

THE RIPENING YEARS

GRATEFUL, HAPPY WOMEN

Completely Restored to Health. Mrs. P. Brasch, wife of J. Brasch, stock dealer, residence 1110 1/2 Ave. Everett, Wash., says: "For fifteen years I suffered with terrible pains in my back... I actually believe the aching in my back and through my legs became worse. I did not know what it was to enjoy a night's sleep..."

In spite of all that poets sing about our childhood's happy hours, it seems to me as if every spring brings greater fields and sweeter hours than the last.

The foliage upon the trees seems greener as it reappears; There's something in the very breeze that grows more sacred with the years.

FOR LOVE OR MONEY

Norma Hilbert sat up in the hammock and looked with increasing wonder at the open letter in her hand. Years ago she did not stop to think how many she and the writer of this letter had in common...

"That would be pretty nice, wouldn't it?" asked the young man. "You'd better guess it would." Norma felt the letter in her apron pocket and decided that she would mail it on her home.
