SCHOOL NOTES

Editor-in-Chief—CLARENCE WEST. Mrs. McKinnis visited Miss Pepper's room after school.

The report cards for the second month were given out this week. The class in algebra are dealing with the mysteries of factoring.

The class in chemistry had four days of interesting experiments relating to air. Miss Baldwin made a short call on several of the lower rooms Tuesday a.m.

All joy(?) the written tasks which are given weekly. They are good things nevertheless.

The Senior class have lost one of their number. We are sorry to note that Miss McGraw has deserted us.

The devotional exercises last Wednesday were conducted by Rev. Mr. Williams of the M. E. church.

The first meeting of the Literary Society has been postponed until Nov. 17. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Lepple will hold a mother's meeting from 2 to 4 Friday afternoon. Her mother is urged to be present and enjoy the treat.

Vera Robinson entered the first grade Monday; Willie Boughner the fourth. Austin Ford has returned after an illness of several weeks.

The geometry classes have run to their limit, striking the "Theory of Limits" this week. They suddenly stopped, but are on their feet again. They find circles very interesting.

Mr. Wm. McCormick, the Riverside whistler, gave a very pleasing entertainment to about 250 of the pupils Monday at the close of school. As an instructor Mr. McCormick is without equal, and especially so in his imitation of song birds.

The High School choir is composed of the following members: Misses Cora Short, Maude McDonald, Grace Puddy, Vera McClain, Mable Schoonover, Marie Williams, Justina Plamstead, Rosetta Rogers, Beanie Fisher, Grace Ford, Ethel Roy and Messrs. Hulbert, Barr, Hanna, West, Mirjam, McHugh, Kerr and Ward. Miss Jenks is training them.

Advertised Letters. The following is a list of letters remaining in the Birmingham postoffice November 6, 1904:

Ida K. Crawford, P. O. No. 2, For the Mt. of Harbors, Return to H. F. D. No. 4, B'ham, Mich. JOHN HANNA, P. M.

He Paid His Bet Like a Gentleman. One of the amusing post-office episodes is embodied in the following which was handed to Whitehead the "morning after":

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., Nov. 9, 1904. MESSRS. SCHLACK BROS. GENTLEMEN—Please let the bearer, Mr. A. Whitehead, have one ten-pound turkey and charge the same to my account.

(Signed) F. BLAKESLEE. P. S. Also please save me one of your finest Amers.

Whitehead has been so sorry for his friend Blakeslee that he has availed his intention, out of the fullness of his heart, to donate half a pound of crackers for Frank to eat with his liver, for Thanksgiving.

A Runaway Bicycle. Terminated with an ugly end on the leg of J. Orser, Franklin Grove, Ill. He developed a stubborn ulcer, yielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Buckley's Archaic Scurf cured. It is just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions, and Piles. Also at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores.
