HE WANTS A DIVORCE

James Stumpf Married Detroit Miller--

Wants a Divorce--Asks for Infraction to Hold Property.

James Stumpf of Royal Oak got in wrong in the matter of matrimony, according to his wife called the deal all off and refused to live with him longer.

He asks a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Stumpf sets up that his wife was formerly a milliner in Detroit and that soon-ly after marriage she migrated to the farm near Royal Oak, demanding that they return to the city. As the result of this dissatisfaction on the part of his wife, Stumpf claims he was left alone a considerable portion of the time and was obliged to get his own meals if he had anything to eat.

Matters came to a crisis on Stumpf's part when he says his wife packed the household furniture and took part of it to Detroit with her. He says the rest was all packed and he feared, ready for removal. A temporary injunction issued by Judge Smith kept the furniture in the house until the divorce matter is disposed of.

The most unkind act of all, Stumpf claims, was the placing of a box of shot gun shells in the oven of the kitchen stove. Stumpf says he does not know what would have happened had he put a fire in the stove and not discovered the

School Notes

EDITED BY THE PEOPLE.

Editor-in-Chief--CLARENCE WEST.

The Clero class has finished the first edition of the book.

Miss Leepia reports all seats full, the number 56 being maintained.

Rev. Montrose Maxwell conducted devotional exercises Wednesday afternoon.

Classes are now called by a tap of the bell--a new method inaugurated by Prof.

Bellis.

After a break of several weeks choir practice has been taken up again and we expect to have good music soon.

The Third grade is studying Helen Hunt Jackson. The first grade is learning her poem, "October."

Mr. Clizbe was examining the ventilation of the school building last week.

We failed to ascertain his object.

The advanced class in German has taken up the study of William Tell, having finished their first text book.

The seniors have the back seats now.

The Juniors are in front of them. These are to be held as long as good behavior continues.

Visitors the past week: Mrs Florence

Stuart, Mrs Minnie Beck and Miss Myrtle Zimmerman. During the noon hour

Monday Mr. Thomas Beldow was reviewing old scenes.

Examinations were held from 8 to 9 a.

m. The first three days of this week to Brayman, Clara, Harry and Ray Hedding and Annie Ferguson.

AT THE THEATERS.

AVENUE.

The attraction at the Avenue theater next week will be the Bon Tons. The reputation made by this organization in the past is more than sustained this season. In its make-up the management has been careful in the selection of its material, and has gathered together an aggregation of extravaganza and vaudevilles celebrities seldom assembled in one company. It goes without saying that the management of the popular Avenue has been putting up first-class shows at popular prices, and the announcement of the coming of the Bon Tons has caused an unusual advanced sale of seats. The Majestics hold sway at the Avenue the balance of this week.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

There was a large crowd of visiting delegates in Birmingham and vicinity at the convention held at the W. C. T. U.

church Wednesday and Thursday of this week. A very interesting program was carried out and among the Birmingham people who took part we noticed Mrs. Rogers,

Rev. William M. Fuller, Miss V. Post,

Prof. Bellis, Mrs. J. L. Calkins, fourth district president and state lecturer, gave a rousing address on Wednesday evening. The general address on Thursday evening was given by Prof.

Bellis of the high school.

A Card.

I take this opportunity of informing the ladies of Birmingham and vicinity that I have secured the agency for all toilet articles manufactured by the justly celebrated Franco-American Hygienic

Co. There are 27 different preparations and every one of them desirable. Something every family has need of. I will call personally on every family in Birmingham, and after that I will have a full line of these goods always on hand and for sale to the ladies of Birmingham and vicinity. Mrs. ELLIN FISK.
