The near approach to death of the haby was witnessed by Polloeman Koraten and several others, but it all happened so quickly that no one but thee dogs was able to do a thing toward naving the life of the little fellow. Mr. Cowrin is a miner and has lived ig "serkeloy several years.

An old begro died at Holly Springs, this, recently, and as he belonged to the church or lodge three or four engrees voluntered to bury him, and hey were the only followers in his neural train. After the coffin had seemed to feel that something ought to be said. They appealed to the old-si man, "Bob" McCraven, who deliv-red the following: "Friday Jion, you s gone: but we hopes you is better than we report, you."

Six Hundred Yards of $1.00 Money bak Black Taffeta Silk at 69c a Yard

It is the first time that Moneybak Black Silks were ever sold at a reduced price. It is also the only time that any black silk, to our knowledge, has been offered under the reg-ular cost price. The recognized Standard Price for 19-inch Moneybak Black Taffeta is $1.00 a yard. Six Hundred Yards today and while it lasts, 69c a yard.

A recent letter states that Moneybak in 19-inch width will be no longer manufuctured. No reason for so doing is given, but we believe the demand is for the 24-inch Silk. The quality is magnificent, and fully guaranteed in every way against cracking, turning dingy or otherwise prove unsatisfactory.

There is just ten pieces averaging sixty yards each. The sale starts as soon as you read this announcement, and such a rare economy should carry away the lot in a jiffy
