pull up stakes and also remove to Illinois, where Abe was destined to achieve that fame that gained for him the Presidency.

"Having arrived in Macon county, Ill., the party, which numbered thirty, settled for a while in My father and Abe Lincoln were in their 21st year, and they, with John Hanks, Abe's second cousin, built the log cabin which was situated on the spot now known as the site of the log cabin in Harrisburg township, Macon county, Ill. They also split the famous fence rails at that time, samples of which did not 200 years ago to Pennsylvania."

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

They were all gathered about the stove in the parlor when the door opened and Abram Hewlett entered and was greeted with inquisitive nods and glances.

Sweden taxed you more'n 'Tollies did it, didn't it?" "I don't know," replied Abram gayly. "A star more or less don't make no difference—'at's as any other as ye can expect 't pick 'em up, fur 'apart's them 'uss."

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation. "I had an abscess in my side in the Fallopian tube (the Fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries)...

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

Hanks, still living in Missouri, who in 1830 induced Thomas Lincoln, Dennis Hanks and my father to pull up stakes and also remove to Illinois, where Abe was destined to achieve that fame that gained for him the Presidency.

"Having arrived in Macon county, Ill., the party, which numbered thirty, settled for a while in My father and Abe Lincoln were in their 21st year, and they, with John Hanks, Abe's second cousin, built the log cabin which was situated on the spot now known as the site of the log cabin in Harrisburg township, Macon county, Ill. They also split the famous fence rails at that time, samples of which did not 200 years ago to Pennsylvania."

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

They were all gathered about the stove in the parlor when the door opened and Abram Hewlett entered and was greeted with inquisitive nods and glances.

Sweden taxed you more'n 'Tollies did it, didn't it?" "I don't know," replied Abram gayly. "A star more or less don't make no difference—'at's as any other as ye can expect 't pick 'em up, fur 'apart's them 'uss."

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation. "I had an abscess in my side in the Fallopian tube (the Fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries)...

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

Hanks, still living in Missouri, who in 1830 induced Thomas Lincoln, Dennis Hanks and my father to pull up stakes and also remove to Illinois, where Abe was destined to achieve that fame that gained for him the Presidency.

"Having arrived in Macon county, Ill., the party, which numbered thirty, settled for a while in My father and Abe Lincoln were in their 21st year, and they, with John Hanks, Abe's second cousin, built the log cabin which was situated on the spot now known as the site of the log cabin in Harrisburg township, Macon county, Ill. They also split the famous fence rails at that time, samples of which did not 200 years ago to Pennsylvania."

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

They were all gathered about the stove in the parlor when the door opened and Abram Hewlett entered and was greeted with inquisitive nods and glances.

Sweden taxed you more'n 'Tollies did it, didn't it?" "I don't know," replied Abram gayly. "A star more or less don't make no difference—'at's as any other as ye can expect 't pick 'em up, fur 'apart's them 'uss."

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation. "I had an abscess in my side in the Fallopian tube (the Fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries)...

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

Hanks, still living in Missouri, who in 1830 induced Thomas Lincoln, Dennis Hanks and my father to pull up stakes and also remove to Illinois, where Abe was destined to achieve that fame that gained for him the Presidency.

"Having arrived in Macon county, Ill., the party, which numbered thirty, settled for a while in My father and Abe Lincoln were in their 21st year, and they, with John Hanks, Abe's second cousin, built the log cabin which was situated on the spot now known as the site of the log cabin in Harrisburg township, Macon county, Ill. They also split the famous fence rails at that time, samples of which did not 200 years ago to Pennsylvania."

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

They were all gathered about the stove in the parlor when the door opened and Abram Hewlett entered and was greeted with inquisitive nods and glances.

Sweden taxed you more'n 'Tollies did it, didn't it?" "I don't know," replied Abram gayly. "A star more or less don't make no difference—'at's as any other as ye can expect 't pick 'em up, fur 'apart's them 'uss."

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation. "I had an abscess in my side in the Fallopian tube (the Fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries)...

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

Hanks, still living in Missouri, who in 1830 induced Thomas Lincoln, Dennis Hanks and my father to pull up stakes and also remove to Illinois, where Abe was destined to achieve that fame that gained for him the Presidency.

"Having arrived in Macon county, Ill., the party, which numbered thirty, settled for a while in My father and Abe Lincoln were in their 21st year, and they, with John Hanks, Abe's second cousin, built the log cabin which was situated on the spot now known as the site of the log cabin in Harrisburg township, Macon county, Ill. They also split the famous fence rails at that time, samples of which did not 200 years ago to Pennsylvania."

When asked to define her relationship to the martyred President, Mrs. Moore said: "My father, William S. Hall, was a son of Martha Hanks, sister of Nancy Hanks, who married Thomas Lincoln and became the mother of Abraham Lincoln."

They were all gathered about the stove in the parlor when the door opened and Abram Hewlett entered and was greeted with inquisitive nods and glances.

Sweden taxed you more'n 'Tollies did it, didn't it?" "I don't know," replied Abram gayly. "A star more or less don't make no difference—'at's as any other as ye can expect 't pick 'em up, fur 'apart's them 'uss."

How an abscess in the Fallopian Tubes of Mrs. Hollinger was removed without a surgical operation. "I had an abscess in my side in the Fallopian tube (the Fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries)...