

It is quite a while since the stock has done any circling around Castle Lee.

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan got back from Europe and the next day the sun came out.

Feeble, worn-out, decrepit? Not much! There's fight in thousands of the old boys yet.

A Kansas farmer has notified the speculating parties that he has watered stock to market.

Most people say poor not because they don't make enough but because they spend too much.

To equalize things Newport society leaders will wear nothing on the outside of their heads this season.

What angers the flea beyond endurance is that when he bites the man or pig, the latter does not roar with pain.

A Kansas congressman is evolving a scheme for straightening up Kaw river. What the Kaw river needs is descending.

Considering that J. Pierpont Morgan was not on hand, King Edward's birthday celebration seems to have been quite a success.

Isn't it lucky that the troy fair is the last of the season when the children are at home for life holidays.

Some reformers mean well, but wear themselves out butting a stone wall before they find out that this is not that kind of a world.

The Moors can lose more men in battle and get fewer lines about the event in the dispatches than any nation now before the public.

College men returning at commencement to the scene of graduation always look back with pleasure to the good old summum time.

A Chicago tomatoe cleared up $52,000 to one day in the Klondike mines. Still, the Klondike, like other get-rich-quick concerns, is more or less uncertain.

With the army and Uncle Sam's $100,000,000, President Marquand feels that he will constitute a working majority over the Colombian congress.

Atlanta Constitution: The question is asked, "Will the dynamite replace the corset?" Not necessarily, but it may make necessary an ampler corset.

King Edward is alarmed at the physical degeneration of the soldiers that make up the British army. He has nothing but featherweight and bantams left.

Now if Sir Thomas will find a hound and a four-foot clover to go with his rabbit's foot, all that he will have to do get the cup will be to win the race.

The actress who isn't in an automobile accident or engaged to a lord within the next two months is not doing the fair thing by her next season's press agent.

It is rumored that Alfred Austin is at work upon a poem on the late Sarajevo horror, but it is hoped the rumor is without foundation. The affair is had enough as it is.

The movement for the disarmament of the great nations doesn't seem to make any more progress than the movement for the disarmament of the small boys on the Fourth of July.

Every dollar in the United States treasury is to be counted. No doubt the result will beat a naval or military display when it comes to confounding other countries of our power.

Science predicts that it will ultimately discover a single element which is the back of all matter and force. We hope not. Some one would be sure to corner it and form a trust.

The city health officer of Louisville declares that the open-work waist is raking hundreds of Kentucky young women to their graves, but then he thinks they look on the way.

A Georgia legislator wants to put a $100 tax on divorcees for other than principal cause. The law should be entitled "An act to divert certain court fees and one-year residents to the State of Alabama."

As a return for Sir Thomas Lipton's generous confidence in the American spirit of fair play, his wife has expected that the lady would be able to keep things going if he wins the race for the cup this year.

A Denver man tried to commit suicide the other day because he didn't have money enough to get married. He had expected that the lady would be able to keep things going if he wins the race for the cup this year.

His majesty of England, who was born in November, decrees that his birthday will be celebrated in June. This thing of switching birthdays around is a royal privilege which will be used to divert certain court fees and one-year residents to the State of Alabama.

Those who use postcards in foreign countries are advised to know that the British postal regulations require that the communication upon the address side of a postcard for or from a place which is not a town or village be addressed as an insufficiently prepaid letter.

What is Doing in All Sections of the State

West Branch is to have a new grain elevator.

West Branch is to have a new telephone exchange.

B. B. B. Bone lives in St. Joseph, Conn., near Fabius.

Work has begun on the big cement works at West Branch, near Fabius.

The water works building in Farwell was destroyed by fire Friday night.

The North Adams council has let the contract for the village lighting plant.

A cement plant will be built on Black Lake, about seven miles from Onaway.

The eight-county jail is much too small and the cells are being installed.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Whitney being the new pastor at Eaton Rapids.

Newberry will give a coeprage plant which will give employment to about fifty men.

The first Michigan peaches of the season were shipped by a St. Joseph, Mich., grower.

A "dive" work" folk is traveling around southwestern Michigan, but is making few dupes.

The chemical works at Manistowick are being expanded to the extent of $100,000.

Stephenson is to have a new industrial plant. It will be erected there in a few days.

Joe Hodson on Tuesday paid a fine of $15 for violating the liquor law at a party given at his home.

Robert H. Campbell, assistant secretary of the senate, gets his old place in the auditor-general's office.

The date of the annual fair of the Jackson county is set for September 25 to 29 in Jackson.

The farm house of Jack Laforge, three miles north of Hesse, burned to the ground with its contents Monday night.

A carload of flour, contributed by Michigan millers, was shipped from Kalamazoo to the flood sufferers at Kansas.

The estate of Richard Carman's house at Porterville is occupied by a family of five. They are putting a new roof on the house.

In Sable and neighboring counties 5,000 acres of locusts for the Crowsfoot area are growing, and most of them are in fine condition.

Millington business men will organize an improvement association and have a general meeting on Monday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock.

Many new residences are being built in Lake Odessa, several factories have been started, and the town is full of the spirit of a new era.

During the first six months of this year, there were 77 arrests in the county of Clinton there were but twenty-five.

At six o'clock on Wednesday Senator R. A. Alger was severely wounded in the battle of Bombsboro. His unknown engagement in the civil war.

Duraud abandoned the hotel of water and electric light company at Grand Rapids, and will run the municipal plant themselves.

The electric light plant at Brown City will be purchased by the village and run hereafter under municipal control. It will be enlarged and improved at once.

Parole is recommended by the state board of pardons for Paul Nelson, who was in the state prison for shooting at an officer and sentenced to ten years in jail.

City Clerk W. H. Aldrich, charged with credit to criminals, pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $100. He had allowed a horse with a broken leg to stand for sixteen hours without care.

Employs on Charles Dearham's farm at Grand Rapids, who were arrested for stealing a horse, that he is a "slave driver."

West Branch is to have a new grain elevator.

West Branch is to have a new telephone exchange.

B. B. B. Bone lives in St. Joseph, Conn., near Fabius.

Work has begun on the big cement works at West Branch, near Fabius.

The water works building in Farwell was destroyed by fire Friday night.

The North Adams council has let the contract for the village lighting plant.

A cement plant will be built on Black Lake, about seven miles from Onaway.

The eight-county jail is much too small and the cells are being installed.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Whitney being the new pastor at Eaton Rapids.

Newberry will give a coeprage plant which will give employment to about fifty men.

The first Michigan peaches of the season were shipped by a St. Joseph, Mich., grower.

A "dive" work" folk is traveling around southwestern Michigan, but is making few dupes.

The chemical works at Manistowick are being expanded to the extent of $100,000.

Stephenson is to have a new industrial plant. It will be erected there in a few days.

Joe Hodson on Tuesday paid a fine of $15 for violating the liquor law at a party given at his home.

Robert H. Campbell, assistant secretary of the senate, gets his old place in the auditor-general's office.

The date of the annual fair of the Jackson county is set for September 25 to 29 in Jackson.

The farm house of Jack Laforge, three miles north of Hesse, burned to the ground with its contents Monday night.

A carload of flour, contributed by Michigan millers, was shipped from Kalamazoo to the flood sufferers at Kansas.

The estate of Richard Carman's house at Porterville is occupied by a family of five. They are putting a new roof on the house.

In Sable and neighboring counties 5,000 acres of locusts for the Crowsfoot area are growing, and most of them are in fine condition.

Millington business men will organize an improvement association and have a general meeting on Monday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock.

Many new residences are being built in Lake Odessa, several factories have been started, and the town is full of the spirit of a new era.

During the first six months of this year, there were 77 arrests in the county of Clinton there were but twenty-five.

At six o'clock on Wednesday Senator R. A. Alger was severely wounded in the battle of Bombsboro. His unknown engagement in the civil war.

Duraud abandoned the hotel of water and electric light company at Grand Rapids, and will run the municipal plant themselves.

The electric light plant at Brown City will be purchased by the village and run hereafter under municipal control. It will be enlarged and improved at once.

Parole is recommended by the state board of pardons for Paul Nelson, who was in the state prison for shooting at an officer and sentenced to ten years in jail.

City Clerk W. H. Aldrich, charged with credit to criminals, pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $100. He had allowed a horse with a broken leg to stand for sixteen hours without care.

Employs on Charles Dearham's farm at Grand Rapids, who were arrested for stealing a horse, that he is a "slave driver."

West Branch is to have a new grain elevator.

West Branch is to have a new telephone exchange.

B. B. B. Bone lives in St. Joseph, Conn., near Fabius.

Work has begun on the big cement works at West Branch, near Fabius.

The water works building in Farwell was destroyed by fire Friday night.

The North Adams council has let the contract for the village lighting plant.

A cement plant will be built on Black Lake, about seven miles from Onaway.

The eight-county jail is much too small and the cells are being installed.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Whitney being the new pastor at Eaton Rapids.

Newberry will give a coeprage plant which will give employment to about fifty men.

The first Michigan peaches of the season were shipped by a St. Joseph, Mich., grower.

A "dive" work" folk is traveling around southwestern Michigan, but is making few dupes.

The chemical works at Manistowick are being expanded to the extent of $100,000.

Stephenson is to have a new industrial plant. It will be erected there in a few days.

Joe Hodson on Tuesday paid a fine of $15 for violating the liquor law at a party given at his home.

Robert H. Campbell, assistant secretary of the senate, gets his old place in the auditor-general's office.

The date of the annual fair of the Jackson county is set for September 25 to 29 in Jackson.

The farm house of Jack Laforge, three miles north of Hesse, burned to the ground with its contents Monday night.

A carload of flour, contributed by Michigan millers, was shipped from Kalamazoo to the flood sufferers at Kansas.

The estate of Richard Carman's house at Porterville is occupied by a family of five. They are putting a new roof on the house.

In Sable and neighboring counties 5,000 acres of locusts for the Crowsfoot area are growing, and most of them are in fine condition.

Millington business men will organize an improvement association and have a general meeting on Monday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock.

Many new residences are being built in Lake Odessa, several factories have been started, and the town is full of the spirit of a new era.

During the first six months of this year, there were 77 arrests in the county of Clinton there were but twenty-five.

At six o'clock on Wednesday Senator R. A. Alger was severely wounded in the battle of Bombsboro. His unknown engagement in the civil war.

Duraud abandoned the hotel of water and electric light company at Grand Rapids, and will run the municipal plant themselves.

The electric light plant at Brown City will be purchased by the village and run hereafter under municipal control. It will be enlarged and improved at once.

Parole is recommended by the state board of pardons for Paul Nelson, who was in the state prison for shooting at an officer and sentenced to ten years in jail.

City Clerk W. H. Aldrich, charged with credit to criminals, pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $100. He had allowed a horse with a broken leg to stand for sixteen hours without care.

Employs on Charles Dearham's farm at Grand Rapids, who were arrested for stealing a horse, that he is a "slave driver."

West Branch is to have a new grain elevator.

West Branch is to have a new telephone exchange.

B. B. B. Bone lives in St. Joseph, Conn., near Fabius.

Work has begun on the big cement works at West Branch, near Fabius.

The water works building in Farwell was destroyed by fire Friday night.

The North Adams council has let the contract for the village lighting plant.

A cement plant will be built on Black Lake, about seven miles from Onaway.

The eight-county jail is much too small and the cells are being installed.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Whitney being the new pastor at Eaton Rapids.

Newberry will give a coeprage plant which will give employment to about fifty men.

The first Michigan peaches of the season were shipped by a St. Joseph, Mich., grower.

A "dive" work" folk is traveling around southwestern Michigan, but is making few dupes.

The chemical works at Manistowick are being expanded to the extent of $100,000.

Stephenson is to have a new industrial plant. It will be erected there in a few days.

Joe Hodson on Tuesday paid a fine of $15 for violating the liquor law at a party given at his home.

Robert H. Campbell, assistant secretary of the senate, gets his old place in the auditor-general's office.

The date of the annual fair of the Jackson county is set for September 25 to 29 in Jackson.

The farm house of Jack Laforge, three miles north of Hesse, burned to the ground with its contents Monday night.

A carload of flour, contributed by Michigan millers, was shipped from Kalamazoo to the flood sufferers at Kansas.

The estate of Richard Carman's house at Porterville is occupied by a family of five. They are putting a new roof on the house.

In Sable and neighboring counties 5,000 acres of locusts for the Crowsfoot area are growing, and most of them are in fine condition.

Millington business men will organize an improvement association and have a general meeting on Monday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock.

Many new residences are being built in Lake Odessa, several factories have been started, and the town is full of the spirit of a new era.

During the first six months of this year, there were 77 arrests in the county of Clinton there were but twenty-five.

At six o'clock on Wednesday Senator R. A. Alger was severely wounded in the battle of Bombsboro. His unknown engagement in the civil war.

Duraud abandoned the hotel of water and electric light company at Grand Rapids, and will run the municipal plant themselves.

The electric light plant at Brown City will be purchased by the village and run hereafter under municipal control. It will be enlarged and improved at once.

Parole is recommended by the state board of pardons for Paul Nelson, who was in the state prison for shooting at an officer and sentenced to ten years in jail.

City Clerk W. H. Aldrich, charged with credit to criminals, pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $100. He had allowed a horse with a broken leg to stand for sixteen hours without care.

Employs on Charles Dearham's farm at Grand Rapids, who were arrested for stealing a horse, that he is a "slave driver."

West Branch is to have a new grain elevator.

West Branch is to have a new telephone exchange.

B. B. B. Bone lives in St. Joseph, Conn., near Fabius.

Work has begun on the big cement works at West Branch, near Fabius.

The water works building in Farwell was destroyed by fire Friday night.

The North Adams council has let the contract for the village lighting plant.

A cement plant will be built on Black Lake, about seven miles from Onaway.

The eight-county jail is much too small and the cells are being installed.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Whitney being the new pastor at Eaton Rapids.

Newberry will give a coeprage plant which will give employment to about fifty men.

The first Michigan peaches of the season were shipped by a St. Joseph, Mich., grower.

A "dive" work" folk is traveling around southwestern Michigan, but is making few dupes.

The chemical works at Manistowick are being expanded to the extent of $100,000.

Stephenson is to have a new industrial plant. It will be erected there in a few days.

Joe Hodson on Tuesday paid a fine of $15 for violating the liquor law at a party given at his home.

Robert H. Campbell, assistant secretary of the senate, gets his old place in the auditor-general's office.

The date of the annual fair of the Jackson county is set for September 25 to 29 in Jackson.

The farm house of Jack Laforge, three miles north of Hesse, burned to the ground with its contents Monday night.

A carload of flour, contributed by Michigan millers, was shipped from Kalamazoo to the flood sufferers at Kansas.

The estate of Richard Carman's house at Porterville is occupied by a family of five. They are putting a new roof on the house.

In Sable and neighboring counties 5,000 acres of locusts for the Crowsfoot area are growing, and most of them are in fine condition.

Millington business men will organize an improvement association and have a general meeting on Monday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock.

Many new residences are being built in Lake Odessa, several factories have been started, and the town is full of the spirit of a new era.

During the first six months of this year, there were 77 arrests in the county of Clinton there were but twenty-five.

At six o'clock on Wednesday Senator R. A. Alger was severely wounded in the battle of Bombsboro. His unknown engagement in the civil war.

Duraud abandoned the hotel of water and electric light company at Grand Rapids, and will run the municipal plant themselves.

The electric light plant at Brown City will be purchased by the village and run hereafter under municipal control. It will be enlarged and improved at once.

Parole is recommended by the state board of pardons for Paul Nelson, who was in the state prison for shooting at an officer and sentenced to ten years in jail.

City Clerk W. H. Aldrich, charged with credit to criminals, pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $100. He had allowed a horse with a broken leg to stand for sixteen hours without care.

Employs on Charles Dearham's farm at Grand Rapids, who were arrested for stealing a horse, that he is a "slave driver."

West Branch is to have a new grain elevator.

West Branch is to have a new telephone exchange.

B. B. B. Bone lives in St. Joseph, Conn., near Fabius.

Work has begun on the big cement works at West Branch, near Fabius.

The water works building in Farwell was destroyed by fire Friday night.

The North Adams council has let the contract for the village lighting plant.

A cement plant will be built on Black Lake, about seven miles from Onaway.

The eight-county jail is much too small and the cells are being installed.

The Rev. Dr. W. C. Whitney being the new pastor at Eaton Rapids.

Newberry will give a coeprage plant which will give employment to about fifty men.

The first Michigan peaches of the season were shipped by a St. Joseph, Mich., grower.

A "dive" work" folk is traveling around southwestern Michigan, but is making few dupes.

The chemical works at Manistowick are being expanded to the extent of $100,000.

Stephenson is to have a new industrial plant. It will be erected there in a few days.

Joe Hodson on Tuesday paid a fine of $15 for violating the liquor law at a party given at his home.

Robert H. Campbell, assistant secretary of the senate, gets his old place in the auditor-general's office.

The date of the annual fair of the Jackson county is set for September 25 to 29 in Jackson.

The farm house of Jack Laforge, three miles north of Hesse, burned to the ground with its contents Monday night.

A carload of flour, contributed by Michigan millers, was shipped from Kalamazoo to the flood sufferers at Kansas.

The estate of Richard Carman's house at Porterville is occupied by a family of five. They are putting a new roof on the house.

In Sable and neighboring counties 5,000 acres of locusts for the Crowsfoot area are growing, and most of them are in fine condition.

Millington business men will organize an improvement association and have a general meeting on Monday evening, July 8, at 8 o'clock.