

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC

WHITHEAD & MITCHELL, PUBLS. BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, JULY 3 To Our Friends.

When trading with any of our advertisers...

HOME NOTES

Miss E. Flynn—Milwaukee—Pontiac. Miss H. Traver Co.—Clothing—Detroit.

Frank Ford now has an automobile. Miss Cora Soules is now assistant in the postoffice.

C. J. Ostrand, of Pontiac, was in town Tuesday. Holly hopes for a street carnival during next September.

Mitchell's concert at Library hall next Wednesday evening.

The New York Dramatic Co. at Library Hall, Saturday night, July 4.

Mrs. H. S. Lett is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sheldon Peters, at East Lake.

The W. H. M. S., meet with Mrs. Corson next Thursday afternoon, July 9. Sec.

A new walk and uncovered porch are the latest improvements at the Advent church.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Deer on Tuesday, July 7th at 3 o'clock p. m.

Miss Corina Berger, of Franklin, is visiting at the home of John Van Every this week.

Pontiac kicks very strenuously on the great number of Sunday jags. We never have 'em.

Strayed away from the Watkins farm, 15 dozen young ducks. Please notify at once if found.

MAN WANTED—Must be good milkers; steady job for right man. Enquire at Huff farm.

Six thousand big mouth black bass were deposited in Long Lake at Featon the past month.

Order your ice cream for your 4th of July dinner of Cobb & Cobb. Delivered at any hour you desire.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church will meet with Mrs. Miller on Wednesday afternoon, July 8.

Mrs. James Peersall and daughter, Mrs. James Gee, of Amy, were guests of relatives in town Tuesday.

The tax collector will receive village tags from July 1 to August 4, 1903, at Cobb & Cobb's drug store.

In this issue Cobb & Cobb call your attention to their refreshing drinks. They deliver ice cream in pints and quarts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bortle are visiting relatives at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and are anticipating a fine summer's outing.

Mrs. J. W. Perry and sister, Miss Chapman, attended the wedding of their niece, Miss Adams, at Ann Arbor, on Wednesday last.

Men wanted at the Birmingham Brick and Tile Co.'s yards, half mile south of Exchange Bank. Capable hands will be paid $1.75 per day.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiley, of Owosso, called on many old friends one day last week and were surprised at Birmingham's growth and change for the better in the past 15 years.

A number of dog owners would be glad to catch the dog poisoner who is operating with deadly success in our village. Good dogs as well as worthless curs succumb to this poisoner's wiles.

The Michigan Press Association people are having a great time touring in the U. P. and they are wined, dined and feted, and carried around in special trains, cars, boats, etc., to their heart's content. We missed it.

The international convention of the Epworth League meets in Detroit, July 16-19. Several state and district rallies are being arranged, among them the Flint district rally at the Church of Our Father, Thursday morning, July 16.

The supervisors reconsidered the motion passed at the last meeting of the board to erect the new $100,000 courthouse on the old site, Daniel Davis made the board an offer of $15,000 for the old site, with a quit claim deed, or $20,000 with a warranty deed.

Prof. J. B. Field and wife and J. Bert Feabody and wife are enjoying a trip to Boston and the seashore for two weeks.

The Misses Anna and Helen Hulbert, of Colorado, are home for their summer's vacation and there are "doings" most of the time at the Hulbert home.

A great patriotic service will be held at Orion, Sunday, July 5. Hon. Thos. E. Barkworth, of Jackson, will deliver the address.

Read all about Mitchell's drawing room concert in another column. You must be a sketchholder in his drawing or you cannot get in less than one dollar.

The month of June, 1903, will go down in weather bureau history as the most remarkable June on record to date.

The New York Dramatic Co. will present their great success "A Little Herone" at Library Hall, Saturday evening, July 4.

Pontiac will have a 4th of July celebration and a high class one at that. For the first time in years this city will have doings on the National holiday.

The Saginaw Courier tells the story of some mischievous boys putting a skunk in a rural delivery mail box and says the matter has been reported to Washington and the department has sent a detective out to investigate the matter.

Mrs. Jane Rainey, one of the most respected residents of this place, met with an accident one night last week.

A telegram was received Monday by Thos. A. Ward from Lima, O., that well No. 2 on the Sugar Creek property was flowing over the ground.

Edward Bower, of the firm of Duff Bros. & Bower, of Cleveland, O., was taken seriously ill on the boat last Sunday while enroute to Detroit and upon reaching that city was taken to the Griswold House.

One of our subscribers looked through the bible to find a passage of scripture to justify him in using tobacco and found, to his surprise, it is found in the last chapter of Revelation and is the second clause of the eleventh verse.

The Telephone Co. at Northville held a meeting one night last week and passed a resolution ordering the secretary to enforce in every instance the rule relative to monthly payment of rentals.

"Your money back if you it" is the motto of R. A. Green & Co., the Pontiac clothiers.

Here is a boy's reason for wishing to become an editor.

Miss Scott, one of Ishpeming's most popular and successful school teachers, was the guest of Mrs. Mary B. Poppitt this week.

A pleasant home party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Chatfield on Southfield avenue was enjoyed last Saturday.

Lake Orion is to review her past achievements at a banquet to be given today.

The speaker at the firecracker and band concert at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Chatfield on Southfield avenue was Miss Sarah Bisset, sister of the deceased.

The Fourth will be celebrated at Orion this year in good old style.

A bunco man with a new graft has made his appearance in this section and the ladies are especially warned against his trickery.

The price of Perry & Stockwell's perfume and carries a bottle of high priced goods which he offers at a very reasonable price.

A telegram was received Monday by Thos. A. Ward from Lima, O., that well No. 2 on the Sugar Creek property was flowing over the ground.

Edward Bower, of the firm of Duff Bros. & Bower, of Cleveland, O., was taken seriously ill on the boat last Sunday while enroute to Detroit and upon reaching that city was taken to the Griswold House.

The Michigan Press Association people are having a great time touring in the U. P. and they are wined, dined and feted, and carried around in special trains, cars, boats, etc., to their heart's content. We missed it.

The Telephone Co. at Northville held a meeting one night last week and that has ever taken place in this section great interest is manifested.

Sunday forenoon Dr. J. L. Campbell was hastily summoned by phone from Wm. Hunt's to come at once and care for an injured man.

Here is a boy's reason for wishing to become an editor.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Elizabeth Laughlin and Harry E. Groves, which was solemnized Wednesday evening.

There will be an all day celebration of the glorious Fourth at Palmer Park.

A pleasant home party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Chatfield on Southfield avenue was enjoyed last Saturday.

Lake Orion is to review her past achievements at a banquet to be given today.

The speaker at the firecracker and band concert at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Chatfield on Southfield avenue was Miss Sarah Bisset.

The Fourth will be celebrated at Orion this year in good old style.

A bunco man with a new graft has made his appearance in this section and the ladies are especially warned against his trickery.

The price of Perry & Stockwell's perfume and carries a bottle of high priced goods which he offers at a very reasonable price.

A telegram was received Monday by Thos. A. Ward from Lima, O., that well No. 2 on the Sugar Creek property was flowing over the ground.

Edward Bower, of the firm of Duff Bros. & Bower, of Cleveland, O., was taken seriously ill on the boat last Sunday while enroute to Detroit and upon reaching that city was taken to the Griswold House.

Clearance Sale Now William H. Elliott Company.

Our Boys' Clothing Department offers you choice of about four hundred Suits in Sailor, Norfolk, Single-Breasted, Double-Breasted, Two-Piece and Three-Piece Styles that were $4, $6 and $8 a Suit—For $3.00 A SUIT NOW.

These Suits are taken right from our Stock, and are perfect in every detail. We simply have too many SILKS at Clearance Prices Stock Must be Reduced. Best quality CABLE WASH SILKS right from our shelves...

Colored Wash Goods—STARTLING CUT IN PRICES. Fancy Colored Dimities, that were 15c. now 7 1/2c. a yard.

CARPETS—DECIDEDLY DOWN IN PRICE. Wilton Velvet Carpets, borders to match, was $1.25, reduced to $1.00 a yard.

PONTIAC SAVINGS BANK FOUR PER CENT INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS FROM AND AFTER JUNE 1, 1903.

Oil advertisement for Great Northern Oil Co. featuring '50 Wells For Oil as fast as Pumped' and '35 CENTS PER SHARE'.

Vertical advertisements including 'Don't Blame Your Wife', 'Just Two Boats', and 'Church Notes'.