

To our friends.

When traveling with any of our advertisements in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to mention the fact that you noticed their advertisement in our paper. A word sent you at the time of reading, costs you nothing and benefits us greatly. Will you be good and do so?

Abbott, the farm man, has a new deal this week.

Bert Blakeslee, of Detroit, spent Sunday with his parents.

Frank Windiate, of Pontiac, was in town one day last week.

Miss Leslie Tucker, of Pontiac, was a guest of Mrs. E. Lamb part last week.

Miss Grace Moore, of St. Clair, Mich., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Seeley Peck.

Farm to let on shares, three miles from Birmingham. Apply to Mrs. C. Ellenwood.

Adolph Enggass, Detroit's popular jeweler, has a change of address in this issue. Read it.

Lost, a pair of gold spectacles—in a case. Finder please leave at this office and receive the thanks of the loser.

Sheriff Brewster, of Pontiac, was in town the latter part of the week looking up evidence in the Baxter burglary.

Saturday afternoon the Girls' Guild of St. James' church will give a cake sale at Cobbs' drug store from 3 to 5.

Don't fail to notice the fact that Volney Nixon is giving a double dose of yellow trading stamps these days. See Volney for particulars.

The W. F. M. society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Fuller on Wednesday, March 2, at 2:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Volney Nixon's recent loss of $50 by fire on merchandise was promptly adjusted and paid by the Connecticut Fire Insurance Co., of Hartford, through their local agent, A. W. Campbell.

For sale, a 30-light Acetylene gas machine. Just the thing for a farm house, store or public building. Cost $125 new; will sell for $50. Guaranteed as good as new. See want column.

How many will send in bids for the first 30 feet on the north end, next to Mr. Doty's of my property on Woodward avenue? Address Mrs. H. H. Sawyer, 128 Lafayette Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Miss Fannie Satterlee gave the last progressive euchre party before Lent, Wednesday afternoon, February 16. Present, Mesdames Dickenson, Bigelow, Stearns, Post, Ferguson, Jacobs, Smith, Wilson, Truax and Belle Smith.

A party consisting of Mesdames Stearns, Carlisle, Truax, Wilson, and Bigelow and Misses Ella Poppleton and Bessie Bigelow, attended the matinee Saturday afternoon to see the "Sultan of Sulu," at the Detroit opera house.

To the Ladies of the Literary Club: There are thirteen books belonging to the Club Literary from Lansing still out. The books must be shipped Feb. 27, to reach Lansing March 1st. M. Baldwin, Librarian.

The J. L. Hudson Co. of Detroit has put a typewriter on the market the speed of which is limited only by the capacity of the operator. It is no toy, but an up-to-date machine and the price is only $75. Better get one while they last.

Mrs. Hattie Todd and Miss Anna Parks will entertain the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church at the home of Miss Parks, Friday, March 4, 1904. Table committee, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Bartram, hosts.

Miss Beatrice Brown is back in her accustomed place in Nixon's store, after recovering from the severe burn which she received some time ago while lighting one of the gasoline lamps in the store. Her many friends are pleased to see her smiling face once more.

The Fortune Oil Co. of this place has just sold their first tank of oil containing 100 barrels, and have installed a 25-horsepower engine. They will be pumping oil every day from now on from three fine wells and the future looks very bright for the company.

All the editors of county news papers outside of Pontiac met in Pontiac one day last week and formed an Oakland Co. Press Club, the object of which is to seek individual, personal primary reform, with the tactics of the foreign advertiser, and for the general welfare of all of its members.

E. R. Smith & Co. report that a scarcity of coal is not likely to occur. A few weeks ago their patrons had to burn any old coal they could get, but now the supply of all grades is greater than the demand and you can pay your money and take your choice on all kinds except chestnut anthracite which is expected every day.

Geo. Duff, who went to Denver three years ago for more business and for the benefit of his child's health, is back again for a short visit among his old friends. Geo. is looking fine and the child's health is much improved. Brother Duff says the west is all right and back again he will go in due time.

Miss Grace Gillespie is at Harper Hospital, having undergone a surgical operation for a throat trouble. Dr. C. M. Synnott is her attending physician and she is slowly recovering. The Ladies Literary club sent the patient sufferer a handsome floral offering with their sympathy on Wednesday.

The dance given by the Macca-bees Friday evening last was a success in every way. About fifty couples were present. The music was first-class as usual and everyone enjoyed themselves to their fullest capacity. It is said this is the last dance to be given by this society this season, but many hope they will reconsider and give "just one more."

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Oakland County Teachers' Association, will be held at the Court House, in the city of Pontiac, on Saturday, March 5, 1904. A varied program will be the order of the day and school work will be reviewed by able speakers. Every teacher in Oakland county should attend this meeting. The program will commence at 9:45 Saturday morning, March 5.

James L. Todd and George H. Mitchell could not get to attend the M. E. church chicken pie supper last week, but the ladies promised these two gentlemen a supper if they would pay the quarter. They paid it and both had a neat box sent to them. Jim got the neck and Mitchell the gizzard. Say, if there is anything about a hen that Mitchell despises it is the gizzard.

Mr. Jacob Trend is still at Harper hospital and making progress toward recovery, though quite slow. After waiting a reasonable time his foot was amputated Tuesday, Dr. Shaw being present, and while his recovery is slow we hope it will be sure. The Birmingham chapter of the O. E. S. sent him a handsome floral gift with their sympathy on Wednesday.

This is what everybody is after and is getting scarcer than hen's teeth: Ten acres right on Woodward Ave. comfortable house and basement barn, fruit, shade, and nice creek, just outside of the corporation so your taxes will be low. Tell your Detroit friends only $2900. Good speculation as it will bring $500 more by the time that first automobile goes by this spring. Inquire Exchange Bank.

Miss Mattie Baldwin is home from Washington, and has enjoyed every moment of her absence. At the Capitol she found much to interest her aside from her business as a delegate to the Woman's National Equal Suffrage association. She was formally presented to President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Alice Roosevelt. She has promised us a letter next week telling more of the doings of the convention.

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Wm. Henning of Southfield. Deceased was truly a pioneer of Southfield, having lived in this township over 50 years. He was 84 years of age and leaves one son, J. Mil. Henning, and a granddaughter, Mary Wallace. Funeral will be held today, conducted by the Rev. J. R. McCracken. Burial in the Covenanter cemetery. He was a consistent and life-long member of the Covenanter church. Old age and general debility was the immediate cause of his death.

The chicken pie supper, given by the ladies of the M. E. church last week Thursday evening, was a success socially and financially, $25.50 being the net profits. Now the men of the church are going to show you what they can do. On Thursday evening, March 17, they will give a supper at the same place. We understand the bill of fare will contain Irish soup, Irish stew, Irish fricassee, Irish potatoes, Irish pudding, and Irish Settee—whatever that is.

The ladies of the Literary society gave a very pleasant and enjoyable entertainment at the home of Mrs. J. Allen Bigelow, on Monday evening, February 22. Forty or more ladies graced her pleasant and spacious parlors, and indulged in a guessing contest, the subject being illustrated advertisements cut from magazines, after which Miss Plumstead gave a recitation, followed by Agnes Hulbert, both young ladies nicely responding to hearty cheers. Sandwiches and coffee were served and all enjoyed a social evening.

E. J. Kinnisten, Birmingham's popular baker has been having his share of hard luck lately. He had just nicely recovered from a wound in one of his hands caused by a silver, when he opened up the top of his coal stove to see if it needed filling, when an explosion occurred and a mass of blue flames belched out of the magazine into the good man's face. His hair was singed and his face quite severely burned. Prompt medical assistance soon relieved his sufferings and he is again able to attend to business.

Tell you that, babies are getting to be the real thing among the ladies. Among the new arrivals within the week we find at Mrs. Webster Bray's a fine 9 pound brother for Master Stanley Gray, and all concerned are satisfied and nappy. That's on Woodward ave. Maple avenue was visited by the stork and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Bell was left one of the prettiest girl babies that ever came setting up the best girls in the market, but he feels "left" because he wanted a man to work his farm this summer.

There is no telling what a lot of trouble one pesky little muskrat can do when he starts out on mischief bent. Some time ago one of these mischievous little rascals undertook to let the water out of the mill-pond and how he succeeded can best be told by McClellan & Satterlee who had to repair the damage. His ratship dug a hole on the north side of the waste gate down to the stone wall and followed along the face of this until he got to the south side, where he came out through the bank, making an outlet which lowered the pond about four feet. Dynamite was freely used and by much hard work the hole was plugged. Permanent repairs will be made in the spring.

Augusta Denison, administratrix, will sell at auction on the premises, 2 miles east and 2 miles north of Birmingham and 2 miles south and 1 mile west of Troy Corners, on Friday, March 4, at 10 o'clock a. m., horses, cows, pair fat steers, bull, yearling heifer, 75 Plymouth Rock hens, buggies, road cart, cutter, potato cracker, chest of carpenter's tools, set bobblehills, hay rack, wagons, mower, binder, plow, cultivator, grass seeder, grain drill, horse rake, 1/2 interest in hay teder, fanning mill, horsepower, 175 bu. corn in ear, about 400 bushels in stack, 250 bu. of oats, 500 lbs. of bran, about 10 tons of hay and many other articles. Easy terms. Two auctioneers, C. W. Upton and M. H. Blunt.

What is probably one of the most unique prisons in the world is located at Santa Rosalia, Lower California. It is cut out of the solid rock, the gates being made of iron thick bars. The prisoners never know how long they will be detained in this terrible place, as they are not allowed to be present at their trial—an interesting custom which practically insures their conviction, unless they are in a position to oil the machinery of justice. Their friends, if they have any, bring them food, as the state does not undertake to feed them and they get their water for drinking and bathing out of a cask set outside the door. Altogether, the life of an inmate of this terrible place is a more or less of luxury compared to this rock-hewn penitentiary.

After Farrowing. A good many people feel their cows the best before they are actually paying no attention to the changed conditions. The idea seems to be that the cow knows enough to eat the hay she should and drink what she should; in other words that there is an instinct that cannot fail to lead the animal to the right thing at the right time. But handlers of stock know that animals cannot be depended on to do the right thing at the right time, and that the people can be depended upon. The man that understands this will feed his cows that have farrowed as he thinks best to feed them and not let the cow think best to be fed. After farrowing, the cow should have but little food, and that should not be too rich. It has been found that too rich food will secure the pigs.

A surviving party is now engaged in defining the routes of the second Siberian railroad. The party will project the line in such a manner that instead of four daily trains with passenger cars each, nine trains of thirty-six cars each run every twenty-four hours. For this improvement an additional 600 million ($6,150,000) are appropriated.

THE STALLION PATRONIZES.

The time is at hand when the farm man will be making more and more than ever before. It is important to select a suitable sire. There is a pressing demand for heavy draft geldings of good quality, weight 600 pounds and up, and no reason to conclude that the demand will not continue for many years to come. In breeding this year the stallion decides not only upon the breed most suitable in every way, but determine that this breed will be stuck to faithfully all the year. As the top grades have been made. Where this is done the resultant animals will be practically pure bred and after that standard has been attained no further step should be taken—no outcrossing to an alien breed be permitted. In examining the stallion to be used do not look at his pedigree alone. The stallion may look attractive by reason of the gaudy seals attached. Look at the horse first and the pedigree second. See that he is sound and all important essentials, especially that he is free from the following, hereditary or transmissible weaknesses: Roaring, heaves, grease, straghtail, chorea, spavin, adhesion, ringbone, curb and eye troubles. See, too, that he is a really a draft horse, and not a light horse made to weigh a ton by reason of the fat upon his ribs. Figure what he would weigh if in ordinary condition and he decides that he is comparatively thin he should tip the scales at not less than 1,600 pounds. Be sure that he has not only bulk, a well rounded body, good hearting and attractive head and neck, but likewise grand quality, ample clean flat bones, well defined strong tendons and fully developed, well formed, tough feet. Avoid flat, shelly, brittle feet, with evidences of sidebone, convexity of sole, rings or cracks. This is all important. The feet must be ample, of good shape and so wide we cannot expect to breed from the stallion horses for hard work that will wear well for years even upon hard pavements in the city. Prefer too the horse that is well rounded in the hind quarters, some time possessed of readily distended, long and strong muscles at shoulder, back and hip. Then see to it that he is a really a draft horse, and not a light horse straight forward in a right line and turning up his shoes both fore and aft so that the soles are good at the ob-server. It is necessary that he should be a brisk walker for heavy draft horses do their work at a walk and should get over the ground as rapidly as possible when drawing a heavy load. It is necessary that he should be able to trot freely and well for this ability indicates, in a rapid, steady and soundness. If possible select a sire that has great individuality of type and character as he will most probably prove more impressive or prepotent than a more ordinary stallion. Having selected such a sire consider as an insurance against getting an old brood down, unsound matings. It is necessary that both parents should be sound if you are to obtain sound offspring. It is always the sire's fault that the foals are poor in quality for the unsound mare will surely counteract the good qualities of her superior mate. It is a dangerous prospect expecting the impossible in horse breeding. We should only expect superiority in the progeny as the sure legacy of superiority. We should not look for pigs from thistles or sound foals from unsound parents. Both parents should be sound at least and the foals they produce should not be wasted. We have already said too many nondescript, mongrel, list, unsound horses in the country. Why breed more of them? A. S. Alexander in Farmers' Review.

Cattle Feeding in Tennessee. Prof. Andrew M. Soule, director of the Tennessee Experiment Station says: The feeding of cattle has not been engaged in as extensively in the middle south as the natural conditions would warrant owing to the frequent though ill-founded belief that the winter feeding of cattle could not be made profitable. In the case of the limited supply of corn available for feeding purposes. There is no reason why much more corn should not be raised without increasing the acreage by improving the culture now given the land, though if the present corn crop were properly supplemented by the judicious use of cotton seed meal, it would already suffice to feed many thousand head of cattle that are being fed on the present crop. The soil and climate of the states are peculiarly well adapted to the production of winter cereals, such as barley, oats, wheat and rye.

Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb will pay back your money if PEPISKOLA fails to cure dyspepsia. "Never in the history of this store," said one of the above druggists, "a representative of a wholesale drug house, 'has there been so great a demand for a new remedy as there is just now for PEPISKOLA.' 'Birmingham people are coming every day inquiring if it really is true that we sell PEPISKOLA with the understanding that we will refund their money if they are not decidedly benefited.' 'As a matter of fact,' continued the druggist, 'not one person in five has asked for their money, and it may surprise you to know that in a dozen within the last ten days have been in to tell us how much they have been relieved, and how glad they are to know at last there is a remedy that really will cure indigestion and dyspepsia.' PEPISKOLA braces up and tones every nerve and fibre, helps digest the food, puts new life into the digestive organs, improves the appetite, clears up the complexion, cures biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue and sick headache. Try it for ten days and if you don't see a big improvement step in and tell the druggist and they will hand back your quarter cheerfully and without argument.

My Hair

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it brought all my hair back again."
W. D. Quinn, Marselles, Ill.

One thing is certain—Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. This is because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair and the hair grows, that's all there is to it. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. & W. L. Lowell, Mass.

Thanksgiving Song.

Let's sing a song of thankfulness for all our blessings past. Though the morning dawned the twilight and the blossoms met the blast. We were happy for a day. We were merry on the way. We knew the flowers of May. Let's sing a song of thankfulness for all our blessings past. Even if we missed the mountain top, the valley shades are sweet. Let's dream that God does best. Though the things be not the best. We shall dream His dreams of silence. We shall dream His dreams of peace.—Frank L. Stanton in Atlanta Constitution.
