

BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, NOV.

For the woman who thinks she is beautiful there is small hope of real beauty.

France will not approve of automobile racing until it can be made harmless as dueling.

If the Japanese have a few more royal birthdays they may go into the hands of the makers.

Spain of the links: A Berlin expert promulgates the information that there are 5,000 varieties of sausage.

What a girl loves about a football game is that, not knowing anything about it, she can pretend to enjoy it wildly.

Russia owes France $1,600,000,000. That settles it. Russell Sage will never have any respect for France after this.

Devilite, Ky. recently had a water famine. A strange feature of the case was that the citizens regarded it as a serious matter.

The Balkan war cloud is in the property room, so thickly covered with dust that it might easily be mistaken for a letter box.

The cancer reports are in session and the consensus of opinion is that the operation plan never make the cancer more rampant.

That army captain who intends to plead that he forgot he had a wife in the Philippines clearly should turn his attention to memoricas.

Ohio has had five cabinets since the beginning of 1904. A great man in Ohio doesn't want to wait long before he gets a cabinet.

England will send several of her young officers to the military school of Japan. Russia might follow England's example so that the war is over.

If that professor at St. Louis is right and the sun's heat really is electrical, then we have all been heating by electricity all our lives and never knew it.

A Pennsylvania man has applied to the court for a guardian to protect him from guleful women. Why doesn't he marry one with a projector chin?

Bill Williams Ramsey suggests personal action from radium—perhaps how the stuff can "go" at a low price is a mystery to all but the millionaires.

With his newly invented locomotive tender, saving nearly eight tons weight, Cornelius Vanderbilt proves again his heritage, which is better than family dollars.

A Pennsylvania school teacher advises lovers to quarrel on the ground that an occasional scrap sharpens the intellect. But it will be well not to put too fine a point upon it.

"We do not know the process of making banana flour," says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. How refreshing it is to see an editor confess that there is anything he doesn't know!

Pauline Astor got $1,000,000 worth of presents when she was married to Captain Spender Jay. Under such circumstances a girl could hardly be blamed for wanting a chance to try it again.

There is an ingenious story now that it was one of Rudyard Kipling's strenuous travels that inspired the Russian warships to fire on the English fishing boats. Why not blame it on Homer?

The runaway air ship was found in a Missouri cornfield. Another good thing about a runaway air ship is when it comes down in a cornfield it doesn't proceed to overeat: until it is accounted.

On account of court etiquette, precedent and that sort of thing, King Alphonse of Spain can choose his own certain girl for his wife. What a poor boy would be in if she were to turn him down!

Some English philosophers think there will never be another big war between the Russians and Japs got through. Evidently they think the Baltic fleet to return home by way of the North Sea.

A health writer says women do not have so many colds as men because they are not addicted to heavy covering. He has probably been married.
