Danger of Coid and Grip.

The greatest sanger from coids and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonhale care is used, however, and Chamberlair's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be a rodded. Among the teas of thousands who have used this remedy for these disnease we have yet to learn of a single casehaving yet resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a priventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and acts to take. For sale by Whitehead a coid or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.

You Can Depend

on Traver's Quality

WHOLE NO. 1296.

You can depend on what this store tells you, too—facts are never misrepresented, you are safe in buying here.

Though we sell only the Best, our prices are always fair—they're never exhorbitant—we base prices on quality and have a way of squeezing just a little more value into every dollar than you'd expect to get.

Then too every article is backed up with a guarantee which makes you feel safe—no opening is left for dissatisfaction to creep in—you must have the best your unoney can buy.

But about New Things for Spring. Many of them are here and others rushing in, the latest in Clothes, the newest in Furnishings and Hats for Men and Boys—all just as you have found them—a little better than the other fellows' best, and priced a little cheaper. Our showing this season will surprise you.

that in discussing the question, "Should the state farish and to the state fair?" opinion was divided but seemed ptronger on the negative side.

It is a queer dee that farmers should fight a state fair. Michigan at present is "behind the light bouse" in this matter. Other states make large appropriations for state fairs, and why not Michigan? If there is any thing that is more beneficial to advanced farming than a first-class fair, I havn't run across, it yet.
