HUMOR OF THE DAY

Overtime.
Grump—Is there such a thing as a pianist's union?
Register—I never heard of one. Why?
Grump—I thought if there was one I'd like to call it to the attention of the young woman next door and get her to join, she works at her piano more than eight hours a day.

Reasonable inference.
"I have been everywhere," said Diogenes, as he wearily set his lantern down, "and I haven't been able to find an honest man. What do you think of that?"
"It merely indicates," answered the plain, ever-ready citizen, "that you have an undesirable circle of acquaintances."

How He Knew.

One bird—He's going to cough before afternoon.
The other bird—How do you know?
One bird—It's reached here already.

Retired From Circulation.
"What is your name?" inquired the Justice.
"Pete Smith," responded the vagrant.
"What occupation?" continued the court.
"Oh, nothing much at present; just circulating round."
"Retired from circulation for thirty days," pronounced the court dryly.

What More Could He Want?
"What is your father's objection to me, Miller?" asked the young man.
"He says you have no application, Gerald."
"No application?" he echoed bitterly. "I wonder if he knows I've been coming to see you twice a week for nearly six years?"

Hard to Translate.
"Do you know," said the physician, "that I often experience great difficulty in finding words to express my thoughts?"
"I do," replied the druggist, "and so does every one else who ever attempted to read your prescriptions."

What He Thought.
Mrs. Robinson Brown—"A little bird has whispered to me that you are going to buy me a new thirty-five dollar hat. What do you think of the bird?"
Mr. Robinson Brown—"I think that bird is a most unmitigated liar—Judge."

Red-Letter Day.
Lawyer to witness—Why are you so positive, Mr. Suburban, that the event occurred on the date you mention? You might be mistaken.
Mr. Suburban—Impossible, sir. It was the day I didn't have to do any shopping in town for my wife.

College Slang.
Mr. Crawford—Dear must be plentiful up around the college that Zeke goes to.
Mrs. Crawford—Why so, Hiram?
Mr. Crawford—Because he writes that he paid 20 "bucks" for his overcoat.

It All Depends.
"After all," remarked the old bachelor, "there is no place like home."
"Right you are," rejoined the bald-headed man who had loved and won, "and there are times when I am glad of it."

Caustic.
The Soubrette—Yes, the great tragedian he is going to play in the alma asylum on Christmas for charity. The Comedian—If he is used to playing before poor houses.

The Servant Girl Question.
Mrs. Newly-Wed (from above)—Bridget, put the lemons on the ice so they won't get sour.
Bridget (to herself)—It ain't my wonder that I asks double pay for serving the loikes of that.

Do You Blame Him?
Towhee—There seems to be nothing he enjoys so much as the sound of his own voice.
Brownie—That's so; and there's nothing annoys him so much as that thought that he can't hear himself when he talks in his sleep.

WEST BLOOMFIELD.

Sunday seem to be the day nature snows, so far during February.

The residents of Walnut avenue want to have connection so they can help to their neighbors, but will they get it? Wait and see.

The York visited at Mr. Van Sickle's recently, but was immediately followed by the pale horse and its rider.

Miss Lottie Diederhoffer is visiting in Detroit for a few days.

Mr. Egan is fattening the dogs in this locality on real.

Mr. Urson Rundell is moving over near Rochester and the Walnut school will soon be minus a teacher.

Mrs. D. Kyle has recovered from her illness and will move to Pontiac for the balance of the winter.

Theo. Grove is returning to Detroit to amuse himself.

Mrs. Henry Higby spent three days in Birmingham last week helping care for her brother-in-law, Mr. Owen, who is quite ill.

ROYAL OAK.

Herman Bartels is very sick at present writing.

Bert Russell, Jr., is on the sick list.

The dance at San Sara hall last Friday night was well attended, and every one reports a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dickinson of Detroit were guests at the home of Mrs. Newton last Friday.

W. G. Burke and family have moved to Washington, Mich., where he is engaged in the hardware business. We are sorry to lose Mr. Burke and his estimable family.

The New England supper given by the ladies of the Congregational church, in the parlors of the church, was a success both socially and financially.

The ladies of the M. E. church gave a Washington banquet at the town hall last Thursday evening. A good program was rendered and all had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Newton have returned home after spending a most enjoyable week at the home of their brother, L. D. Newton, at Mt. Pleasant, a good number from this place took in the Lincoln club banquet at Pontiac on Thursday of last week.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Whisky straight makes crooked paths.
Men of leisure seldom have time to do anything.
An elevator is at best a sort of hand-me-down affair.
The artist always has the best of it in a drawn battle.
It is not every client who is able to keep his own counsel.
Lots of men try themselves to death looking for an easy job.
The hand for the man who is fat on his back to face the world.
Never judge an insurance company by the blotter it gives away.
Most bachelors' idea of misery is being alone with a young lady.
When a man is in love he doesn't know axle grease from butter.
Habits grow on a man, but a small boy soon outgrows his habits.
An philosopher has an excuse for any old thing except the toothache.
Children put grown people to shame when it comes to telling the truth.
If a man is satisfied with himself he is usually disappointed in other people.
Many a young man gets to the front by securing a job as a motorman on a trolley car.
The lawyers have no excuse for going hungry, as the statutes have lots of provisions in them.
No man is in a position to teach other men until he has burnt his fingers a few times.
A toper must think his stomach is a spirit lamp, judging by the way he pours in the alcohol.
It is the man who snores loudest who always manages to get to sleep first in a sleeping car.
It is a great deal easier to teach an old dog new tricks than it is to make him forget his old ones.
It is a popular belief among keep-headed men that it is impossible to keep bald-headed men from coming to the front.
Joe holds the record for patience but then he never had to buy Christmas presents for all his wife's relations.
It isn't necessary to speak the truth at all times, and even this should be given a rest between political campaigns.

A KISS.

Following are a number of clever definitions of the kiss:
A report at headquarters.
Nothing divided between two.
The food by which the flame of love is fed.
The sweetest label of the world's language.
The only known "smack" that will calm a storm.
A thing of use to no one, but much prized by two.
Everybody's acting edition of "Romeo and Juliet."
The drop that runneth over when the cup of love is full.
Not enough for one, just enough for two, too much for three.
A telegram to the heart, in which the operator uses the "sounding" system.
The only really agreeable two-faced action under the sun, or the moon, either.
What the child receives free, what the young man steals and what the old man buys.
The thunder-clap of the lips, which intensifies by following the lightning glance of the eyes.
The baby's right, the lover's privilege, the parent's benison and the hypocrite's mark.
The sweetest fruit on the tree of love. The often plucked the more abundant it grows.
A kiss is an insipid and tasteless morsel, which becomes delicious and desirable in proportion as it is flavored with love.
A woman's most effective argument, whether to cajole the heart of a father, control the humors of a husband, or console the griefs of childhood.

SAYINGS OF THE WISE.

Nature is the art of God.—Sir Thomas Browne.
No man has been mutilated in the art of life till he has been well tempted.
For woman to love some men is like casting a flower into a sepulchre.—Hawthorne.
It was to combat and expose quacks and fools that laughter was invented.—Thackeray.
Unbecoming forwardness often proceeds from ignorance than impudence.—Gaville.
In counsel it is good to see dangers; but in execution, not to see them unless they are very great.—Bacon.
Who does not live in vain who employs his wealth, his thought, his speech, to advance the good of others.—Hindoo Maxim.
Poetry is not made out of the understanding. The question of common sense is always—"What is it good for?"—a question which would abolish the rose and be triumphantly answered by the cabbage.—Lowell.
If this free people, if this government, is ever utterly demoralized, it will come from this human wriggle and struggle for office—that is, a way to live without work.—Lincoln.
Know-It all is too big for any one tribe to hold.
The young frog counts the Black-snakes teeth.
The Great Spirit all skins are of the same color.
It is harder to make a blind trail than to follow it.
The mountain does not need to be covered with big.
Every child is a fresh leaf in the Great Spirit's book.

MONEY IS MADE EASIER, IN LARGER CHUNKS

Comes Steadier and for More Years, in a Good Mine

Developed and operated under honest and efficient management than in any other legitimate investment. More people in the United States are receiving steady incomes today from big and little investments in mines than from any other one business. Nature has deposited untold wealth in various forms in mother earth and it is legitimate for the sons and daughters of men to join finance large or small in an honest corporation to obtain these riches.

The CADILLAC MINING COMPANY, whose announcement has appeared in this paper for several weeks, is just such a corporation. The investor, big or little, man, woman or child, will receive honest treatment—every share of stock drawing as large dividends as any other share. The property of the company in Yavapai County, Arizona, comprising 124 acres heavily mineralized, is no longer a "prospect" but is a "mine" proven to contain immense bodies of ore, rich in gold besides great values in silver, copper and lead. The developments in our 110 foot shaft and in nearly 300 feet of drift at 120 feet depth have been through solid ore nearly all the way and there is now on the dump from 200 to 500 tons of splendid ore awaiting the crushing mill. The development work is going on day and night.

Five prominent citizens of sound judgment and unimpeachable integrity, Mr. Eldridge F. Bacon, Mr. Fred C. Pillsbury and Dr. Douglas Long of Detroit, Mr. James E. Whelan of Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Sherman of Pontiac, visited the mine in October and vouch for the above statements and much more.

A small allotment of stock is now offered at 20 CENTS per share, payable in cash or installments of one-sixth down, balance in five payments. You had the chance to buy it at 15 cents. Don't let this chance go by—subscribe now. This advance in price is entirely due to increased value of the property owing to developments. The next advance may be within a month.

Send for prospectus giving assays and full information. Ask the proprietors of the ECENTRIC their opinion of Cadillac.

When Stanley, the famous explorer and traveler, started to cross the continent and Africa he had seventy-three books three weeks. After he had gone three hundred miles, he was obliged to throw away some of his books through the fatigue of those carrying his baggage. As he continued on his journey, in his manner his library grew less and less, until he had but one book left. This was his Bible. This is the only book that has stood the test of all civilizations and earth's greatest wars.

The man who is looking for trouble can find trouble without trouble.

SINFUL HABITS IN YOUTH MAKE NERVOUS, WEAK, DISEASED MEN.

THE RESULT of ignorance and folly in youth, overeating of mind and body, and the future happiness of thousands of promising young men. Some fade and wither as early as age at the business of the world. The cause of this is the habit of indulging in sinful habits and melancholy excitement. Others rack their brains and waste their lives in the pursuit of the vain, the trivial, the trades and the professions. Every day thousands of young men are ruined by the use of the "K&K" system. They are ruined by the use of the "K&K" system. They are ruined by the use of the "K&K" system.
